JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

EIGHTY-FIRST ANNUAL SESSION

OF THE

Grand Lodge of State of Illinois

OF THE

Independent Order of Odd Fellows

REPRESENTATIVES' HALL, STATE HOUSE,
November 19, 1918, 3:00 o'clock P. M.

THE GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS OF THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS was called to order by Grand Master H. M. Blood.

Upon roll call, Grand Officers were found to be present as follows:

H. M. BLOOD.....Grand Master.
L. M. KAGY.....Deputy Grand Master.
JOHN W. BIRNEY.....Grand Warden.
JOHN H. SIKES.....Grand Secretary.
MELVIN P. BERRY.....Grand Treasurer.
JAMES EWING DAVIS.....Grand Representative.
A. OTIS ARNOLD.....Grand Representative.
O. F. JORDAN.....Grand Chaplin.
ANDREW G. ANDERSON.....Grand Marshal.
C. EDWIN JOHNSON.....Grand Conductor.
E. A. RIDENOUR.....Grand Guardian.
A. L. BONE.....Grand Herald.
OWEN SCOTT.....Grand Instructor.
CHARLES M. HUNT.....Asst. Grand Instructor.

The Grand Secretary reported a quorum of Representatives in attendance.

The Grand Marshal reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was then sung.

The Grand Chaplain invoked the Divine blessing in the following words:

Almighty God, we invoke Thy favor upon this assemblage of brethren, may their covenant of friendship find richer and deeper meaning through the fellowship of common counsel, grant that the meetings of the Grand Lodge may be wise in deliberations, brotherly in spirit and open-eyed in vision. May the passion of human brotherhood arising here be carried to every man in the Fraternity of this great State and be the motive power of countless acts of kindness.

Grant to bless our officers with true leadership, may love of the brethren move every voice that speaks and may no selfishness or pride or contention mar our harmony. Give to us all a larger measure of Jonathan's modesty and more of the helpfulness of the Good Samaritan.

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil for Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory, now and forever Amen.

The Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, then proclaimed the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

The Grand Master ordered the Flag to be displayed, whereupon the Grand Warden placed the colors to the right of the Grand Master. America was sung and all saluted the Flag.

The printed Reports of the Grand Lodge Officers were received and referred to a Special Committee for analysis and the distribution of the matters therein to appropriate committees.

On motion of Bro. L. L. McKinley, P.G.M., the minutes of the last session were approved as printed without reading.

The Grand Master announced appointments as follows:

GRAND MASTER

To the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS: In submitting my report to the Grand Lodge, may I first of all express to you my appreciation of the great honor you conferred upon me, and the confidence you reposed in me, when you placed in my hands the duties and responsibilities of the office of Grand Master.

OUR COUNTRY IN WAR.

When I took office I found our membership and our lodge organizations much disturbed owing to war conditions and also because of the fact that these conditions had brought about new situations which had to be met and solved promptly. Added to all this, much new legislation was enacted at the last session of the Grand Lodge and these new laws had to be put into operation by all of the lodges. Just how successfully the situation has been met must be left to others to determine.

STATE OF THE ORDER.

Many Brothers felt that the war would lay a heavy hand on our lodges, with the result that the lodges would have a tendency to run down, and that interest in lodge work would give place to war excitement.

I am glad to report to you that such has not been the case. The members generally have been quick to appreciate that this great organization of Americans could be made to play a very important part "back of the lines." For this reason, I believe more than for any other, interest has been well sustained in lodge work. The lodges, as a whole, have grown stronger, their financial condition has been improved, and the membership strengthened.

CREDIT TO THOSE TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.

This Order is blessed with many true and faithful workers, Brothers who can be depended upon to render full measure of service to their lodges and the Order at all times. They are in no particular section of the state, but may be found everywhere. It is to these Brothers I wish to pay my profound respects and tender my thanks for the loyal support they have given me on every hand, not only making my load lighter, but my efforts successful where otherwise I must have failed completely.

ASSOCIATE GRAND OFFICERS.

I have enjoyed open, frank and pleasant relations with my associate Grand Officers during the year. To them, individually and collectively, I desire to extend my thanks for the many kindnesses shown me on all occasions.

LIBRARY
OF THE SALUTATORY.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 23, 1917.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

In accordance with long established custom it becomes my duty and privilege to address to the lodges of Illinois my salutatory as your Grand Master.

First of all, I wish to express to you my appreciation of the high honor you have conferred upon me, and to assure you that it will be my chief aim to justify your judgment in this important matter.

While I do not expect to accomplish all things we might desire in the coming year, I do sincerely hope to be able to do some things well. Just how much I shall accomplish will depend upon the loyal and unselfish co-operation of the membership, for alone I can do but very little. I shall make unstinted sacrifice on my part, and shall expect the same sacrifice on the part of the membership everywhere, that we may not only hold our own through these troublesome times, but that we may be able to carry the banner of Odd Fellowship forward and plant it on advanced ground for the benefit of humanity.

Lodge Deputies.

That the machinery of our organization may be fully completed and set in motion at the very earliest moment, I enclose herewith blank certificate for your recommendation for Lodge Deputy. It is hardly necessary for me to call your attention to the importance of a good deputy. Upon the deputy depends largely the peace and harmony of the lodge. Select a Brother or Sister who will have your confidence and respect as to knowledge of the laws, and one who will cheerfully execute the instructions of the Grand Master. The Grand Master will appoint, with rare exceptions, the one you recommend for your Lodge Deputy, so if you do not have the best fitted member for this position the fault will lie with the lodge.

Appended hereto you will find a roster of the newly elected and appointed officers of the Grand Lodge as well as the committee appointments for the present term.

I shall take the liberty of addressing the lodges at frequent intervals during the coming year, discussing in each communication such subjects as seem most pressing at the moment. I trust these communications will be given proper consideration as soon as received. At this time I would admonish you to look well to filling the chairs in your lodge room with competent and efficient officers, and thus be in position to start the new year fully equipped for the work which confronts us in the immediate future.

Owing to the disturbed conditions it is imperative that we go about our work with stout hearts and willing hands, that we may be the better able to overcome whatever difficulties beset our pathway. Let us not waste our time in small things, but devote our full energies to the main business in hand—the carrying forward the great work for which we are especially organized.

Fraternally yours,

H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Master.

SYNOPSIS OF LEGISLATION.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 20, 1917.

To the Officers and Members of Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS: Enclosed will be found a synopsis of the recent legislation affecting our lodges and membership. It is issued in this form for the purpose of especially attracting the attention of the officers and members, to the end that all may be fully advised of the changes in our laws.

1918 Code.

The issue of the 1918 Code will contain all of the amendments and changes in our laws to date. This Code will be off the press soon after January 1, 1918. Lodges should secure a supply as soon thereafter as possible. They will be supplied at the regular rate of twenty-five (25c) cents a copy.

The New Term.

Your Grand Master hopes that the officers about to be installed into office will especially prepare themselves for the duties of their respective offices. Under our laws all officers must prove their efficiency before installation. so they may be able to open and close the lodge without the use of the Ritual. The Noble Grand and Vice-Grand must know the unwritten work of the Order perfectly. The officers must be able to confer the degrees, even though the work is usually done by a degree staff. Efficient officers make for an efficient lodge and efficient lodges make an efficient Order. Lodge Deputies should see to it that all officers are amply qualified before they are installed into office, and this applies to appointive as well as elective officers.

Financial Secretaries.

Upon the Financial Secretary depends the financial success of the lodge. It is a business office and it is "business" to collect what is due the lodge. If members are not allowed to get into bad standing they will not be dropped for non-payment of dues. Now, as never before in the history of the Order, must we look sharply after our finances. Our financial responsibility to our soldier members should prompt this, if nothing else. We must have the money in our treasuries before we can pay it out, and the calls for money caused by this terrible war will be almost without limit. Look well to your finances.

Harmony.

In the presence of the great responsibilities which confront us as Americans and Odd Fellows, we cannot afford to let personal preferences and small matters impede us in our work as patriotic citizens. We must not "fiddle while Rome burns." We cannot afford to "FUSS" among ourselves while there is so much to do in this mighty world struggle. If we harmoniously discharge the duties appertaining to the Order we will find ample time to serve our country, not only as individuals, but as a great patriotic Order. Make your lodge a center for fraternal work and patriotic service.

Wishing you unbounded prosperity for the New Year, I am,

Fraternally yours,

H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Master.

U. S. FUEL ADMINISTRATION.

I. O. O. F. Lodges Meeting on Monday.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 25, 1918.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS: Whereas, the United States Fuel Commission has ordered the closing of a large number of buildings on Mondays for a limited space of time; and,

Whereas, Odd Fellowship is a law-abiding organization, and under our laws Subordinate Lodges must meet weekly for the transaction of business, the relief of distress, etc.;

Therefore, I, H. M. Blood, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois, hereby authorize all I. O. O. F. organizations in Illinois, meeting regularly on Mondays, to hold their meetings on any other week day during this prohibition for the transaction of business without further permission or dispensation. All Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges in Illinois will be governed accordingly.

Fraternally yours,

H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

EFFICIENCY.

Chicago, Ill., January, 1918.

DEAR BROTHERS: Last year, Grand Master A. Otis Arnold worked out a plan for giving special recognition to Noble Grands and Vice-Grands who fully qualified themselves for the position of presiding officers in Subordinate Lodges. It is the purpose of the present Grand Master to continue this plan, and accordingly a

Diploma Extraordinary

will be granted to Noble Grands and Vice Grands who can qualify as follows:

The Unwritten Work in the four Degrees.

The Opening and Closing Charges.

The Noble Grand's work in the Initiatory Degree, including all of his charges in that Degree.

The examination to be in open lodge and attested by the Secretary with seal, and the Deputy of the Lodge.

The object in selecting the Initiatory Degree for qualifying is that candidates must be initiated in the lodge to which they apply for membership, and competent Noble Grands assure to a large extent a proper initiation.

Rituals.

The Rituals should be regarded as text books in which the lectures and charges may be found, but they should not be exposed in the lodge room by the officers. If each officer will commit to memory the charge appertaining to his office, there will be no need for Rituals during a meeting or in conferring a Degree.

War Times.

Reports coming to the Grand Master indicate that lodges, as a whole, are doing splendid work. Some lodges are doing more work this winter than they have done in some time, while there are a few that have allowed themselves to slip. This is no time to sit down and brood over what "may happen." It is a time for action—intelligent and persistent.

There has never, in our history, been a time when membership in this Order was worth more than right now. Opportunity for service is on every hand. An active Odd Fellows lodge can be made to play a big part in these stirring times. Let the public know what we are doing for our soldier members; how we have prepared ourselves for whatever may happen. Explain how our Homes are financed and managed. Give the kind of men you would be glad to associate with an opportunity to join you in the great work this Order is doing everywhere, and all of our lodges will prosper, for no fraternal organization stands to do more for Humanity right now than this Order.

Home Tax.

To this date not a single objection has been lodged with the Grand Master with reference to the new legislation concerning the Home tax. There has been some misunderstanding as to just when it was due, or just when it should be charged against the members, but the principle involved, wherein each member contributes a definite amount for the support of the Homes, has met with popular approval. It has been easy to see that the amount called for, 25 cents four times a year, brings more complete satisfaction, goes farther, does more real good, than double the amount spent in any other way on earth.

The membership should be fully advised concerning this Home tax law, so that those who do not attend the lodge regularly may know about it as well as those who hear it discussed and explained in lodge rooms.

Specially Prepared Letter.

Letters suitable to mail out to the membership of lodges explaining the new law governing the Home tax and the objects achieved have been prepared and printed in large quantity, and will be supplied to lodges at fifty cents per hundred copies, postage prepaid. I recommend that lodges take advantage of these circulars and secure a supply sufficient to mail to each member, which are furnished by the Grand Secretary.

Trusting that you will adopt for your motto for the year that "Nothing is good enough if there is anything better," I am,

Fraternally yours,

Attest: H. M. BLOOD,

JNO. H. SIKES, Grand Master.

Grand Secretary.

HALIFAX DISASTER.

Chicago, Ill., January 25, 1918.

To Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS: I have received the attached appeal for aid from the office of Frank C. Goudy, Grand Sire, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which explains itself.

You will kindly have this appeal for aid read in your lodge, and render such assistance as you may desire, sending your remittance to Brother John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary, Springfield, Illinois.

The Grand Lodge has already forwarded one hundred dollars for immediate use.

Fraternally yours,

Attest: H. M. BLOOD,
JNO. H. SIKES, Grand Master.
Grand Secretary.

Office of
F. C. Goudy
Grand Sire
Independent Order of Odd Fellows

Denver, Colo., Jan. 15, 1918.

To All Odd Fellows:

Please read the following appeals of Grand Master Ryan of The Maritime Provinces and of Grand Representative Joseph Oliver for help in relieving the awful suffering and distress that came to our Brothers and their families in the Halifax disaster, and then promptly contribute such amount as you may be able to give.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge immediately sent $1,000.00 and other branches of the Order $5,000.00, but much more is needed.

Fraternally,

FRANK C. GOUDY,
Grand Sire.

(COPY.)

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLANDS,
December 22, 1917.

To All Subordinate Lodges Throughout the Jurisdiction:

BROTHERS: In the great calamity that has recently caused such destruction of life and property in Halifax, our members have suffered heavily.

Immediately following the disaster an energetic committee was appointed to look after those of our members who had suffered. The efforts of this Committee, at first, were directed towards recovering the bodies of those killed, rendering aid to the injured, and seeing that accommodation was provided for the homeless.

The Committee is now endeavoring to prepare an estimate of losses, and my latest advices are that twenty-five members have been killed. Many others have lost members of their families, and the property loss is estimated at not less than $150,000.00. Winter is upon us and many of the survivors will have to be assisted, not only through this winter, but for years to come. Money is urgently needed and I therefore appeal to you to contribute to the relief of our Brothers as liberally as you possibly can without injury to yourself. Remember that: He only is an Odd Fellow who has pity and mercy and who hastens to the relief of a Brother in distress.

Trusting you will respond liberally to this appeal,

Yours fraternally,

GEO. S. RYAN,
Grand Master.

J. J. McKNINON,
Grand Secretary.

Western Union Telegram.

Hon. F. C. Goudy, Grand Sire I. O. O. F., Denver, Colo.:

Distress very bad in Halifax. It would be quite in order to make an appeal for assistance.

JOSEPH OLIVER,
Grand Representative.

TEAM WORK.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 12, 1918.

To the Deputies of Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

BROTHERS: This is a day and age of TEAM WORK. One person can accomplish but little if he works alone, but, if his efforts are combined and harmonized with those about him who are all desirous of accomplishing the same end, then much can be done for the benefit of all.

We have in this state but one Grand Master, but we have more than 900 Lodge Deputy Grand Masters. It is my desire that we may do team work during the year, the Grand Master and his Deputies working in perfect harmony, for we have much to do and cannot afford to divide our efforts.

I would ask each Lodge Deputy to call a council of the officers of his lodge at an early date and discuss the following subjects:

Has your membership increased or decreased during the past three years?

Has the balance in the hands of your Treasurer increased or decreased during the past three years?

Have you an Official Instructor in your lodge? Have you a well drilled Degree Staff?

Do you use Rituals during lodge meetings?

Are all your officers, elective and appointive, qualified in the work of their respective offices?

Will your By-Laws provide sufficient revenue to take care of all normal calls upon the lodge, and in addition furnish a sufficient surplus to provide for the care and comfort of returning soldiers, members of your lodge, if they be crippled or unable to make a livelihood for themselves?

The foregoing, and many more vital questions, should be talked over, that you may know the exact facts as they exist in your respective lodges.

"Know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you strong."

If you find you have weak places in your lodges, strengthen them before it is too late. If your By-Laws do not provide sufficient revenue, or you are paying out money faster than you are taking it in, amend your laws, so as to correct this BEFORE you swamp your treasury.

Please convey to the membership of the various lodges the following directions to the Lodge Deputies:

Because it is imperative that we insist upon efficiency in our lodges if we may hope to make proper progress during these stirring times, Lodge Deputies will not be permitted to install into office any officers, either elective or appointive, who have not demonstrated their ability to fill their respective offices in a proper manner, by first committing to memory the opening and closing charges, and, in the case of the Noble Grand and Vice-Grand, the unwritten work of a Subordinate Lodge as well, WITHOUT DIRECT PERMISSION OF THE GRAND MASTER.

This instruction to Deputies will apply July first, at the installation of officers for the next term, and is given you this early that all the Brothers as well as the Deputies may have ample warning and prepare themselves accordingly.

Brothers expecting to take office July first, or those who expect to be promoted to a higher office, should waste no time in preparing themselves that they may be able to qualify before July first, 1918.

We must have efficiency everywhere, and especially in those charged with responsibility in the lodges, and right now is the time to begin.

You will either read this letter yourself, or have it read at the next meeting of your lodge.

Fraternally yours,

H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Master.

SPURIOUS RITUALS.

Chicago, Ill., March 25, 1918.

To Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

BRETHREN: It becomes my duty as Grand Master to warn the membership against violation of the Sovereign Grand Lodge law with reference to the purchase, or even the possession, of spurious rituals, or printed or written books or circulars purporting to be the work of the Subordinate Lodges. This law is very strict, and conviction means expulsion from the order.

I append hereto the exact law, being Sections 908-909, Sovereign Grand Lodge Code, 1915:

Sec. 908. Use of Spurious Written or Unwritten Work. Neither the Subordinate bodies of the Order, nor the members thereof, shall be permitted to use or have in their possession any book, pamphlet, manuscript, or document, purporting to be the written or unwritten work of the Order, nor shall any Subordinate body or member of the Order compose, write, print, sell, exhibit or cause to be composed, written, printed, sold or exhibited, or aid or abet in composing, writing, printing, selling or exhibiting any publication, writing or device purporting to be the written or unwritten work of the Order. Any Subordinate body of the Order violating the provisions of this section shall be deprived of its charter and any member shall be expelled.

Sec. 909. Writing or Copying Charges, Lectures, Etc. No member of the Order shall write, print or copy any of the lectures, charges or instructions contained in the ritual of any branch of the Order, nor shall any member or members of the Order make any drawing, photograph, or other representation of the ritualistic characters portrayed in the rituals, or manufacture or sell the same.

Keep the Home Fires Burning.

Home Lodge No. 416, of Chicago, recently issued a circular and mailed it to the lodges, urging that lodges and members keep up frequent correspondence with their Brothers in the army and navy; that they keep these absent Brothers advised of the "doings" of their Lodge, and, if possible, send them one or more of the fraternal papers.

I heartily approve of this suggestion, and I trust that the "boys" who are serving their country will not be permitted to get out of touch altogether with their lodges, and their lodges get out of touch with their soldier members.

Write frequently to your soldier "boys"—it will make you feel just as good to write as it will them to receive your letters.

Fraternally yours,

Attest: H. M. BLOOD,
JNO. H. SIKES, Grand Master.
Grand Secretary.

1819—ANNIVERSARY PROCLAMATION—1918.

Chicago, Ill., March 11, 1918.

To Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O F. of Illinois—Greetings:

Dear Sisters and Brothers: The Independent Order of Odd Fellows was established in the city of Baltimore, April 26, 1819, and on April 26, 1918, we will celebrate our ninety-ninth anniversary.

The ninety-nine years last passed have been wonderful years, not only in Odd Fellowship, but in the history of our country. During all these years Odd Fellowship has played a big part in the lives of hundreds of thousands of men and women in America, and also its teachings have gone out and beyond the limits of our country on this continent and across the seas.

Odd Fellowship, in its usefulness to humanity, is today worth more than at any other time in its splendid history. It defends the right and condemns the wrong. Its loyalty to the Government under which it exists is never questioned. It is an American institution and stands for American ideals.

Odd Fellowship will begin the last year of its first century a mighty power for good. Its field of usefulness was never wider, its ability to render worth-while service never greater.

The Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Frank C. Goudy, has issued proclamation to the Order enjoining upon all Grand and Subordinate bodies to take appropriate action for the celebration of the ninety-ninth anniversary of the Order, on the 26th day of April, 1918, by arranging suitable exercises.

Now, therefore, I, H. M. Blood, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Illinois, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do request and direct that all Subordinate bodies in this jurisdiction make plans for and carry out the spirit of the Grand Sire's proclamation with appropriate exercises on the anniversary of our Order, April 26th, or at some other near date which may be more convenient to the membership.

In the celebration of our anniversary date, we should be mindful of the many blessings we have enjoyed, and be grateful for the All Wise Guidance which has carried us safely through to the present day. We should dedicate our lives anew to the great principles for which our Order stands, keeping ever and always in sight the Golden Rule.

All lodges celebrating the anniversary of our Order according to this proclamation are hereby granted dispensation to wear the regalia of the Order upon this occasion.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Attest: H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

WORLD WIDE WAR.

Chicago, Ill., April 15, 1918.

To Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F.—Greeting:

Our country is now in the midst of a great war. Good citizenship requires that every organization as well as every individual shall cheerfully comply with all laws, rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by our Government for the benefit of the whole people.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is an American organization, born and grown to its present proportion under the protection of the Stars and Stripes, and as evidence of our faithfulness I call your attention to the following rulings:

Change of Time.

The regulation of time as now fixed shall govern all lodges in so far as it applies to By-Laws fixing the opening hour for meetings. Lodges desiring to meet at a later hour are required to change their By-Laws to suit their convenience; that is to say, if eight p. m. is now by By-Law the opening hour, and the members desire to meet one hour later (by sun time) they must change their By-Laws to read nine p. m., instead of eight p. m.

Investment of Lodge Funds.

Wherever the By-Laws of local lodges provide that surplus funds shall be invested only in certain specified securities, real estate mortgages, or savings accounts in banks, they must not be interpreted so as to exclude such bonds as the Government of the United States may offer to the public, as "War or Liberty Loans." Liberty Loan Bonds must be regarded as proper and ample security for the lodges, the By-Laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

Training Camps.

Enclosed herewith is a card giving the name and address of the representative at Camp Grant, Rockford, and also at the Great Lakes Training Station near Waukegan. File this card carefully for reference when you wish to reach members of your lodge in training at either Camp Grant or Great Lakes Training Station, Illinois.

MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1918.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greetings:

Following a long established custom, the Grand Sire of the Sovereign Lodge, Frank C. Goudy, has issued a proclamation naming Tuesday, June 11, 1918, as Memorial Day, and has called upon all members of the Order to so observe that date, or as near the same as may be convenient.

Now, therefore, I, H. M. Blood, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, do most earnestly request and direct that all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of Illinois arrange for suitable and appropriate services to be held on Tuesday, June 11, 1918, or at some near date, which may be more convenient, in loving memory of our departed Sisters and Brothers.

A general dispensation is granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges in Illinois to wear the regalia of the Order at said memorial services.

Done in the city of Chicago, May 1, 1918, and in the year of our Order the one hundredth.

Fraternally yours,

Attest: H. M. BLOOD.

DEPUTIES.

Chicago, Ill., May 3, 1918.

To the Deputies, Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O F. of Illinois:

BRETHREN: Under date of February 12, 1918, I sent you a letter calling attention to the necessity of high efficiency in our lodges, and directed that you either read that letter or cause it to be read to your lodge, that the brethren might have ample time in which to prepare for the term beginning July first.

On the first meeting night in June, election of officers will be held throughout the jurisdiction, and I again call your attention to the necessity of selecting and electing only such Brothers who will be able to fully qualify for the office they aspire to fill.

All officers, elective or appointive, should have committed to memory the opening and closing charges of their respective offices prior to installation.

The Noble and Vice Grands, in addition to the opening and closing charges, should have perfectly committed to memory the unwritten work of the four degrees of a Subordinate Lodge.

Examinations may be either private or in open lodge, and should be conducted by or under the direction of the Lodge Deputy.

Exceptions.

If it should be necessary to fill a vacancy caused by death, resignation or removal, then election and installation may be held on "Installation Night," and such officer or officers may be installed without examination as to his qualifications, with the understanding that he, or they, will properly qualify within sixty days from date of installation.

In the event that any officer elected cannot qualify for his office, and the lodge cannot fill the office with a Brother who is amply qualified, then, upon written request of the Lodge Deputy, giving name and number of lodge, office to be filled and name of Brother elected and unable to qualify, special instructions will be given to the Deputy in each case. Deputies will not install any officer, elective or appointive, contrary to the foregoing.

Fraternally yours,

JNO. H. SIKES, Grand Master.
Grand Secretary.

A NEW TERM.

Chicago, Ill., June 12, 1918.

Officers and Members Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F.—Greeting:

July first will begin a new term in our Subordinate Lodges in this state. Whatever the record for the past term may be, it is about to pass into history, and we now face the problems which the next six months may have in store for us as an Order. That we may be equipped to face these problems without fear of the results, I have urged that the responsible officers fully equip themselves for the duties incumbent upon them. I feel confident that a very large majority of our Subordinate Lodges will be officered by Brothers who realize that it is a great honor to have been chosen as officers and have prepared themselves so as to be able to discharge the duties of their respective offices in a manner which will reflect credit upon themselves, the lodge, and the whole Order.

Law and Order.

There seems to be a tendency to ignore the laws of the state and of the country, and to attempt to regulate certain affairs and punish alleged transgressions through the medium of mob law. A man was hanged in Collinsville by a mob which claimed the victim was "disloyal." A jury, still having in mind that "mob," failed to convict. There are many cases of "mob justice" in Illinois, recorded in recent weeks, but of less serious consequences.

I trust that our Odd Fellows Lodges, located, as they are, in every city and village throughout the state, will make it their special business to discourage the breaking of laws by the LOYAL, as well as by the disloyal, for the rigid enforcement of all of our laws, and obedience to law by all of our people, is essential if there is to be any measure of safety for anyone. Let the Odd Fellows stand on the side of LAW and ORDER with the President and the Governor of our state.

Summer Picnics.

The summer months suggest picnics and out-door social affairs. Each Lodge should make arrangements for at least one picnic. Let the program be strongly patriotic. Let there be "something to eat," but no waste of food. Just enough and no more, keeping in mind that it would be just as unpatriotic to waste food at a picnic as at home.

Soldier Members.

Under the recent action of the Grand Lodge. Subordinate Lodges will be reimbursed to the extent of $3.00 per week for sick benefits, and $50.00 for death benefits, for soldier members of the Order who are sick or die while in the service of the country. But this law also requires that there shall be a record of this membership in the hands of the Grand Secretary so that the same may be checked with the claim made by the lodge, and this information must be furnished in advance by the lodge secretary. The Grand Secretary informs me that the Secretaries have been slow in sending in the records required, and, therefore, there will be a delay in reimbursing lodges for these benefits.

I urge upon the Secretaries to get in the information required under the law of the Grand Lodge, so that there may be no undue delay in reimbursing the lodges for money paid to their sick members who are in the service. Get the information just as complete as possible and forward it to Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, Springfield, Illinois. Keep this record up from time to time as your members are called to the army or navy.

Diploma Extraordinary.

The Grand Master is desirous that as many of our Noble Grands and Vice-Grands as are qualified shall receive a Diploma Extraordinary as a testimonial of their efficiency. I trust that a large number of the new Noble Grands and Vice-Grands will be able to receive these diplomas at an early date.

Alfred A. Norton, No. 361, Member Judiciary and Appeals Committee.

On June 3, 1918, I appointed Brother Alfred A. Norton, Past Grand, member of John Ericsson Lodge, No. 361, to fill the vacancy on the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, caused by the death of Brother Chester M. Turner, of Cambridge.

Brother Norton is a lawyer of high standing and is a member of John Ericsson Lodge; his record in that lodge is of a very high character, and I am confident that Brother Norton will render efficient service on this important committee.

Our Country.

Finally, I would try to impress upon the membership that we can best serve the country by keeping our Order up to full strength and activity and that this can only be done by efficiency, loyalty and usefulness. We must do all the work which would come to our hands in peace times and in addition render such assistance as becomes an Order claiming to be an American institution and one of the greatest fraternal organizations in the world.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Attest: H. M. BLOOD,
JNO. H. SIKES, Grand Master.
Grand Secretary.

MY FELLOW COUNTRYMEN.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 1, 1918.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

OFFICERS AND BROTHERS: Herewith I send you a copy of President Wilson's address, headed "My Fellow Countrymen," which you are urged to post in your lodge room after reading, so that it may be kept constantly in mind.

With our great membership of patriotic and law-abiding citizens spread out over the whole state, with one thousand lodges located in almost every city and village, we can, and should, take a very decided stand on the side of law and order, everywhere and under all circumstances.

We should in no case presume to "take the law into our own hands," nor attempt to supplant the functions of regularly constituted authority, but we should let it be known in no uncertain way that the members of the Odd Fellows lodges stand ready, night or day, to support the local and state authorities in the maintenance of order, and the enforcement of obedience to the law, ever remembering that mobs are as much an enemy of democracy as the forces fighting us in the enemy lines.

That the stand taken by Odd Fellows on law enforcement may be made known, I suggest that the lodges throughout the state, and especially where there are only one or two lodges in a community, adopt a resolution similar to the following, and have it published in the local press:

WHEREAS, The President of our country has called attention to a tendency on the part of some thoughtless people to encourage mob law; and,

WHEREAS, Mobs never correct wrongs, never enforce law, but are law-breakers themselves; and,

WHEREAS, We are opposed to lawlessness of whatever nature; therefore be it

Resolved, That.....Lodge, No....., Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of....., will co-operate actively and watchfully with the constituted authorities, local and state, to the end that the good name of our community shall not be violated by mobs, no matter what excuse may be offered; and, further,

Resolved, That the members of this lodge, singly and collectively, tender their services to the authorities and stand ready to respond instantly in the support of law enforcement and the discouragement of mobs in attempting to supplant constitutional authority, the very foundation of our civil liberty.

Signed.....,

Secretary.

We can claim but a puny loyalty if we fail to maintain order at home while our young men are making supreme sacrifices for the very principles of self government that mobs would destroy.

My Brothers, I ask you to make your lodge a rallying place for service—a very real service in this time of national stress. We should not neglect any of the obligations we owe to our Brothers, or their families, but we must reach out beyond the limits of a narrow interpretation of our duties and obligations, and render unstinted service to our common country, for there is nothing so important as that we keep the machinery of the government going smoothly at home while our invincible military forces WIN THIS WAR in France.

Prompt action on the part of your lodge in this important matter may be the means of discouraging any tendency towards disorder in your community, now or later.

Fraternally yours.

H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Master.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 1, 1918.

(Post in the Lodge Room)

(Issued by the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Illinois)

THE PRESIDENT

To the People of the United States.

A TIMELY WARNING AS TO THE FRUITS OF LAWLESSNESS.

"My Fellow Countrymen: I take the liberty of addressing you upon a subject which so vitally affects the honor of the nation and the very character and integrity of our institutions that I trust you will think me justified in speaking very plainly about it. I allude to the mob spirit which has recently here and there very frequently shown its head among us, not in any single region, but in many and widely separrated parts of the country. There have been many lynchings, and every one of them has been a blow at the heart of ordered law and humane justice.

"No man who loves America, no man who really cares for her fame and honor and character, or who is truly loyal to her institutions, can justify mob action while the courts of justice are open and the governments of the states and the nation are ready and able to do their duty.

"We are at this very moment fighting lawless passion. Germany has outlawed herself among the nations because she has disregarded the sacred obligations of law and has made lynchers of her armies. Lynchers emulate her disgraceful example. I, for my part, am anxious to see every community in America rise above that level with pride and a fixed resolution which no man or set of men can afford to despise.

"Betrayers of Democracy."

"We proudly claim to be the champions of democracy. If we really are, in deed and in truth, let us see to it that we do not discredit our own. I say plainly that every American who takes part in the action of a mob or gives any sort of countenance is no true son of this great democracy, but its betrayer, and does more to discredit her by that single disloyalty to her standards of law and of right than the words of her statesmen or the sacrifices of her heroic boys in the trenches can do to make suffering peoples believe her to be their savior.

"How shall we commend democracy to the acceptance of other peoples if we disgrace our own by proving that it is, after all, no protection to the weak? Every mob contributes to German lies about the United States what her most gifted liars cannot improve upon by the way of calumny. They can at least say that such things cannot happen in Germany except in times of revolution, when law is swept away.

"I therefore very earnestly and solemnly beg that the governors of all the states, the law officers of every community, and, above all, the men and women of every community in the United States—all who revere America and wish to keep her name without stain or reproach—will co-operate, not passively merely, but actively and watchfully, to make an end of this disgraceful evil. It cannot live where the community does not countenance it.

"U. S. War Spirit Thrills World."

"I have called upon the nation to put its great energy into this war and it has responded—responded with a spirit and a genius for action that has thrilled the world. I now call upon it, upon its men and women everywhere, to see to it that its laws are kept inviolate, its fame untarnished. Let us show our utter contempt for the things that have made this war hideous among the wars of history by showing how those who love liberty and right and justice and are willing to lay down their lives for them upon foreign fields stand ready also to illustrate to all mankind their loyalty to the things at home which they wish to see established everywhere as a blessing and protection to the peoples who have never known the privileges of liberty and self-government.

"I can never accept any man as a champion of liberty, either for ourselves or for the world, who does not reverence and obey the laws of our own beloved land, whose laws we ourselves have made. He has adopted the standards of the enemies of his country, whom he affects to despise.

"WOODROW WILSON."

(Read it again—Forget it not)

U. S. BONDS.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 28, 1918.

To Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., Illinois—Greeting:

It is proper that, in common with all other organizations in which Americans are interested, we should promptly render every possible aid in the sale of the Fourth Liberty Bonds offered at this time by our government. We have almost one thousand local organizations which we call lodges, scattered throughout Illinois, and I suggest to you that you make use of your lodges at this time in promoting the sale of these bonds.

Liberty Bond Proper Investment.

It is proper, and I urge the subordinate lodges of this state to invest such surplus funds as they may have on hand in Liberty Bonds. If the security behind the Liberty Bond is not ample, then nothing is safe, for all of the people of the United States, together with the combined wealth of the nation, is endorsed thereon and when such security fails it will make little difference what happens, because nothing will matter then.

Discuss this Fourth Liberty Loan in your meetings, see that every member does his full share according to his means, and, wherever and whenever your lodge room can be made use of for public meetings in the interest of this war, you will need no special dispensation to allow you to use it, whether the meeting be conducted by Odd Fellows or any other reputable organization.

Food Conservation.

Our Illinois lodges have open to them a great opportunity for service in spreading the doctrine of Food Conservation. We are holding regular meetings once a week all over the state. In our lodge rooms are symbolized, on our service flag, seven thousand Odd Fellows who are in the uniform of the army and navy. In view of the fact that these soldier members are giving their ALL, we who are left at home can, and will, cheerfully do our part.

It is better to consume JUST ENOUGH FOOD NOW than to fail to have enough later.

The fighting men, our own and our allies', must have plenty of food, and those who do not fight must see to it that they get it.

In all of the history of our Order, there never was such opportunity for service to humanity. Our lodges are doing a great deal and must do still more. I urge you to take advantage of the fall season to strengthen the lodges in all directions, that we may be able to overcome all difficulties and triumph at last.

Fraternally yours,

Grand Secretary.

SPANISH INFLUENZA.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 14, 1918.

To the Officers and Members of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting:

In view of the spread of the Spanish influenza, with its high death rate, all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of Illinois are hereby directed that, wherever the local Health Board shall deem it in the interest of public health that meetings of every nature be suspended, the lodges of this Order will comply immediately without further instructions from the Grand Master, and suspend the holding of lodge meetings until such time as the local authorities deem it safe.

Further: Lodges having members on their sick list, who are not afflicted with the influenza, will visit them as under ordinary circumstances, but, in case the sickness shall be regarded as influenza, then visitation shall be suspended until such time as attending physician shall approve the same.

Benefits accruing on account of sickness, if distress shall be apparent, may be advanced by authority of the Noble Grand and the recommendation of the Visiting Committee and the approval of the elective officers; the same to be regularly approved in open lodge at its first regular meeting. If there is no immediate distress in the case of Brothers on the sick list, then such benefits may accrue and be allowed at the next regular meeting.

In the interest of public health the lodges of this Jurisdiction will co-operate fully and be guided entirely by the local Health Officers in the exercise of their authority governing such matters.

Fraternally yours,.

FINANCES.

Subordinate Lodges.

Legislation enacted at the 1917 session of the Grand Lodge has worked out in a most satisfactory manner. The raising of the minimum dues from seven to ten cents per week had the effect of at once strengthening the Subordinate Lodges which had not already provided by law for a higher rate. Then, also, the Homes dues of one dollar per member placed the support of our Homes on a sound financial basis and at the same time left a like amount in the treasuries of the lodges.

If we were living in normal times it would seem as if we were so fixed that we would need no further legislation of a financial nature. But we are not living in normal times—we are living in abnormal times, and, what is more, the end is not in sight.

At this writing but few of the thousands of our members who are now in the army and navy have been returned to their homes—discharged on account of disabilities. We fully realize, however, that, of the thousands now under arms and thousands more who will soon be called to arms, many, in the nature of things, will be discharged as permanently disabled.

The question now presents itself and demands an answer:

What provision are we going to make for those of our members who have given so much to humanity and by reason of their loyal service to our country are unable to provide for themselves?

It seems to me that we would be short-sighted indeed if we waited until we are faced with the inevitable before we gave thoughtful consideration to providing ways and means to guarantee that no Odd Fellow belonging to a lodge in Illinois, big or small, shall become an object of public charity.

It is not my purpose to do more than to call your attention to this important subject that the Grand Lodge, in its wisdom, may take appropriate action.

Subordinate Lodges must also give the subject of disabled and discharged soldiers immediate attention. By-Laws should be carefully considered with this end in view. Weekly benefits should be scaled down nearly to the minimum point, so as to leave as much money as possible in the lodge treasuries for the heavy calls which will be made upon them. It should be kept constantly in mind that we are likely to be faced with the care of many of our members who will be without any means of support, and are wholly unfitted to perform manual labor by reason of the loss of their legs, arms, eyesight, or are otherwise crippled for life.

The strong lodges will have to help the weak to bear the extra financial burdens, and the Order must stand as a single organization in the care of our soldier members who are no longer able to care for themselves.

No lodge should pay benefits for a period longer than fifty-two weeks.

No lodge, under any circumstances, should pay, as benefits per week, an amount greater than one-half of the annual dues.

No Odd Fellow should complain if his lodge reduces his benefits to the minimum so that the returned heroes of this awful war may be reasonably and fraternally cared for. What is a few weeks' sickness as compared to the one who will never walk, feed himself, or see the light of day again?

I trust this session will not close until this most important subject is thoroughly discussed and action of some kind enacted into law whereby it shall be made impossible to ever find an Odd Fellow, who has discharged his full duty to his country, in an almshouse or suffering for the necessities of life.

EFFICIENCY.

It will be noted in my letter dated Feb. 12, as well as the one dated May 3, that I called the attention of the Lodge Deputies to the law requiring that officers of Subordinate Lodges be qualified in the Unwritten Work, Opening and Closing Ceremony, and the Lectures and Charges of the four Degrees. In the May 3d letter, I enclosed a report blank for the deputies to fill out and return to me. As these reports were received, I arranged them by counties and made an abstract which I will submit to the Grand Lodge during the session.

While this report is far better than I expected, still I would not feel that I had discharged my full duty to the Order if I failed to find some solution whereby a still better showing can be made during the terms to follow.

I believe that, first of all, we should amend our scheme of organization so as to assist the Subordinate Lodges in the spread of the doctrine of efficiency. Experience teaches us that the natural tendency of all things is BACKWARD. No matter how well the soil of a garden may be prepared in the springtime and the best of seeds planted, the harvest will be disappointing unless constant care and attention is given it. A house may be built of substantial materials, and stand upon a solid foundation, but, unless care and attention is given it from time to time, it will soon begin to show the "backward tendency," and finally become uninhabitable. So it is with our lodges and our Order. Both require constant attention or both will finally take the backward route.

In my judgment no better method can be found to create and hold interest than competent officers conducting the business of the lodge which just naturally leads to that next essential—good Degree work. With incompetent or indifferent officers it cannot be hoped to maintain a competent Degree Staff. When the Degree Work falls below par it is not long before we hear the complaint of "lack of interest and small attendance."

The campaign made this year to raise the efficiency of our lodge officers has borne good fruit. Many lodges are now getting along without Rituals for the first time in years. Subordinate Lodge officers all over the state have made diligent effort to improve, even in those cases where they did not completely succeed. I am well pleased with the almost universal effort made to improve, and am confident that the beneficial effects will be felt in the lodges for years to come.

SCHOOLS OF INSTRUCTION.

At the last session of the Grand Lodge I appointed Bro. Owen Scott, P.G.M., Grand Instructor, and Bro. Chas. M. Hunt, P.G., Assistant Grand Instructor. These two Brothers have rendered efficient service to the Order and I wish to express my appreciation of the assistance they have given the Grand Master during the year.

If the state were properly laid out in Districts, the work of the Department of Ritualistic Instruction would be greatly simplified. It frequently happens that there is not the proper spirit of local cooperation shown between the lodges, with the result that a School is often regarded as the affair of the lodge in which it is held, in place of making it the affair of the county or district. Then, to get the full benefit of these Schools, there should be someone left "on the ground" who will see that the benefits of the School do not end with the closing session. The work should be taken up by the local Deputy and carried right along from time to time, and at various places in the District, through the year.

DISTRICT DEPUTIES.

Nearly every Grand Master closes his term with a firm conviction that our system of Lodge Deputies is not altogether a success, to say the least. But as soon as the subject is touched it seems to be confounded with District representation and the matter is dropped. I trust I can make myself sufficiently clear so as to keep these two subjects from becoming mixed in the mind of anyone.

First of all may I say that I believe our system of Lodge representation, just as we have it now, is worth to the Order all it costs. A thousand Representatives come together once a year, and by their very numbers create sufficient enthusiasm to carry them through the year. This enthusiasm is carried back to the lodges of the state and results in much local activity, that would not take place under any other system. Let us retain our present system of Lodge representation, for it would be very hard to beat it.

A Deputy for each lodge is quite another thing. While we have each year many highly efficient Deputies, Brothers who are thoroughly qualified for the position, we also have many who are recommended and appointed, who by nature and experience, as well as knowledge of the laws of the Order, are wholly unfitted for such a position. We have about one thousand lodges, which means we must have one thousand Deputies, and for the Grand Master to examine each one before appointment, and to personally select one thousand Brothers to act as Deputies, one out of each lodge, is a physical impossibility. Under the present system he must take what is offered to him, and make the best of it.

The ink was barely dry on some of the Commissions given to Deputies this year before lodges were complaining of lack of interest or ability on the part of their Deputy, notwithstanding the lodges had so recently recommended them. I have found, in many cases where misunderstandings were troubling the lodges, that the Deputy was either involved in the difficulty or was incapable of settling the questions, for the reason that he was wholly innocent of a knowledge of the laws of the Order, and frequently the By-Laws of his lodge.

Then, again, if, by the reports or through correspondence, the Grand Master finds that a lodge is dormant, with a membership so small as to make them incapable of discharging their obligations, failing to hold regular meetings, etc., he cannot hope to get very much assistance from the Deputy from such a lodge when he undertakes to remedy the situation. The Deputy is frequently at fault or has lost all influence.

I could devote many pages of this report to our system of Lodge Deputies, and then not exhaust the subject. It is cumbersome and out of date, and fails to serve the needs of the Order.

No other state is organized on the Illinois plan. All have Districts.

To complain, or criticise, and then not to propose a remedy is worse than useless. I have complained and now I recommend that this Grand Lodge give the subject of Lodge Deputies careful consideration. I further recommend that a system of Districts be worked out and provision made for a Deputy for each District, and that the number of Districts do not exceed seventy-five.

CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE.

Early in the term our Order was invited to participate in the celebration in honor of the One-Hundredth Anniversary of the admission into statehood of Illinois.

To prepare for this celebration in a suitable manner, and that our Order might make a proper showing with the other fraternal Orders, I appointed Brothers J. J. Crowder, P.G.M., Owen Scott, P.G.M., and John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary, as a committee to make the necessary arrangements and take charge of the same. I also charged this same committee with the added duty of preparing a condensed historical sketch of our Order to be used in connection with the celebration of the One Hundredth Anniversary of the establishment of the Order in the United States. I further directed this committee to have the same printed and ready for distribution at the session of the Grand Lodge this year.

RESIGNATIONS.

On Nov. 28, 1917, I received the resignation of Brother William A. Hubbard, P.G.R., as member of the Orphans' Home Board, and on Dec. 18, 1917, I appointed in his stead Brother W. R. McGaughey to fill the vacancy.

Under date of Aug. 12, 1918, I received the resignation of Brother John J. Crowder, as Grand Representative, and on Aug. 20th I appointed in his stead, to fill the vacancy, Brother James Ewing Davis, P.G.R.

NECROLOGY.

Chester M. Turner.

Judge Chester M. Turner, P.G.P., P.G.R., passed away at his home in Cambridge, Ill., on Saturday, April 27, 1918, and was buried at Toulon, Ill., Tuesday, April 30, 1918.

J Otis Humphrey.

Judge J Otis Humphrey, P.G.M., P.G.R., passed away at his home in Springfield, Ill., on June 14, 1918, and was buried June 16, 1918, at Auburn, Ill.

Columbus A. Keller.

Judge C. A. Keller, P.G.M., P.G.S., passed away at his home in San Antonio, Texas, on Feb. 21, 1918. Brother Keller was Grand Master of Illinois in 1882, but held his membership in Texas at the time of his death.

OUR HOMES.

I have made several visits to each of our Homes during the year. While I was fairly well posted as to the conditions at these Homes and the problems constantly coming up to be met and solved before I became Grand Master, the year just passed has offered me an intimate knowledge which I could not have had in any other capacity, unless I had served as a member of both Boards. I want to thank the management of our Homes for the courtesies shown me at all times.

The Orphans' Home.

This Home has been called the "Sunrise of Odd Fellowship." It is here that helpless children are gathered into sympathetic and fraternal arms, protected, nurtured and brought to that time of life when they are able to care for themselves. The work goes on year after year, the capacity always taxed, but always a way found to care for the pressing needs of the Order. The work is truly inspiring and uplifting for all concerned, and this includes the whole Order.

The Old Folks' Home.

Here again is a grand monument to Odd Fellowship. It is beautiful and God-like to defend and care for a helpless little child, but is it not really a more noble thing to care for a wornout and helpless old man or woman? Homes may be found for children because of the promise of return in service or companionship in later years, but with the aged there is no promise but eternity.

Our Old Folks' Home has been called the "Sunset of Odd Fellowship," and so it is. Here a worthy member of our Order may find a safe harbor as he nears the end of life's journey.

But why need we regard this unexcelled institution as maintained solely as a place of refuge at the very end of our usefulness? Why not make it also the "Noonday of Odd Fellowship"?

Why not try to catch a broader vision of our opportunities, and recognize, at least in a measure, the needs of those of our members who still possess sufficient strength and vitality to be useful to themselves and the world?

Again, just why should we confine our service to the Order at our Old Folks' Home to those who can still wait on themselves and turn down those who are entirely helpless?

We have at this time a hospital, built and equipped to take care of the requirements of the Home as the cases requiring hospital attention develop. It is safe to say that this hospital does supply the present needs of the Home, and does it well. But if a Brother or Sister be in such condition as to be unable to look after his or her personal needs, and can only be cared for in a hospital, under the present rules, as provided by the Grand Lodge, the Trustees must decline to receive such members into the Home, and cannot take them directly into the hospital. This necessarily results in depriving our most needy members of the care that we can give to the less needy.

Furthermore, in many of our smaller towns no hospital is available, and those who are temporarily in need of such service must be sent to the larger cities at great expense, often beyond the means of the member and even beyond the means of the lodge.

Now, it seems to me, there is a big opportunity for real service. We already have the nucleus of a real hospital. At comparatively small outlay this hospital could be enlarged so as to care for the desperate cases that must, under present conditions, be left to public charity. To double the number of beds would not mean to double the running expense of the hospital. Much of the present overhead expense would not be materially increased, but the pressing needs would be much relieved.

To the extent of the facilities of an enlarged hospital, it is my opinion we should admit those requiring temporary hospital service, and particularly convalescent cases. Such cases should not be a burden upon the Order. Members needing this service, or the member's lodge, should be required to reimburse the hospital for the cost, at least.

By making our hospital available for hospital cases, the whole surroundings of the Home would take on a new character. It would no longer be said, "Leave hope behind, all you who enter here." It would at once become a place where one might be physically repaired and become useful to society again. A Noonday brightness would be reflected all through the Home, as cheerful "good-byes" were said to those who had regained their health and left to take up again the duties of life.

Once let it become generally understood that the Home is a place to recover as well as a place to die, and much of the depression of the whole institution would be banished forever.

It is my opinion that the agreement entered into, by and between the Trustees and the members seeking admission to the Home, should provide that when, in the opinion of the House physician and the Trustees, the member has been sufficiently restored to health so as again to be able to provide and care for himself outside of the Home, either at his former calling or some other remunerative occupation, then such member should be discharged from the Home, that he might again take his place in the world. I believe such a contract or understanding would have a beneficial effect and would remove the idea from the mind of the member that there was nothing left for him to look forward to but death.

I recommend that the foregoing phases of our Home at Mattoon be given careful consideration, with a view, perhaps, of accumulating a fund from whatever surplus may be left each year from the Home tax dues until the amount shall be sufficient to build an addition to our hospital and equip the same.

Decision.

Under date of Aug. 17, 1918, the following was presented to the Grand Master for decision by Bro. John J. Crowder, Secretary of the Orphans' Home Board:

STATEMENT. A letter has been received by the Orphans' Home, from the Trustees of Tri-City Lodge No. 1031, which contains the following statement:

"When this lodge was organized, A. A. Hoecle was initiated with other charter members, and died about three months later. He left a widow and two children, daughters, now about four and six years old, and the widow wishes to put them in the Home. As he was not a beneficiary member, we are at a loss as to just what to do, and ask that you give your opinion as soon as possible."

QUESTION: Are the children of a deceased Brother, half orphans, eligible for admission to the Home when the Brother at the time of his death was not a beneficiary member of his lodge, not having been a member for the required time?

ANSWER. Yes. We cannot assume that, because the Brother was not entitled to sick benefits while living, the same rule would apply to his orphan children. The responsibility for denying such children the care of the Home might be irreparable, and for that reason the decision must be that, the Brother being in good standing, though not beneficiary, his orphan children are entitled to admission to the Home, if otherwise eligible.

- Decision approved.

TRAINING CAMPS IN ILLINOIS.

Camp Grant, Rockford.

Toward the close of the last term, Grand Master Arnold began to consider what ought to or could be done for the benefit of our members who were in training at the various cantonments within the state. These camps were just opening and no one knew their scope, nor what would be required on our part as Odd Fellows. Brother Arnold had only got started when his term ended and mine began.

Previous to assuming the office of Grand Master, and while I was Deputy Grand Master, and acting under instruction of Brother Arnold, I visited Rockford. I had with me on this occasion Grand Representative James Ewing Davis. At that time we took up the situation, as we understood it, with a large number of Brothers of Rockford. At this conference it was decided to work out some plan and present it at the session of 1917, for decision by the Grand Lodge.

It will be recalled there were many opinions and few facts to guide the Grand Lodge in the matter. A WAR RELIEF COMMITTEE were named by the Grand Lodge, and all matters pertaining to the war was left to this Committee. Inasmuch as the cantonments and what we could do for our members seemed to be "war matter," I at once called the Committee in consultation, and we finally met in the city of Rockford for that purpose.

It was the unanimous opinion of the Committee that we ought not to attempt to duplicate anything which was being done by the Y. M. C. A. We could not maintain a "CLUB," of a kind and on such a scale as would amount to anything and be within our means. We did not believe that we would be justified in spending several thousand dollars fitting up Club rooms and obligating ourselves to take care of the heavy expense for maintenance without specific instructions from the Grand Lodge.

While we did not feel that we should attempt to open and maintain a club, we did feel that we could be of service to our members if we established headquarters where the soldiers could come for information, and where those visiting the soldiers could receive information and assistance as required. Then, again, it seemed that we might be of service to the lodges by having someone on the ground, familiar with the camp, who would be ready at all times to visit the sick and report to the lodges or to parents of the soldiers, and render such other assistance as might suggest itself from time to time.

Acting upon this final decision, we rented a suite of rooms in the office building at southwest corner Main and Chestnut streets, in the city of Rockford, and arranged with Brother Theo. W. VanderMark, P. G., to take charge and act as Secretary.

The Rebekah State Assembly, through its President, Sister Irene W. Cooper, and its Secretary, Sister Mae E. Crowell, furnished the rooms in a most appropriate manner, and the headquarters were opened and are now open for the convenience of the soldiers, their parents, and the lodges from whence they come.

That the arrangement, as established by your War Relief Committee, has seemed to fill the requirements is the opinion of the Grand Master, but as to whether the Order should continue the arrangement must be left to the judgment of the Grand Lodge and those upon whose shoulders will rest the responsibility of guiding our future action.

I commend Winnebago Lodge No. 31, for the good work they have done in maintaining what they call the "Welcome Club," where they have furnished opportunity for many pleasant evenings for our soldier boys.

Both our headquarters and the "Welcome Club" are mentioned in an article I clipped from the Rockford Register Gazette, printed Aug. 22, 1918:

ODD FELLOWS AID SOLDIERS

Comfort of Their Fraternity Fellows at Camp Is Given Careful Attention.

Outside of members of the Odd Fellows, who live in Rockford or who are closely affiliated with the state administration, only a few persons know of the untold good that has been accomplished and assistance extended to soldier members of the Order who have been stationed at Camp Grant, through the office of the Illinois Odd Fellows Soldiers' headquarters.

The Illinois Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows established a headquarters for soldiers in a suite of rooms in the Meade building last spring, installing Theodore VandeMark as secretary. The rooms, equipped with conveniences for writing, lounging or reading, are open daily and there is hardly an hour that some member of the Order is not taking advantage of an opportunity to relax from camp life.

Great care is exercised in the compilation of a card index, by which it is able to keep track of the soldier Odd Fellows from the time they enter the service. Each Subordinate Lodge in Illinois is required to submit a filled-in blank to the Grand Lodge offices at Springfield of each of its soldier members, giving his individual history and the unit to which he is assigned.

Mr. VandeMark also keeps a file of the names of soldier Odd Fellows at Camp Grant. Consequently he is able quickly to inform a parent, or wife, where her relative may be reached in the camp. Many calls for such assistance are made upon the secretary.

He keeps in touch with Odd Fellows at camp, looking after their wants if ill, and furnishing them with luxuries that otherwise would not be theirs.

The Welcome Club, maintained by Winnebago Lodge, No. 31, is another Odd Fellows' organization in Rockford that is doing its bit to make the stay at Camp Grant pleasant for soldier members of the Order.

Both club rooms, the state headquarters in the Meade building at South Main and Chestnut streets, and the Welcome Club over 609 West State street, are open every afternoon and evening.

Great Lakes Training Station.

(Near Waukegan.)

The greatest Naval Training Station in the world is said to be the Great Lakes Station, near Waukegan, Illinois. Here are undergoing training in the neighborhood of 50,000 of America's young men, and it naturally follows that many of them are Odd Fellows.

Waukegan is the nearest town, and the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of Waukegan are the nearest lodges of the Odd Fellows.

It has so happened that the membership in Waukegan has fallen heir to what was originally one of the city's mansions, a two-story brick residence. This belonged to an old and greatly beloved Sister of the Rebekah Lodge in Waukegan, who willed it to the local members of the Order.

On account of this residence being conveniently located, it occurred to the Brothers and Sisters into whose hands it fell to fit it up as a Club for the use of the Navy Boys. After much thought and consultation, it was deemed feasible and the plans were developed accordingly and now I am able to report that the Club is open and in use by the Blue Jackets; a neater and more home-like arrangement could hardly be imagined. The local membership has the Club in charge, constantly looking after the comfort and entertainment of the sailor members who patronize it in large numbers.

This Club, as arranged and maintained, is a connecting link between the military and civil life. Here the boys lay aside all of the formal rules and regulations of their strenuous training, and officers and men, like the Odd Fellows that they are, meet on a common level.

At this naval club the boys may rest, read, write, or converse without intrusion, or, if they prefer, they may make use of a piano and relax completely.

Here, as at Camp Grant, the Rebekah State Assembly has participated in the work for the comfort of our members in training. The Sisters supplied the funds for the purchase of a number of pieces of furniture, rugs, etc., the local members supplying the balance.

Bros. Koester, Davis and Sikes, as well as myself, have personally visited this Club, and the War Relief Committee recommended assisting in maintaining the same by the Grand Lodge to the extent of $100.00 a month, which began with the month of August.

What part the Grand Lodge will take in this work after this session must be decided now, as no obligations have been entered into which run after the present session.

I recommend that careful consideration be given to the situation at Waukegan, for it appears to me that in maintaining this Club an excellent opportunity is offered the Order to be of real service to our members and the sons of Odd Fellows who are in training at the Great Lakes Station.

THE PRAGER CASE.

On or about the 5th day of April, last, Brother Robert Paul Prager, a member of Harmonie Lodge No. 353, of St. Louis, Missouri, met his death at the hands of a mob in the city of Collinsville, Illinois. Shortly thereafter I received a letter from Past Grand E. F. Drewes, of Enterprise Lodge No. 369, calling my attention to the fact that the victim of this mob violence was a member of the Order and urging that the fraternity throughout the state take some action to "bring those murderers to light." Although I had received notice through the press reports of the action of this mob, the letter of Brother Drewes was the first information I had that the victim was a member of the Order. Acting upon the information thus received, I immediately issued my commission to Past Grand Master Fred B. Merills constituting him my special Deputy Grand Master for Madison Lodge No. 43 in Collinsville, Madison County, and giving him special directions hereinafter set forth.

When I transmitted this commission I wrote Brother Merrills a letter in which I laid particular stress upon my desire to have it generally understood that this Fraternal Order shall not and will not stand for mob law and that we ought to be just as quick to protect an alien enemy who submits himself to the discipline required by the federal government governing such cases as we are to prosecute disloyal citizens or alien enemies who are conducting themselves contrary to law. I also directed Brother Merrills to go the limit in his execution of this commission and authorized him to expend such portion of the Grand Lodge funds as he deemed necessary.

Brother Merrills has submitted a report in writing covering his actions as my Deputy, which, though in terse language, is so full and complete that a repetition of the facts by me will be unnecessary. That report is as follows:

Belleville, Ill., June 29, 1918.

Hon. H M. Blood, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR BROTHER BLOOD: On or about the 13th day of April, 1918, I received from you your commission authorizing me to act as your special Deputy for Madison Lodge No. 43, Collinsville, Illinois, which commission contained the following special instructions:

> "You will proceed to get into touch with the civil authorities in the matter of the death of one of our Brothers by the name of Prager at the hands of a mob in Collinsville. You will take whatever steps you deem necessary, feeling yourself unhampered by any higher authority, acting in co-operation or on your own motion that justice is done and the law of the land vindicated, as a warning that the power and influence and money of this Order is ready to defend its members against mob law. You will inform the Grand Master from time to time as to your progress in this case."

Your orders as above have been executed, and I have taken such action as in my judgment the circumstances would warrant. I herewith submit this as my report:

Briefly speaking, the facts of the case are these:

One Robert Prager, a subject of Emperor William and an alien enemy, a member of Harmonie Lodge No. 353, I. O. O. F., of St. Louis, Missouri, was taken by a mob at Collinsville and without warrant or authority of law was hanged.

The circumstances leading up to this act are about as follows:

Brother Prager was a baker. He found himself unable, either through lack of skill or through lack of money, to make good as a baker and at the same time to comply with the rules and regulations of the Food Dictator. So he closed out his bakery business and sought employment in a coal mine. It was impossible for him to obtain employment as a coal miner without becoming a member of the Coal Miners' Union. When he made application to the Miners' Union he represented that he was an experienced miner and gave references as to where he had been employed and where he had belonged to the Union. It appears that the representations made in his application would, if true, have entitled him to membership in the Union upon the payment of a fee of $10.00. It is charged, however, by the officers of the Union that his representations were not true and that under the facts he was required by their constitution and by-laws to pay an admission fee of $50.00. Hence there arose between Brother Prager and certain officers of the Union an issue, the discussion of which involved him in some difficulty. His application for membership in the Union was rejected. Still he insisted upon a reconsideration and the right not only to work as a miner but the right to work in the particular mine at Maryville. He not only persisted in forcing himself upon the Union, but wrote some ill-advised statements and posted them around the mine charging the officers of the Union with preventing him from earning his daily bread. It may also be added that Brother Prager had been regarded by some people who knew him as a "nut." He was a Socialist of the extreme variety, and felt that the making over of social conditions rested very largely on his shoulders. He was an ardent supporter of the doctrines of Trade Unionism.

It seems that the miners at the Maryville Mine jumped at the conclusion that Brother Prager was seeking an opportunity to commit some act of sabotage rather than an opportunity to earn a living. Acting upon this conclusion they ran him away from the place. From Maryville he went to Collinsville. It soon became rumored in Collinsville that the miners at Maryville had run a German spy away from the mine. On Saturday evening Brother Prager was at the City Hall, whether as a prisoner or refugee, I am uncertain. A mob assembled in the city and proceeded to the City Hall demanding custody of his body. Two men entered the building and found Brother Prager secreted in some rubbish in the cellar. These two men took him from there and turned him over to the mob, who subjected him to indignities, threatened him with tar and feathers, required him to sing the "Star-Spangled Banner" and after giving him permission to write home to his parents, who live in Germany, hanged him by the neck till he was dead.

The executive department of the State of Illinois, the Attorney General's office, and the State's Attorney immediately took vigorous steps to ascertain the facts, discover the guilty persons, and bring them to the bar of justice. The coroner's jury was in session for several days. Their verdict held a number of individuals to the Grand Jury. The Grand Jury found a true bill against twelve men, charging them with murder. Eleven of the twelve were arrested but one man was not found.

On Monday, May 13th, the case was called for trial and, the People and the defense both announcing ready, the selection of a jury proceeded. This occupied several days' time. More than seven hundred men were called into the jury box. Most of these disqualified themselves by frankly admitting that they had prejudged the case. Finally twelve men were selected and sworn and the trial proper began. The evidence was closed on the thirty-first day of May. The arguments were made on the first of June. On the evening of June first the jury retired to consider of their verdict, and after two ballots brought in a verdict of acquittal as to all of the eleven men who were on trial.

I visited Madison Lodge No. 43 at Collinsville and talked with the Noble Grand. I interviewed a number of people in Collinsville, among whom were at least two members of the Coroner's jury. I consulted frequently with the representatives of the Attorney General and with the State's Attorney. I attended the trial of the case several days. I informed myself as fully concerning the facts as it was possible without devoting to the case my entire time. In view of the information I gathered I think it proper to suggest a few conclusions:—

Brother Präger's life was unlawfully taken.

As good Odd Fellows and loyal citizens we should not question the verity of the verdict in this case. But this is not a prerequisite to a condemnation of the action of the mob.

It is doubtful if any jury could have been found in Madison or any other county which would have returned a different verdict. In criminal cases the jurors are the judges of the law as well as the facts. A state of war having been declared to exist between the United States and the German Empire and the United States being actively and vigorously prosecuting this war, it is altogether probable that our present relations with Germany had much to do with shaping the conclusion of the jury.

Mob law is very dangerous to the peace and good order of society at any time. It is much more dangerous, during a time of war, when the loyalty of every person in a community, whether a citizen or an alien, is subjected to the closest scrutiny. If the loyalty of a man or woman can be determined by a soap box tribunal there is no telling how soon one mob may be trying the members of another mob. This would bring on a reign of terror such as existed in Paris during the French Revolution, or as exists in Russia today.

The atrocities which the German Imperial Government has committed upon neutrals by invading Belgium, and by acts of piracy on the high seas, all under the guise of military necessity and the theory that might makes right, have driven our country into an alliance offensive and defensive against it. This should be a strong reason why in our dealings with alien enemies we should keep ourselves strictly within the limits circumscribed by international law.

A retrospective view of this case may suggest another conclusion.

It is common knowledge that during an exchange of diplomatic notes between the United States and the Imperial Government an officer high in the German Government stated to our Ambassador that the United States did not dare to break off diplomatic relations with Germany because, he said, that there were five hundred thousand German reservists in the United States who would start a revolution here should this country contemplate any such action. To this bold threat the American Ambassador replied that, should anything of that kind be attempted in the United States, we had five hundred and one thousand lamp posts to hang them on. The fate of our Brother Prager will serve as a warning to any alien enemy who may be sojourning among us, and the verdict of the jury will be cold comfort to the Kaiser, when he contemplates any assistance he may expect from the reservists he has in his employ in this country.

I transmit to you herewith all correspondence and documents pertaining to my investigation, together with a number of newspaper clippings showing the extreme difficulty in obtaining a jury. I also submit a statement of my expenses.

Fraternally submitted.

FRED B. MERRILLS.

Brother Merrills' statement of expenses shows that he had devoted eight days' time, out of his office, in connection with the execution of the commission which I gave him. Also that his personal expense account amounted to $12.65. In consideration of the fact that the work done by him was much different from that ordinarily rendered by special Deputies, and was professional in its character, I directed that a Grand Lodge warrant be drawn in his favor for the sum of $75.00 to cover his compensation and expenses.

All documents connected with this matter are transmitted herewith.

ODD FELLOWS' LEAGUE AND RELIEF BOARD.

Though I live in Chicago and have had my office there during the past year, I have had many cases that I have referred to the "League" for their action and co-operation. If I had not been on the ground myself I would have been compelled to make even more frequent use of this organization.

Chicago is a great city, and many things are constantly happening. It is the business of the League to help those who need temporary assistance. For many years this organization has struggled along with very little to do with, but making no complaint.

The League and Relief Board is supported by free will contributions from the Cook County lodges, though the service rendered is almost entirely in the interests of lodges outside of Cook County and frequently outside of the state. I hope that the excitement caused by other matters due to the war will not prevent the lodges, and especially the Cook County lodges, from continuing to support liberally this most worthy organization, that the service which it only can render to those who need it may continue.

Following is a report by the General Secretary which I append for your information:

H. M. Blood, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR BROTHER BLOOD: Time in its flight has brought us to the close of another year, and I beg to submit for your consideration the annual report of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board.

The year that is just closing has witnessed many changes and events of great interest. The great world war in which our country is engaged has brought many changes and new problems to be solved. Never before in the history of the world has there been such a wealth of blood treasure and happiness so needlessly expended, and such gigantic armies assembled to kill, and themselves be destroyed, and what the end of this matter will be is purely conjecture. The sad fact remains that some of our Brothers will never return, others will return in a crippled condition, and it will be the duty of our lodges to care for them; at present this Organization is ready at all times to assist the lodges in this work, and also in the care of those at home who need our sympathy.

Notwithstanding the disturbed conditions everywhere, our Order is in a good condition to weather the storm. Our two Homes are being well cared for, and this organization is still, with the help of the lodges of Cook County, able to care for those who call and are worthy of assistance.

A large part of our work is of necessity of a confidential nature, and cannot be made public, as it would, at least, be very humiliating to those interested, and we must respect our Brothers' or Sisters' feelings.

We have numerous calls for information of all kinds, from the location of the different lodges, their time and place of meeting, to the sick and distressed who are in need of our sympathy. Chicago is the railroad center of our country. All roads start or stop here. This alone gives us all kinds of business, sometimes it is only a little advice, again the procuring of funds for those who for various reasons are stranded, and the changing of trains from one part of the city to another. We also meet some of our friends that are passing through the city with their loved ones, to be laid away at their old home for a last resting place. Is it not a satisfaction to be able to call up the office of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board and receive the necessary assistance, even if it is only a word of comfort?

Our office is located in the Masonic Temple, corner State and Randolph Streets, in Rooms 1231-1232, and is open during business hours, when no lodges are in session.

During the year the employment part of our work has been consolidated with the United States Employment Service. The General Secretary has been made a Special Agent, and receives each day a list of places where employment may be obtained, in all parts of the state.

The receipts and disbursements for the year have been as follows:

From Subordinate Lodges	$1,317.21
" Rebekah Lodges	241.29
" From Encampments	39.03
" Entertainment	157.40
" Reimbursements	1,106.75

LITERATURE.

Early in the term there was printed and distributed through the lodges a new edition of the booklet entitled "The Independent Order of Odd Fellows." At the same time we distributed a sketch of the activities in the Order of Rutherford B. Hayes, ex-President of the United States, and the speech of Grand Sire Goudy, which was delivered at the last session of the Grand Lodge. This literature was much appreciated by the workers of the Order. It gave them at last something to place in the hands of their friends who would be apt to be interested in becoming members. My only regret is that we did not have more along the same line and larger quantities.

THE PRESS.

The Order is much indebted to the publishers of the several papers issued in the interest of the Order in Illinois. Notwithstanding the increased cost of printing, The Odd Fellows' Herald, monthly, with state-wide circulation, The Chicago Odd Fellow, weekly, with Cook County circulation, and the Egyptian Odd Fellow, monthly, circulating in the Southern counties, have appeared regularly during the year. I have made frequent use of the columns of these papers to reach the membership, and it has been cheerfully donated by the publishers.

If every member of our Order were a subscriber to one or all of these established publications we would never need to worry about a continuous growth. It is when a member gets out of touch with the affairs of the Order that his interest lags and finally he permits himself to drop out. As an interest-stimulator, there is nothing better than a regular visitor in the form of a paper, full of the good things of the Order. Lodges would do well to urge their members to become subscribers to at least one of these publications of proven worth as a means of sustaining interest in the lodges and the Order.

I sincerely trust that lack of appreciation on the part of our thinking and active members will not be the cause of suspending publication of any of our fraternal papers, as has already happened in other Jurisdictions and might easily happen here. It is well known that under normal conditions none of them was ever more than self-supporting. Now they are a heavy burden upon their publishers.

CONCLUSION.

In closing my report to the Grand Lodge, I wish to thank again my associate Grand Officers and those serving on the several committees for the assistance they have given me whenever and wherever they have been called upon. To work with such faithful Odd Fellows has made my burdens lighter than they might otherwise have been.

While it has sometimes seemed as if I was unfortunate to have come into the office of Grand Master just at a time when our country was preparing itself for war, and actually entering into the great world conflict, I have been strengthened by the thought that the very conditions which gave me much worry have, at the same time, afforded me unlimited opportunity to be of service to the Order which has meant so much in my life. I have tried hard to keep in mind that a little "slip," a small mistake, or a thoughtless word spoken or written might easily lead to serious consequences in a crisis like that which we are all passing through. What we may do or say today may mean much or little tomorrow.

That I have made some mistakes, I freely confess, but they have been mistakes of judgment. One cannot always foresee everything, but, so far as lay in my power, I tried to adjust myself to the constantly changing conditions, that I might keep step with the rapid march of events.

I feel, in this closing hour, that while responsibilities have been many, and at times arduous, I lay down the cares of the office of Grand Master a bigger and better man than when I took office, by reason of having been through the fire, and made my way back into the "side lines" of Odd Fellowship.

I trust that our Order will be able to stand the test until peace shall again bless this land, and that it will always so discharge its obligations as to win the universal approval of men through all the years to come.

Fraternally yours.

H. M. Blood

Grand Master.

REPORT OF DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

To Hon. H. M. Blood, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR BROTHER BLOOD: I submit you herewith my report as Deputy Grand Master I. O. O. F. for the State of Illinois, for the term about to close.

Visiting Lodges.

I will not enter into minute detail of the work I have done for the past year, but will briefly report that I have responded to every official call made upon me by any of the Lodges or organizations of the state, except when prevented from doing so by previous engagements.

Interest Manifested in the Order.

I am pleased to report that in whatever part of the state I visited I found great interest manifested in the Order. I am led to believe that the work Odd Fellowship is doing for our soldier members has created a renewed interest in the Order by the people in general, and especially by the members of our Order. I realize, however, that great effort will be necessary on the part of every officer of the Grand Lodge, and the members of the Order generally, during the coming year, to fully discharge our respective duties. It appears to me that greater efficiency is demanded in the management and conduct of our local lodges, not only as regards the secret work, the lectures and the charges, but also in relation to all of the duties and obligations resting upon the local lodges and their officers, and to such work, if elevated to the office of Grand Master, I expect to give much of my time and attention.

The War.

The war has drawn heavily upon the Order, and it is pleasing to me to note that the members of our Order have responded promptly to the call of our country, and, as the war appears to be nearing its close, we must turn our attention to the problems that will confront us when our Brothers return to their homes, and new duties devolve upon us as citizens of the great state of Illinois, and as Odd Fellows, in readjustments which necessarily must and will take place when peace is declared and our Brothers by the thousands return home to take up their old avocations, or enter into new business endeavors.

Our Homes.

I have been pleased to visit our Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, and our Orphans' Home at Lincoln, several times during the past year, and have always found the Homes in splendid condition, the Superintendent and Matron of each Home seeming especially well fitted for their respective positions, and to have the confidence, love and esteem of all who came in contact with them. I have further found that the action of the Grand Lodge in making an assessment of one dollar per member from all members of the Subordinate Lodges of this state to support our two Homes has met with universal approval. It appears that the members enjoy paying this annual assessment for the specific purpose of supporting our aged and indigent Brothers and Sisters and our orphan children. While the management of these Homes is highly satisfactory, we must not forget that the duty rests upon each of us to continue to support them fully, and to the best of our ability at all times.

District Organization.

My experience in the last year in the office of Deputy Grand Master, together with my knowledge of the work in former years, has confirmed my belief that the state should be divided into a number of Districts, so that the Grand Master and other officers can be better enabled to meet the members of the Order and the officers and representatives and members of the Subordinate Lodges by a series of District meetings. This matter having been discussed and approved by the present Grand Master, who, I understand, is working on a plan of districting the state, I merely mention the subject to show my approval of the proposition.

Conclusion.

With the varied and engrossing duties that devolved upon all of us on account of the terrible war forced upon our beloved country, in looking over the past year and its work, I am gratified to be able to report that the Independent Order of Odd Fellows has been in the front rank at all times wherever duty called, and opportunity offered a chance to lend a helping hand to struggling humanity, and am more than pleased that the future generations will be able to look back on the sacrifices and triumphs of our people during this year with pride and satisfaction.

To you, personally, as Grand Master, as well as to your splendid family, and to all the members of the Order who have been so kind to me during the past year, I extend my heartfelt thanks, hoping that the coming administration may be as successful as yours has been in dealing with the various problems that are presented to it for solution.

Fraternally yours,

L. M. KAGY,
Deputy Grand Master.

REPORT OF GRAND MARSHAL.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 31, 1918.

Mr. H. M. Blood, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Chicago, Ill.:

My dear Brother Blood: After a year of activity as Grand Marshal, and fully appreciating the honors and responsibilities conferred upon me by reason of my appointment, I herewith tender my annual report.

My first inspiration of the sincerity, loyalty and devotion to you as Grand Master and to the aims and principles of our beloved Order by the Brothers and Sisters of our great state of Illinois was at that mammoth reception given in your honor at the Second Regiment Armory, Chicago, on the 24th day of November, 1917, upon our return from our Grand Lodge session at Springfield, Illinois.

It was then that I realized more than ever before our mission as Odd Fellows to Brothers and Sisters indisposed by sickness, our indigent, our orphans and our Brothers in the service for the safety, democracy, freedom and liberty of our country, and it has been the one ambition of my life and particularly this last year to serve my fellow Brothers and my country to the very best of my ability.

Being a resident of Chicago, my field of labor has naturally been confined mostly to Cook County, and my visitation to lodges as summarized is as follows:

During the month of December	6
" " " " January	7
" " " " February	6
" " " " March	12
" " " " April	5
" " " " May	5
" " " " June	4
" " " " July	5
" " " " August	3
" " " " September	4
" " " " October	6

A total of sixty-three visits during the period of eleven months.

In addition to these visitations to lodges, I have looked after a number of Brothers from outside jurisdictions who have been temporarily sick in hospitals in Chicago. Among these was Past Grand Master Van Domlin of Minnesota, who was confined to the Chicago Eye and Ear Hospital for several weeks. I have also assisted in the dedication of an Odd Fellows' Temple and in the institution of two I. O. O. F. Lodges.

During the vacation period last summer I had the pleasure of visiting several lodges in the state of Michigan and I was agreeably surprised to note that the Brothers of the various lodges were very active in looking after their members who are in the service of our country.

This is in substance my year's work and I assure you, my dear Grand Master, that it has been a work of pleasure because of the congenial association of all Grand Officers and all the Brothers that I have come in contact with.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

A. G. ANDERSON,
Grand Marshal.

REPORT OF GRAND CHAPLAIN.

Evanston, Ill., Oct. 19, 1918.

Mr. H. M. Blood, Grand Master I. O. O. F. of Illinois, Chicago, Ill.:

HONORED AND ESTEEMED SIR: I am grateful for the opportunity which has been given me this year of a larger fellowship among the lodges of Illinois. I have refused no opportunity of service, save on one or two occasions, when a conflict of dates made my co-operation impossible.

I have spoken at Schools of Instruction and other meetings arranged by yourself at Centralia, Oglesby, Rockford and Plano. On these occasions I have undertaken to expound the principles of our Order, especially as they relate to the great crisis in the world's history through which we are passing.

I have attended several receptions to Grand Officers of the Grand Lodge and of the Assembly, taking such part in the program as was assigned me. I remember with pleasure the great reception given to you in Chicago and to Mrs. Sherman, Warden of the Assembly, and acknowledge with deep gratitude the courtesies shown me at my own reception in Evanston, attended by so many of the leaders of our Order in Illinois. On other occasions lodges have arranged meetings in my honor for which I extend my grateful appreciation.

A number of speaking appointments have been arranged in the state without any expense to the Grand Lodge, traveling expenses being borne by the local lodges that were interested. On such journeys I have visited Gibson City, Gridley, Decatur, Batavia, Walworth, Wisconsin, the county meeting of Lake County held in Crystal Lake, and Dunlap.

A great many lodge visitations of an informal character have been made in Cook County, of which no record has been kept, but some of the more formal occasions at which a set address was given were a circuit meeting at Clifton Hall of the North Shore Circuit, a circuit meeting on the west side at 1606 West Madison Street, a lodge meeting at 180 Washington Street, Denmark Lodge, Humboldt Park Lodge, and Irving Park Lodge. I have attended and spoken briefly at a number of the Cook County organizations of the Order, such as the Deputies' Association, Cook County Picnic and Anniversary Association, and others.

I was not able to respond to all calls to assist in celebrating the Anniversary of the Order and the Memorial Day, but did the best I could to meet the demands. I delivered Anniversary addresses at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, Gibson City, Highland Park, and Ottawa. At Gibson City two thousand people assembled in the Chautauqua Tabernacle to hear the address. Stores and schools were closed in the afternoon for the occasion.

In celebrating Memorial Sunday, I went to Rockford and there four lodges, several encampments, cantons, and Rebekah lodges joined in a great parade to the West Side cemetery, where the exercises were held. I have found few cities in the state so alive in Odd Fellowship as Rockford. The following Sunday I spoke at three Memorial services in Chicago. The South Side Memorial Association held its meeting in the Englewood theater with over a thousand people present. I spoke at this meeting in the morning and in the afternoon addressed the Rose Hill Association at the Rose Hill cemetery with another great audience. In the evening there was a meeting of North Shore lodges in my church to which I spoke. I also gave the Memorial address at Highland Park later in the month.

On July 21 my church furnished hospitality to the splendid band of our Orphans' Home and we had present at the morning service a great congregation of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs from various parts of Cook County. A lunch was served by the Rebekahs of Evanston and Rogers Park at the church at the close of the service, owing to the distance many of the visitors came.

I have helped lodges dedicate service flags, conduct funerals, and perform other duties as requests came to me from time to time.

I remember with special interest the preparation of a ritual for the marking of the death of our soldiers and sailors in the service of their country. It was your idea that we should have such a ritual and, guided by your splendid suggestions, the ritual was prepared and circulated among the lodges, where I trust it may always be used when there is occasion.

I have been glad to furnish news and short articles for the fraternal press occasionally and only regret that I have not done more of this kind of work. My connection on the editorial staff of a religious weekly has given me some convictions with regard to the value of the fraternal press and of our duty to co-operate heartily in improving our papers.

So far I have been reciting history, but, if I might be pardoned a word of suggestion, it is that our lodges have not rightly apprehended the opportunities of the "good of the Order" part of our meetings. I have frequently made lodges suggestions which, if carried out, would make the meetings more educational, more fraternal, and, above all, more interesting. Small lodges cannot have ritual work all of the time, and, furthermore, not all members can be interested in this type of activity. The lodge should have a broad interest in all of the uplift work of the community and the lodge meetings may well be occasions in which we give fraternalism a broader interpretation. While I feel some special obligation to an Odd Fellow, I cannot believe that the Good Samaritan looked for a lodge pin before he began his wonderful service to his fellowman.

I wish to express the deep satisfaction in the fellowship I have had with the Grand Officers, certainly a most happy and harmonious group of men this year. I shall count the personal friendships I have made as ample compensation for rather arduous labors, especially that friendship which I count myself to have formed with an able and conscientious Grand Master.

With best wishes for the future enlargement and power of our Order, I am,

Fraternally yours,

ORVIS F. JORDAN,
Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF GRAND INSTRUCTOR.

H. M. Blood, Grand Master of Illinois I. O. O. F.:

The office of Grand Instructor was accepted with a determination to make this part of our work mean all for which the excellent ritual so well provides. The Order of Odd Fellows will grow and prosper in proportion to the amount of efficiency that lodges put into the conferring of degrees. It will languish and retrograde as this is poorly or indifferently done. Important as the unwritten work is in detecting frauds and imposters and in furnishing means of identification as Odd Fellows, it carries with it almost nothing of the great fundamentals that have caused such marvelous advancement during the nearly 100 years of the existence of the Order in America. For this reason I have sought to impress the Brethren everywhere with the dignity and magnitude of the institution. Good degree work has been exalted and the poor condemned.

Organization Needed.

Little was possible to be done in the present unorganized condition of the Order. There are nearly 1,000 lodges in the state, each with its local deputy. There is no such thing as a division of territory or responsibility. The Grand Instructor cannot go into more than a few of the vast number of lodges. Time will not permit. Heretofore the only method of reaching members, degree staffs, and lodges was through sporadic methods, improperly called "schools." These could partake of little in the nature of real instruction. Momentary enthusiasm may be generated by rousing speeches at these gatherings but the Brethren go away with little for the improvement and building up of their lodges.

The only meeting of any particular representative character during the year was the one held in Good Samaritan Hall in Chicago on September 12. Through the efficient services of Assistant Grand Instructor, Bro. C. M. Hunt, forty-six out of the 116 Cook County lodges were represented. Each degree was gone over and the vital part illustrated by a team prepared for that purpose. The difficulty, even here, was the want of time. One session is not sufficient. In all this, the weakness is in want of district organization, with a responsible representative of the Grand Master in charge. This does not mean district representation in Grand Lodge. This should remain precisely as it is, one from each lodge. The districts should be organized and equipped for service under the direction of the Grand Master. With such a plan, a system of schools could be held that would reach the high mark of efficiency so necessary to future progress. This cannot be done in one year. Suitable provision should be made at this session so that there may be a beginning. In the course of a few years a system of instruction can be built up that will push our fraternity forward in membership, so that the money needed to put this plan into execution will be returned many fold.

Our Country's Flag.

Under the pressure of the intense patriotism of the times, it seemed that there should be especial emphasis placed on the flag of our country. Consequently a flag ceremony was prepared for use in every lodge at its opening. In this it was required that each member and visitor express his fidelity to the cause and country of freedom by saluting Old Glory over the altar, upon which is the open Bible, the foundation from which the teachings of our Order are drawn. This flag ceremony was printed and sent to all the lodges of the State and is as follows:

Flag Ceremony.

In order that there may be uniformity in the various lodges of the State a Flag Ceremony has been provided

The Noble Grand calls the lodge to order and satisfies himself that all present are qualified to remain. Immediately following and before the lodge is opened he says:

"The Warden and the committee (previously designated by the Noble Grand, the Conductor may be one of the committee) will retire and present the flag of our country."

They retire, without ceremony, in single file, the Warden in the center. On reaching the ante-room the Warden takes the flag, which should be mounted on a staff, and with the committee returns to the inner door. He gives an alarm to attract the attention of the inside guardian. The inside guardian says:

"Noble Grand, the Warden and committee bearing the flag are ready to enter."

N. G.: "You will admit them."

As they enter, without signal, the Lodge rises and sings the first verse of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

They enter, single file, the Warden, bearing the flag, in the center. They proceed to the center of the room, facing the Noble Grand. As soon as they have reached the center and the singing is completed, the one on the right opens the Bible on the altar before them. The Noble Grand says:

"Brothers, salute the Flag."

This is the regular military salute, bringing the open right hand to the right side of the forehead, then dropping it to the side.

The Warden and committee proceed in single file to the station of the Noble Grand and the flag is presented to the Noble Grand, who places it in a socket at his right hand.

The Warden and the committee then proceed to their places and the lodge is seated.

Meetings Held.

Beginning in December, 1917, and continuing through February, 1918, a series of rally meetings was held as follows:

December—Lindenwood, Ogle County; Wheaton, DuPage County; Centralia, Marion County; Fairbury, Livingston County; Nashville,

Washington County; Oglesby, La Salle County; Rockford, Winnebago County; Plano, Kendall County; Mason City, Mason County, and St. Elmo, Fayette County.

January—Macomb, McDonough County; Stronghurst, Henderson County; Metropolis, Massac County; Cairo, Alexander County; Vermilion, Edgar County; Rantoul, Champaign County; Marion, Williamson County, and Clinton, DeWitt County.

February—Cuba, Fulton County; McLeansboro, Hamilton County; Grayville, White County; Marengo, McHenry County; St. Charles, Kane County; Ridgway, Gallatin County; Watseka, Iroquois County, and Joliet, Will County.

These meetings were all scheduled prior to the meeting of Grand Lodge. It was my privilege to attend many of these but it was not possible to be at all. The Grand Master, or some one by him designated, was present at each, where I could not be.

Other meetings were held during the year as follows: Farmer City, December 19; Lexington, February 22; Fillmore, February 27; Peoria, March 9; Palmyra, March 13; Decatur, March 20; Chicago, July 24; Chicago, September 12, and Danville, September 24. The very serious snow blockade in January and February materially interfered with the attendance at many of these places. The influenza epidemic and state quarantine prevented the holding of other meetings planned later in the year. In all the gatherings held many faithful and loyal Brethren were present and rendered great service.

Valued Helpers.

I desire to express my hearty appreciation of the valuable assistance given by Brother Charles M. Hunt, the Assistant Grand Instructor. Living in Chicago he was able to care for the work there. This I could not have done, living nearly 200 miles away. The corps of Official Instructors throughout the state, a list of whom is appended to this report, were always faithful and efficient and ready to serve. A large volume of correspondence has been found necessary. I do not feel that I should close this report without acknowledgment of my full appreciation of the honor of being called by you to fill this very important position.

During the year I have commissioned the following as Official Instructors:

Fraternally submitted,

OWEN SCOTT,
Grand Instructor.

REPORT OF ASSISTANT GRAND INSTRUCTOR.

CHICAGO, OCT. 21, 1918.

H. M. Blood, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Chicago, Ill.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: It becomes my duty. as well as pleasure, to submit to you a report of my work as Assistant Grand Instructor for the year just ending; a year that seems so short as I look back upon upon it today.

Recalling the home-coming meeting held in the Second Regiment Armory, with the vast crowd of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, and the enthusiasm which emanated from it and started the year with a complete determination looking toward the goal of efficiency, the effect was to stimulate the membership to greater effort to obtain candidates, and learn the great lessons which are found in our Order.

We have certainly made a steady gain in membership in Cook County, as well as having created a profound desire to improve our work.

In conclusion I wish to thank the lodge for their courteous attention to my requests whenever called upon, and I wish also to thank you for the honor conferred on myself as one of your staff officers.

Below I give a partial list of the more important visits made by me this year:

Wednesday, January 16th, held a booster meeting at the Hall of Northern Light No. 544. Twelve lodges represented. Snow seven feet deep in front of hall.

Held a School of Instruction at Cicero Lodge No. 217, Monday, January 21st. Very pleasant meeting and good attendance.

Tuesday evening, February 5th, held the second booster meeting with Austin Park No. 645. A good attendance. The Grand Master and other Grand Officers present. Very enthusiastic meeting.

Tuesday evening, February 12th, held a booster meeting in the Hall of Golden Harmony Lodge No. 917, who also gave us their usual good work in the first degree. Fifteen candidates and twenty lodges represented.

I also visited with the Grand Master Nonpareil Lodge No. 331 and was met by a large and highly delighted delegation of representatives of lodges from the North Shore Circuit.

Wednesday, February 28th, I was with Adelphi Lodge No. 8 and witnessed Austin Park Lodge No. 645 put on the second degree in a very able manner. Dr. C. A. Robbins was present and gave us a splendid talk. Twelve lodges represented and 160 present.

Wednesday, March 13th, at Home Lodge No. 418. White City Lodge No. 878 exemplified the third degree in fine shape. Twenty-one lodges represented; 175 present.

March 30th, Cicero Lodge No. 217 held a patriotic meeting for soldiers and sailors. The hall was filled to its capacity, and a program was given by friends of the lodge. It was my pleasure to be the principal speaker of the evening.

April 5th, attended a meeting at Norden Lodge No. 699 in company with the Grand Master, and witnessed the work of Souvenir Lodge No. 831 in the initiatory degree.

Monday, April 8th, I was invited by John Ericsson Lodge No. 361 to instruct them in degree work, also April 15th and 22d for the same purpose.

Thursday, May 2d, visited Harvard Lodge of Harvard, Ill., for a School of Instruction. The initiatory degree was conferred on two candidates; afterward a school. I also examined the Deputy and Recording Secretary for Official Instructors. It seemed to be a very successful meeting.

Saturday, May 4th, as your Special Deputy I was the instituting officer for Portage Park Lodge No. 1041, which proved to be a very successful meeting. Work was started at 3:30 P. M., and all of the degrees were given to forty-five candidates; the whole affair was completed at 12, midnight. The lodge had twenty-two charter members and forty-five candidates.

May 19th, I attended the dedication of new building and hall of Irving Park Lodge No. 190.

Tuesday evening, May 21st, I attended a booster meeting of Irving Park Lodge No. 190, which was the first meeting in the new building. The work was put on by a team made up from members of the North Shore circuit. Six candidates. There were over two hundred present.

Tuesday evening, June 14th, I attended a memorial service in company with the Grand Master at Norden Lodge No. 479.

Wednesday, July 24th, a meeting for the Grand Instructor, Owen Scott, P.G.M., held at the hall of James R. Kewley Lodge No. 1022, who exemplified the third degree. Thirty-eight lodges represented and a very successful meeting.

Thursday, July 30th visited with Ben Hur Lodge at Aurora in company of the Grand Master. A very large and enthusiastic audience was present. A banquet was held in the Hotel at which over 150 members of Aurora lodges were present.

Thursday, Sept. 12th, a School of Instruction was held at Good Samaritan Lodge No. 540. P.G.M. Owen Scott, Grand Instructor, in charge. A new feature in school work was tried out, and found to be very interesting. There were forty-six lodges represented, also two from outside jurisdictions, and about 400 present.

Monday evening, September 30th, attended a dedication of Service flag by Austin Park No. 645, which was attended by a large audience.

Tuesday evening, October 1st, I held a School of Instruction at the hall of Union No. 9, which was attended by the lodge members only. I examined one P.G. in open lodge and issued a certificate for Official Instructor.

Wednesday, October 9th, I was present at the institution of Plzen Lodge No. 272. The Grand Master was instituting officer and I acted as the Grand Herald. There were eighteen charter members and sixty-eight candidates, who had the appearance of making a successful lodge.

Monday, October 14th, a booster meeting was held in the hall of Berwyn Lodge No. 455 and a very lively meeting was the result. The Grand Master was present and gave one of his usual good speeches. Nine lodges represented; 150 present.

Several important meetings were arranged for October, but, owing to the suspending of all lodge meetings, they were cancelled.

Fraternally,

C. M. HUNT,
Assistant Grand Instructor.

REPORT OF GRAND WARDEN.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Oct. 30, 1918.

Hon. H. M. Blood, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Chicago, Ill.:

MY DEAR BROTHER BLOOD: Your favor of recent date asking me to send you a report of my work as Grand Warden during the year is being complied with in a short report.

The war has imposed upon business men great duties which are not common in normal times. Many of us who are vitally interested in the work of Odd Fellowship have been deprived of the privilege of doing that which we would like to have done had not conditions in hiring help been different so we could have left home. However, I have had the pleasure of meeting with the Brethren in a number of places, where I found the Odd Fellows enthusiastic and the interest in the work very manifest.

I have attended Special Sessions of the Grand Lodge at Cuba, Lexington, Decatur and Bloomington. I have also attended meetings at Peoria, Farmer City, LeRoy, Normal, Ottawa and Jacksonville. In all these places the attendance was good and the meetings interesting.

I have met with the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home on several occasions, by their request. These busy business men are proving their worth in the splendid manner in which they are administering to the needs and care of the Home. Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home, mentioned by an Odd Fellow or Rebekah, causes many a pulse to quicken, the eye to brighten—yea, to moisten. It contains those nearest to our hearts. It throws out its protecting wings to those who know not how soon one beloved of them may seek shelter within its walls.

I appreciate, Grand Master, the very high honor of being one of your cabinet officers. While I have not had the opportunity of helping you as I would like to have done, I have done the best I could under existing circumstances.

I shall always cherish in fond memory your friendship to me. You are to be congratulated by every Odd Fellow in this state for your splendid administration and the great and good work you have accomplished. You have given unstintingly of your time, energy and knowledge, and the spirit in which it was given makes it the more appreciative.

Wishing you many more years of joyful and helpful life, I am,

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

JOHN W. BIRNEY,

Grand Warden.

INTRODUCTION

Hon. H. M. Blood, Grand Master, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Jurisdiction of Illinois:

GRAND MASTER: Complying with the law of the Order, the Directors of the Orphans' Home present herewith a complete report of their work during the year ending October 1, 1918.

Improvements.

No extraordinary improvements were needed during the past year, and so far as we know, none will be required during the coming year. It will be necessary in the near future to do considerable repairing and remodeling of the Administration Building, but it is not deemed advisable to ask that it be done during the present emergency, while prices are so high and material is so scarce. It has been the policy of the Board to make repairs as needed, and some repair work and painting have been done for the protection of the buildings.

The most noticeable improvement at the Home was made by the Rebekahs, when they refurnished the reception parlors in the Administratfon Building. The furniture in these rooms had been used for many years, and was decidedly worn and shabby. In April, 1917, Sister Cora Neff Phillips, then President of the Assembly, sent out a letter to the Rebekah lodges, asking for contributions to pay the expense of refurnishing these rooms. More than three hundred lodges responded and ample funds were secured. New hardwood floors were put in, the walls were decorated and new furniture and rugs installed. The rooms are now a credit to the Home and will have an influence for good on all the members of the Home. Great credit is due to Sisters Phillips and Cooper, to the members of the Advisory Board and to the Rebekah lodges of the State for this much needed improvement.

Swimming Pool.

During the past summer, Grand Patriarch Walter J. North, remembering the days of his boyhood, conceived the idea that a swimming pool would be a welcome improvement at the Home. After consultation with the Directors, Superintendent and others, it was decided to prepare a pool in the basement of the Administration Building, adjoining the shower bath room. The Grand Patriarch sent out an appeal to the Encampments for contributions, and nearly one hundred Encampments and a number of individuals responded, the total amount received being nearly $600.00. The pool has been prepared except the installation of heating facilities, and that will be completed soon. The thanks of the Home are due to Grand Patriarch North and to the Encampments and brothers who made this improvement possible.

Appointment of Committees.

Early in the year the Board decided that the work of the Board could be more efficiently conducted by committees appointed to have charge of certain lines of work and on whom responsibility should rest. Committees were appointed with chairmen as follows:

House Equipment and Supplies—A. G. Nauman, Chairman.
Education, Physical Development, Etc.—John H. Steiner, Chairman.
Farm, Stock, Farm Equipment, Etc.—W. R. McGaughey, Chairman.
Applications and Admissions,—William H. Pease, Chairman.
Records, Accounts and Legal Matters—J. J. Crowder.

Matters frequently come before the Superintendent in the interim between meetings which require attention and on which the members of the Board should be consulted. The appointment of the above committees enables the Superintendent to act promptly and makes it possible for the Board to render greater service to the Home and to the Order. The members of the Board are well satisfied with the experiment and believe that added efficiency has been the result.

The Farm.

Early in the year Past Grand Master Hubbard resigned as a member of the Board that he might give his entire time to governmental work. The Grand Master appointed Brother W. R. McGaughey, of Mt. Zion, Macon County, as his successor. Being a practical farmer, Brother McGaughey has been able to do much to make the Farm more productive and profitable. Cash receipts from the Farm during the past year were $3,659.82, compared with receipts of $1,578.38 in 1917. Good crops have been raised, as is shown by the sale of 407 bushels of wheat from ten acres of land.

The Board has expended more than six hundred dollars during the past year in tiling and ditching the "lower eighty." This will materially benefit a large part of the land, but a small part of it cannot be well drained until a Drainage District is organized, as the only drainage is through property whose owners will not permit an outlet. This drainage project will doubtless be carried out as soon as normal conditions return.

Admission of Half Orphans.

It will be remembered that at one time the Grand Lodge ordered that half orphans should be admitted to the Home on the same terms as full orphans, but at the session of 1914, and again in 1915, the Grand Lodge decided that "in admitting half orphans to the Home the Board of Directors should exercise the greatest care and caution; they should be governed by the most rigid rules and admit only those who are practically full orphans." (See Journal, Grand Lodge of Illinois, 1914, Document No. 6, pages 319-321; also, Journal of 1915, page 78.)

The Directors have conscientiously tried to follow this rule of the Grand Lodge, and in every case, where the application is for the admission of a half orphan, have tried to determine whether or not the child is "practically a full orphan." Great difficulty has been found, however, in applying the rule. Some lodges and members seem to think that any member, who has motherless children, has a perfect right to place them in the Home if he so desires. It is easy to find an excuse for a brother who wishes to be relieved of the care of his motherless children, and easier yet to find a reason why the Board should admit half orphans whose mother is living.

We have had applications from men and women who were well able to provide for their children but wished to be free from the responsibility. We have had applications from brothers who wished to place their children in the Home while the father sought work at higher wages in another state. We have had applications for the admission of children where both parents are living but were divorced or separated. Also from Rebekahs for the admission of children whose father is living and not a member of the Order. Until the Grand Lodge shall revise the rules concerning admission, the Board will continue to use its best judgment and fit the rule as best it can to each particular case. This is probably the best way to settle these unusual questions.

Contributions for Care of Children.

The members of the Board have felt that parents and guardians, when able to do so, should contribute to the Home, at least a part of the expense, and have insisted that payments should be made according to agreement, whenever possible. The result has been that collections for the care of children have increased from $2,673.25 in 1917 to $3,906.03 in 1918, an increase of nearly fifty per cent. It has not been the desire of the Board to cause any hardship to any one, but when a parent or guardian can pay part of the expense, we see no reason why the payment should not be made. If the child is received into the Home, certainly the parent is relieved of the expense at home and should be willing to pay part of the expense, if possible. We believe that each one should contribute according to his or her ability and have so insisted during the year.

Children of Non-Beneficiary Members.

A letter was received from the Trustees of Tri City Lodge No. 1031, stating that a member of that lodge had died soon after his initiation, and before he became a beneficiary member of the lodge, and asking if his children were eligible to the Home. The question was submitted to the Grand Sire, who answered that it was a question for the Grand Lodge of Illinois to decide. The Grand Master was then asked for a decision, in order that it might be submitted to the Grand Lodge for decision. The decision of the Grand Master was that the children should be admitted to the Home, "if otherwise eligible," and it is the hope of the Directors that the Grand Lodge will approve the decision.

Patriotic Action.

The last report of the Home stated that thirty-three of the former Home boys had joined the Colors, and were doing their part in the great struggle for liberty and human rights. Since that report was written, others of our boys have offered themselves, and now sixty-six names have a place on our Honor Roll. Four of these are indicated by gold stars, showing that Gus Voight, Curtis Thackson, Joe Abrahamson and John Tippett have made the supreme sacrifice.

The following former Home boys are known to be in the service:

Our School.

Our School compares favorably with the best schools of Illinois. Two years ago the Grand Lodge appropriated $15,000.00 for the remodeling of the building. The building is now modern in every way and complies with the Illinois School Law in regard to heating, lighting, seating, ventilation and sanitation.

A splendid interest has been manifested by both teachers and pupils, and excellent work has been done. The eighth-grade graduating class this year was one of the largest in the history of the School.

Eighteen boys and girls were graduated from the eighth grade this year and were presented diplomas by Supt. J. A. Lucas, entitling them to admission to any high school in Illinois.

Grand Master H. M. Blood of Chicago delivered the Commencement Address. Brother Blood's address teemed with good advice for the boys and girls of the class. He is a forceful speaker and was at his best while he faced this class of fine young people. His address was replete with good instructions and sound common sense.

Besides Grand Master Blood, the following members of the Board were present: John H. Steiner, Quincy; W. H. Pease, Harvey; W. R. McGaughey, Mt. Zion; Dr. A. G. Nauman, Chicago, and J. J. Crowder, Peoria; also Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, Springfield, and Grand Warden J. W. Birney, Bloomington.

It has been the constant aim of the Board to make our School as highly efficient as possible. The best possible teachers have been employed and the character of work done is highly satisfactory. It has been decided to send eighth-grade graduates who are under sixteen years of age and have another year to remain in the Home to the business college instead of high school, as it is considered more beneficial since many of the pupils are not able to finish their high-school course. Two boys and three girls have taken advantage of this fine opportunity to get a business education.

The following is a list of the eighth-grade graduates this year:

Myrtle Wilhelmina Wiberg.
Alfred William Auler.
Ruth Alice Herrin.
Dolly Hanch.
Lela Gladys White.
Thelma Iown Dash.
John Donald Cooper.
Lester Edwin Carlson.
Raymond Dillman.
Juanita Dorothy Marconi.
Eula Grimes.
Emma Geneva Simpson.
Ida Rosanna Weinstein.
Cleo Eva Murray.
Jesse Lee Antle.
Charles Everett Karr.
Harry Thomas Wickersham.
George Robert Lipsey.

The following is a list of the teachers employed for the school year of 1918-1919:

Miss Winifred Taylor, principal and teacher of eighth grade.
Miss Vera Parsons, sixth and seventh grades.
Miss Ruth Fenstermaker, fifth grade.
Miss Margaret Rodman, third and fourth grades.
Miss Norma Downey, first and second grades.
Miss Vivian Tee, domestic science teacher.
Mr. Loyd Carter, manual training teacher.
Miss Huldah Peters, vocal and instrumental music.
Prof. H. O. Merry, band instructor.

Band.

Alfred Magnussen will be the leader of the band for the coming year.

How to Gain Admission.

Lodges or guardians, wishing to place in the Home children who are eligible to its benefits, should apply to the Superintendent, Dr. J. A. Lucas, Lincoln, Illinois, for a blank form of application. The blank application must be signed by the guardian, if the child is a full orphan. And every child, before admission, must have a guardian. If a half orphan, the living parent must sign the application. The Lodge, of which the father, if dead, was a member or is a member, if living, must also sign the application (under seal). The application should be returned to the Superintendent, who will present it to the Board of Directors for consideration at their first meeting thereafter.

The Assembly.

The rooms for which Sister Phillips raised the money are now furnished. These rooms are very large and yet not too large to accommodate our many visitors. The rooms are often crowded with Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. They are now in excellent condition and will bear inspection by those who are not members of the Order. We have many visitors who are not members of the Order.

The following is a list and price of articles of furniture:

Writing desk	$ 30.00

1 Piano	400.00
Total	$1,469.88

The usual benefactions were ours to enjoy the past year, namely, $300.00 for the sewing woman. Likewise, the $100.00 for entertainment, and the collection for the Thanksgiving dinner, which amounted to $60.85 and was used for the good dinner the children all enjoyed.

We sincerely thank the State Assembly for their generous donations to our Home.

Recreation Fund.

The South Side Memorial Association gave us	$ 75.00
Good Samaritan Lodge No. 540	18.75
June Rebekah Lodge	10.00

Purchased two slides for playgrounds.

District No. 26.

The good Rebekahs gave us $22.28 with which to buy water melons. As they were not good this year, we took the liberty to buy apples instead.

Grand Encampment.

The Grand Encampment built a swimming pool in the basement of the Administration building. It was built adjacent to the shower bath room with an archway between. This makes both the bath room and the pool very desirable, and when a heating pipe is placed will give both boys and girls much pleasure.

Assembly Treasurer.

Received from Sister Emma Turner for placing rope on flag pole	$ 6.00
For seamstress	300.00
For entertainment—moving pictures	100.00
For aluminum ware—Domestic Science	25.00

Southwestern Lodge No. 484, for Ida Weinstein.

Monmouth Lodge No. 577, for Lester Carlson.

Oak Lodge No. 341, for Jessie Antle.

REPORT OF THE AUXILIARY BOARD OF THE ORPHANS' HOME.

The best things in this world can be defined only by a description of their results. No man can fully define what the sunshine is except by pointing out what it does.

We believe above everything else that in our Homes the principles and spirit of fraternity finds its strongest expression.

These are the places where Odd Fellowship proves itself. Here we feel the strong hand in the dark hour of adversity, the helping hand in the time of need and a tower of strength in the moment of weakness.

Your Auxiliary Board regrets that it cannot reproduce in its report the sentiments that actuate its members in their desire to make the Home at Lincoln everything that the word "Home" stands for.

Management.

The management and discipline of the Home needs no commendation, for it is so thoroughly established in point of excellence that the fame of those entrusted with the management of same has gone far and wide. Under the tactful and loving supervision of Dr. and Sister Lucas, these dear children are developing into useful men and women. And—

"Back of the canvas that throbs,
The painter is hinted and hidden;
Into the statue that breathes,
The soul of the sculptor is hidden;
Back of the sound broods the silence,
Back of the gift is the giving,
Back of the hand that receives,
Thrills the sensitive nerves of receiving."

Improvements.

While this has been a year when conservation needs to be the watchword, it is an undisputable fact that conservation of the youth of our country is an essential, and wherever money was needed to maintain the health, comfort and well being of our children, it has been spent without question.

Through the generosity of the Grand Encampment, an adequate swimming pool has been installed in the basement of one of the buildings, which will add to the health as well as pleasure of the children.

New hardwood floors have been laid in the large reception parlors in the Administration building, and beautiful new furnishings purchased with the money so generously given by the Rebekah Lodges for that purpose last year.

Alterations and improvements of one of the cottages has been deemed necessary, whereby those children showing any signs of tubercular tendencies may receive an abundance of sunshine and special care.

Health.

The health of the Home has been excellent. The remarkable fact that there have been only nine deaths in twenty-six years is a point worth mentioning. One of these was accidental and three others were ill when admitted.

Number of Children.

On October 1st there were 172 children, members of the Home family; 184 being the average for the year. Sixty-six former Home boys are in the United States Army and Navy service, unquestionably sustaining the ideals of the essential things that go to make up human existence.

The School is fully maintaining its standard and excellent work shown in all departments, special mention being made of the girls' work in Household Science. The members of the two Boards enjoyed a most excellent luncheon prepared by the girls at the October meeting.

The boys in Manual Training are doing creditable work. One sees evidences of this in many places about the Home.

The subject of the necessity of some increase in the salaries of employees was a matter for discussion before the Board of Directors and the Auxiliary Board was reminded that inasmuch as the seamstress was paid by the Rebekah Assembly, this was a matter that should receive some consideration at our next regular session.

We would most respectfully recommend that an increase in keeping with the salaries paid other employees for like service be allowed the seamstress.

Conclusion.

We appreciate the courtesies extended to us by Dr. and Sister Lucas and each member of the Board of Directors. They are busy people, yet giving generously of their time and talent to this worthy cause.

Whatever gives larger meaning to life, whatever solves our problems, teaches us to look up and helps us forward, though it be but for a "little child," that is real service and there the hand of God is seen.

We are glad to have even a small share in this.

Fraternally submitted,

ELLEN O. JOHNSON, P.P.,
SAIDEE CARSON,
MYRTLE W. TANDY, P.P.,
LURA B. LATHAM, P.P.,
ARLETTA LOPP.

CONCLUSION.

We cannot conclude this report without making acknowledgment of the many kindly words and actions of members of the Order throughout the State. Many have visited the Home, and returned to their lodges, enthusiastic in their approval of the work that is being done for the children, and thus the knowledge of our work is spread among the members. We welcome visitors, and believe that one cannot see the Home and its work without becoming a more enthusiastic and active worker in the Order. To those who have made contributions of money, clothing or other supplies, we extend our sincere thanks, for in these times of high prices, such donations are a welcome addition to our store room.

To our teachers, who have worked so faithfully to maintain our school on a high standard, equal to the best of our city schools, we also express our earnest appreciation. Nor should we omit to give due credit for faithful service to our governesses, and to all assistants and employees of the Home. They have been faithful and efficient, and have stood by us loyally, in the face of offers of higher wages in other lines of employment.

The Directors and the Order owe a debt of gratitude that can never be repaid to Dr. and Mrs. Lucas, the Superintendent and Matron of the Home. They have continued their arduous, faithful, efficient services to build up and maintain what we all desire, a real HOME, and not simply an institution.

Finally, Grand Master, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation of the support and assistance of the Grand Master and his associate officers, and the President of the Assembly and her associates. It has been a pleasure to serve under your administration, for your visits and suggestions have contributed not a little to the success that we feel has been attained.

Fraternally submitted,

ARTHUR G. NAUMAN, President;
WILLIAM H. PEASE,
JOHN H. STEINER,
W. R. McCAUGHEY,
J. J. CROWDER, Secretary.

INTRODUCTORY

To the Grand Master and Members of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

It is our privilege as well as duty to submit to you the twenty-first Annual Report of the Trustees of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, Illinois.

This haven of rest for our aged Brothers and Sisters, that has been so generously provided by the open hand and loyal heart of our great fraternity, has, like the rest of our land, felt the ruthless hand of the god of war, for, while our Home has not been called upon for men to carry arms in this great struggle for permanent peace, its heart has been attuned in sympathy with your own individual hearth-stones, few of which have escaped the call for some dear one whose heart was brave enough to make, if necessary, the supreme sacrifice, and our Home, like other homes in the nation, points with pride to its Service Flag, whose stars on the field of white represent the sons and grandsons of members of the Home.

Your Board of Trustees, as they met from month to month, leaving not only their business cares but also the more strenuous duties for which they all were called and to which they so willingly responded, in doing their part in aiding our government to make the world free from tyranny, have found the Home to be a friendly oasis, and in truth could say, "Here is friendship, not malice; here is love, not hate; here is truth, not falsehood." They have rejoiced in the thought that during all this terrible conflict Fraternities were still teaching the great lessons of the one Fatherhood of God and the Universal Brotherhood of Man.

There have been twelve withdrawals during the year. Several of these were members whose physical condition had so improved that they could again go out and earn their own living. Many letters have been received expressing their appreciation for the care of the Home in their time of need.

The buildings and grounds have been kept in good repair. Our dairy herd is still being improved, and an air of restfulness permeates all the surroundings.

The Rebekahs have shown their usual interest in the welfare and comfort of our aged Brothers and Sisters and have redecorated and refurnished the large dining room in a manner that brings words of praise not only from the old members, but from visitors as well. The President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Irene Cooper, and the Grand Master, Brother H. M. Blood, have made many visits to the Home, and have given aid to the trustees in suggestions and advice.

Deputy Grand Master, Brother L. M. Kagy, has visited the Home frequently, and, being in close touch with the needs of the Home by virtue of his having served seven years on the Board of Trustees, has been able to give inspiration to the members of the Home in his splendid addresses and visitations among them. The Advisory Board has worked in harmony for the best interests of the Home and the members have been faithful in their attendance and labors.

The splendid men and women who have ministered, as employees, to the old members, have been attentive and cheerful in the performance of their duties, and, while many went away under the lure of higher wages, sometimes leaving with little or no notice—thereby placing a great burden upon the Superintendent to keep their places filled—yet their places have been filled by others who would give the same attentive and cheerful service to the Brothers and Sisters; and in this connection we may say that, while the salaries paid at the Home are not high, those who labor with us are able to save from their earnings more than some who accept larger salaries only to find them consumed in additional expenses.

Under the careful watchfulness of Superintendent and Matron, Brother and Sister Sayler, the sanitary conditions of the Home have been maintained to a high degree. The farm and garden are in a high state of cultivation. Entertainments and chapel service for the members have been carefully looked after, and the old Brothers and Sisters generally compose a happy and well regulated family.

One of the most interesting events of the Home during the year was the occasion when faithful service in our Order was recognized by the presentation of a fifty-year jewel to Brother Wm. F. Schaefer; an Odd Fellow for over fifty years and a member of our Home since August 22, 1916. Upon the same occasion was unveiled and hung the Service Flag of the Home, to which reference has already been made.

To all Grand Lodge officers and members, and to the fraternal press we express our keen appreciation for your interest in this Home.

The following detailed report is respectfully submitted:

SECOND REPORT OF ENDOWMENT TRUSTEES.

To the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Trustees of the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, beg to report as follows:

From moneys received from former investments paid off, cash on hand, and the donations at the Grand Lodge session of 1917, we have made the following investments:

Orphans' Home Fund.

On February 12, 1918, we purchased two School District 57, Lawrence Co., Illinois, bonds of $500.00 each, each, drawing 6 per cent and due July 1, 1925, paying therefor a premium of $50.50 plus accrued interest of $7.14. Total	$ 1,057.64
On March 5, 1918, we purchased $7,000.00 notes, bearing 5½ per cent interest and due October 16, 1922, made by James and Joseph McBride. Secured by first mortgage on 120 acres in Lee County, Illinois, valued at $15,000.00. We paying face value and accrued interest, $148.65 and $175.00 to reduce the interest to 5 per cent. Total	7,323.75
On June 20, 1918, we invested $1,000.00 in Third Liberty Loan United States 4½ per cent Bonds. Registered in the name of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.	1,000.00
On October 10, 1918, we subscribed for $1,250.00 of Fourth Liberty Loan United States Bonds, drawing 4¼ per cent; all of the bonds purchased being registered in the name of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.	1,250.00

Old Folks' Home Fund.

On February 12, 1918, we purchased seven School District No. 57 Lawrence County, Illinois building bonds of $500.00 each, drawing 6 per cent; one maturing July 1, 1925, three maturing July 1, 1926, and three maturing July 1, 1927, paying for them a premium of 176.75, plus accrued interest of $24.36. Total	3,701.11
On April 30, 1918, we subscribed for $7,750.00 in Third Liberty Loan Unted States Registered Bonds which draw 4¼ interest. Total	7,750.00

Report adopted.

REPORT OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

I herewith submit my annual report as your Secretary for the year ending October 31, 1918.

Your Grand Secretary has entertained many fears as to the effect which the World War would have on Odd Fellowship in the Jurisdiction of Illinois. While it has, no doubt, interfered in a measure with our growth, the general condition of the Order is better than could have been expected. Many lodges have lost their most active and influential members, by reason of enlistment in the service. These lodges are in a dormant condition, but I am pleased to report that practically all of them are holding meetings regularly and are discharging the duties of a Subordinate Lodge.

We are looking forward to a speedy termination of this greatest of all wars and are confidently looking forward to the time when justice will prevail throughout the world.

With the return of our soldier members will come added opportunities and responsibilities. Many of them will need assistance, but Illinois is fortunate in having on hand at this time a large War Fund which can be used for this purpose.

Notwithstanding the war, the Order in Illinois made a substantial gain in membership during the past year, to-wit: 2,222 members in the Subordinate Lodges, and a gain of 1,496 in the Rebekah Lodges.

Illinois has been for many years, and is now one of the leading Jurisdictions in Odd Fellowship and we confidently believe that our Jurisdiction will maintain this proud distinction in the years to come.

GRAND LODGE JOURNAL OF 1917.

The Grand Lodge Journal for the session of 1917 consisted of 570 pages.

To arrange copy, read proof, and index the Grand Lodge Journal requires the entire time of a thoroughly competent person, whom we secured in the person of Past Grand Master Owen Scott.

TRUSTEES OF THE ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOMES.

All bills allowed by the two Boards of Trustees are forwarded to me with an attached certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and countersigned by the Grand Master. These bills and vouchers are kept on file in my office for future reference, and orders on the Grand Treasurer are drawn for the several amounts. Upon these vouchers the Grand Master and myself have drawn orders on the Grand Treasurer for the sum of $56,528.32 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, and the sum of $54,178.21 to pay bills contracted by the Directors of the Orphans' Home, making a total disbursement for these two charities of the sum of $110,706.53.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE.

As Secretary of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, I report that four sessions of this committee were held, as provided by law, on the third Tuesdays of November, 1917, February, May, and August, of the present year. At the November session two opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from 32 Subordinate and 14 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the February session the By-Laws from 33 Subordinate and 12 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the May session the By-Laws from 56 Subordinate and 10 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the August session, the By-Laws from 21 Subordinate and 11 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon.

CASE APPEALED TO GRAND LODGE.

The following case was on Dec. 18, 1917, appealed to the Grand Lodge:

CASE NO. 484.

Price Johnson
vs.
Russellville Lodge No. 911, I. O. O. F.

Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, November Session, 1917.

Opinion by Brother John W. Fling, Jr., No. 244.

This is an appeal by Brother Price Johnson from the action and decision of Russellville Lodge No. 911, in its refusal to pay him sick benefits.

On July 28, 1917, Brother Price Johnson, who was a member in good standing of said Russellville Lodge No. 911, presented a written claim in said Lodge, claiming sick benefits from January 20, 1917, to April 17, 1917, a period of twelve weeks, at $4.00 per week, or for a sum of $48.00. The records show that the Lodge referred said claim to the Visiting Committee, and instructed said committee to "act at once"; that the report of the committee was made as ordered, in which it reported that they found "nothing due Brother Price Johnson; that the Lodge approved said report; that at said meeting Brother Johnson prayed an appeal; Brother R. C. Allen was appointed commissioner. The records also show that on September 1, 1917, Brother Price Johnson offered to compromise with the Lodge and accept $36.00. On motion, duly made and seconded, that he be allowed $36.00, the Lodge voted two years and seven days. Brother Johnson again prayed and was granted an appeal, and Brother R. C. Allen was re-appointed as commissioner.

The records further disclose that the Lodge, on January 20, 1917, allowed and paid Brother Johnson for three weeks benefits, or from December 29, 1916, to January 20, 1917; that on April 21, 1917, Brother Johnson asked for two weeks benefits, and was allowed and paid one week benefit; that at said meeting the "Sick Committee ordered him removed from any further claims for benefits."

Evidence was taken by the commissioner at various dates. From the evidence of Dr. C. J. Sprinkell, a member of said Lodge (said evidence being taken September 11, 1917), it appears that Brother Johnson had been suffering from a physical breakdown from January 20, 1917, to "the present time" (September 11, 1917); that he had issued two certificates, the first covering the time between Decembr 29, 1916, to January 20, 1917, and the second one from January 20, 1917, to February 3, 1917. Brother Price Johnson testifies that on January 20, 1917, he drew and was paid $12.00 by the Lodge for three weeks benefits, and that he presented a certificate for benefits from January 20, 1917, to February 3, 1917. On cross-examination he was asked one question, as follows:

Q. Did you ever, during these Dr. certificates, make any application or any report to the Visiting Committee according to Section 1 of Article 3 of the By-Laws?

A. No.

All the other material evidence in the case touches upon the questions of the residence of Brother Price Johnson being within one block of the Lodge room (Lodge No. 911), and also the fact that he did not make a report of his illness to the Visiting Committee, or Lodge members, in accordance with Section 1, Article 3, of the By-Laws of Lodge No. 911, which said Section 1 of Article 3 is as follows:

Section 1. Any Brother becoming sick shall send notice thereof, as soon as may be, to some member of the Visiting Committee. No Brother living within five miles of the Lodge room shall be entitled to benefits whose case has not been reported to the Visiting Committee, unless it shall appear that he used due diligence to report himself to them; and no benefits shall be allowed for the first week's sickness after such notice being sent to the committee."

According to the record, the Lodge defends its action in refusing to pay any more benefits to Brother Johnson on the ground that he violated said Section 1 of Article 3 of its By-Laws, and not on the ground that he was not, as a matter of fact, too ill to pursue his usual vocation from December 29, 1916, to April 17, 1917.

It is clear from the record before us that Brother Johnson did not comply with Section 1 of Article 3 of the Lodge By-Laws as above set forth. The question on this record is: Is Brother Johnson entitled to benefits, notwithstanding his failure to so notify said Lodge or its Visiting Committee?

It will be observed that three weeks benefits, or $12.00, was paid to Brother Johnson without the notice as required by said By-Law; in other words, the Lodge, by such payments, waived the requirements of said notice in its By-Laws. Section 2157, Merrill's Code, 1906, quoting as authority, S. J. 12093, 12149.

The record also shows that Brother Johnson was removed from the sick list by said Lodge without notice. No hearing was had in conformity to the law of our Order. A Brother, once on the sick list, cannot be taken therefrom without notice and investigation. Merrill's Code, 1906, Sec. 2143, quoting S. J. 9329, 9442, 9683, 9773, 9790, Busbee's Digest, Section 136, page 48.

In a recent opinion, by this committee, in the case of Henry Blatt vs. Harmonize Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., it was said:

"The laws of the Order demand that no name shall be removed from the sick list without notice and full investigation."

The Lodge, by its action in allowing benefits of $12.00 to Brother Johnson, waived the notice required by Section 1, Article 3, of its By-Laws, and having once recognized his claim to benefits, and having paid him therefor, has waived the strict compliance with said By-Law. The Lodge also erred in sustaining its Visiting Committee in taking Brother Johnson off the sck list without notice and investigation as required by the law of the Order. The record, by the greater weight of evidence, supports the claim of Brother Price Johnson for $18.00, or twelve weeks' benefits, from January 20, 1917, to April 17, 1917, as claimed by him.

It is the opinion of this committee that the evidence, and law applicable thereto, supports the claim of Brother Price Johnson to $18.00 sick benefits. The appeal of Brother Johnson is, therefore, sustained, and Russellville Lodge No. 911, I. O. O. F., is hereby ordered and directed to pay to Brother Price Johnson the said sum of $48.00.

MEMBERS IN THE SERVICE.

Much effort has been expended to secure a complete record of our members in the Military and Naval Services.

Reasonable success has been attained. Many lodges have found it almost impossible to secure complete records. The number in the service is constantly changing. From reports received at the Grand Secretary's office and estimates, it would appear that we have approximately 8,000 Brothers in the service.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS' RELIEF FUND.

The last session of the Grand Lodge provided for a fund of Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000) as a Soldiers and Sailors' Relief Fund.

Receipts.

Transferred from Grand Lodge Special Relief Fund	$ 5,000.00
Appropriation	40,000.00
Donations	660.31
Total	$45,660.31

Warrants have been drawn against this fund as follows, viz.:

Relief and Camp Work	$ 3,511.38
U. S. Liberty Bonds	30,000.00
Cash on hand	12,148.93

CHICAGO HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

At the 1917 session the Grand Secretary was instructed to furnish the Chicago Historical Society with a complete set of Grand Lodge Journals suitably bound, etc.

It was impossible to carry out these instructions for the reason that a large number of Journals are out of print. Only a small stock of other years is on hand in the Secretary's office. If further instructed I will forward such Journals as can be spared.

GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION AMENDED.

At the Grand Lodge session in 1917 the following amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution was adopted:

Standing Committees.

Amend Grand Lodge Constitution, Art. 6, Section 1, to read as follows, viz.:

Article 6.

STANDING COMMITTEES—Section 1. The Grand Master, at each annual session, shall, within twenty days after his installation as such, appoint the following committees to serve one year, viz.: (1) On Credentials, three members; (2) On State of the Order, fifteen members; (3) On Legislation, fifteen members; (4) On Finance, three members; (5) On Rebekah Degree, ten members; (6) On Mileage and Per Diem, fifteen members (said committee may appoint a clerk, who shall receive the compensation to which a Representative is entitled); (7) On Railroads, three members; (8) On Printing, three members. In the Order of Business, the reports of these Committees shall be called, etc."

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

This amendment was approved by Grand Sire Frank C. Goudy on Dec. 31, 1917, which action was ratified by the Sovereign Grand Lodge held in St. Louis, Sept. 16-21, 1918.

GRAND MASTER H. M. BLOOD.

It is doubtful if any Brother ever accepted the exalted position of Grand Master with a more thorough comprehension of its duties and responsibilities than did our present Grand Master, H. M. Blood. He knows Odd Fellowship from a practical as well as a theoretical standpoint. Being a thorough Odd Fellow himself, with ability and energy, his administration could not have been a failure. He has made a record of which he and the Order can well be proud.

CONCLUSION.

I extend most sincere thanks to my associate Grand Officers and co-workers in all departments, and particularly to General Joseph Fairhall, Department Commander of the Patriarchs Militant; Walter J. North, Grand Patriarch; Grand Scribe Sam J. Baker; President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Irene W. Cooper, and Sister Mae E. Crowell, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly.

To the membership throughout the state I am under renewed obligations for their loyalty and assistance rendered during the past year.

Fraternally yours,

Jno. H. Sikes.

Grand Secretary.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT.

To Honorable H. M. Blood, Grand Master:

It is with great pleasure and in accordance with an established custom, we herewith present to you and through you to the Grand Lodge a summary of the proceedings of the Ninety-fourth Annual Communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

We ask your consideration of this report and trust that the same will meet with your approval and that of the Grand Lodge.

The Ninety-fourth Annual Communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge convened in the city of St. Louis, Missouri, on Monday, Sept. 16, 1918, and adjourned on Friday, Sept. 20, 1918. All the elective and appointive officers were in attendance.

PAST GRAND SIRES.

Alfred S. Pinkerton, Massachusets.
John B. Goodwin, Maryland.
E. S. Conway, Illinois.
John B. Cockrum, Indiana.
J. B. A. Robertson, Oklahoma.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES.

The following legislation was enacted relative to the use of foreign languages:

A BILL TO ADD TO THE CODE OF GENERAL LAWS OF THE I. O. O. F. A NEW SECTION TO BE KNOWN AS SECTION 373-A, PRESCRIBING THE LANGUAGE IN WHICH SUBORDINATE BODIES MAY WORK.

Be it enacted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge, There is hereby added to the Code of General Laws of the I. O. O. F. a new section to be known as Section 373-A, as follows:

Section 373-A.—THE LANGUAGE IN WHICH SUBORDINATE BODIES MAY WORK. No Grand Body shall hereafter authorize any Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge or any Subordinate Encampment on the Continent of North America to work in any other than the English language.

On or before June 30, 1919, all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges and all Subordinate Encampments on the Continent of North America, working in any other than the English language, shall surrender their rituals in exchange for rituals printed in the English language (which shall be furnished by the Sovereign Grand Lodge without charge), and after December 31, 1919, all the work and business of such Lodges and Encampments shall be conducted in the English language.

Your representatives were of the opinion that more time should be given to the lodges using the foreign languages in which to memorize the various charges, but our jurisdiction will be obliged to do the best that it can under the circumstances and, in the event that foreign language lodges find it impossible to perfect themselves in the work within the specified time, then we recommend that a petition be presented to the Sovereign Grand Lodge asking for an extension of time.

DECISIONS.

The following decisions of the Grand Sire were approved:

Decision No. 1 (S. G. L. Code 466—Maritime Provinces).

Home Funds.—When a Grand Lodge raises, by assessment or otherwise, a fund for the establishment of a Home for Odd Fellows, such funds can be used for the purpose of establishing an Odd Fellows' Home, where widows of Odd Fellows, whether Rebekahs or not, and the orphans of Odd Fellows, could also be accepted as residents. Such funds or a portion thereof can be used for the purpose of maintaining such a Home when established. When a Grand Lodge creating such fund embraces more than one Province or State, and thereafter such Grand Jurisdiction is divided into two or more Grand Jurisdictions, there should be an equitable division of the funds or property existing at the time of such dissolution, but it is impossible for the Grand Sire or The Sovereign Grand Lodge or for the Grand Lodge to determine in advance how such equitable division of such property shall be accomplished.

Decision No. 2 (S. G. L. Code 723—Nebraska).

Appeal Acts as a Supersedeas.—An appeal from a judgment of a Subordinate Lodge to a Grand Lodge acts as a supersedeas, that is, suspends the execution of the judgment or sentence, unless otherwise provided by local law.

Decision No. 4 (S. G. L. Code 229, 230—Colorado).

Conferring Encampment Degrees.—An Encampment may have all the degrees, including the Patriarchal, conferred on its candidates by a different Encampment in another city, provided they proceed in accordance with the law (Sections 229 and 230) prescribed on page 109, Sovereign Grand Lodge Code, 1915.

Decision No. 5 (Journal, 1917, Page 247—Illinois).

War Legislation Applies to all Branches of the Order.—The war legislation adopted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge (Journal, 1917, p. 247) applies to all branches of the Order. Therefore a member of a Rebekah Lodge while serving in the military or naval service cannot be suspended for non-payment of dues.

Decision No. 6 (S. G. L. Code 470—Rhode Island).

Eligibility for Admission to Odd Fellows' Homes.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge has not enacted a law fixing qualifications for admission to Odd Fellows' Homes. All such questions are therefore within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodges.

Decision No. 7 (S. G. L. Code 137—Washington).

Official Certificates.—When an Official Certificate is issued to a member stating, by mistake, that dues are paid to a date later than such dues are actually paid, the Lodge is not bound by the receipt and the member should pay the dues as though such mistake had not occurred.

Decision No. 8 (S. G. L. Code 187, Rebekah Code 6—Oregon).

Rebekah Lodges, Eligibility.—A member of the Order who has received the Initiatory Degree, and who is otherwise qualified, is eligible to membership in a Rebekah Lodge. (Section 6 Rebekah Code; Section 187 S. G. L. Code; Section 2602 Busbee's Digest.)

Decision No. 12 (Journal, 1917, Page 247—Illinois).

War Legislation, Soldiers in Military Service of Our Allies.—A member of a lodge or Encampment in the United States or Canada, who joins the military or naval forces of England or of any of the Allies of the country in which his lodge or Encampment is located, is entitled to all of the benefits and privileges accorded by law to any other soldier member of the Order.

Decision No. 13 (Journal, 1917, Page 247—Minnesota).

War Legislation, Payment of Dues of Soldier Members.—Article 22 of the Code, adopted and effective September 21, 1917, and known at the War Legislation, authorizes Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments to provide a fund for the purpose of paying the dues and benefits of such of the members of their Subordinate Lodges and Encampments as may be engaged in the military or naval service.

Section 2 of said Article provides that no member of the Order while serving in the military or naval forces shall be suspended for non-payment of dues or become non-beneficial, the exact wording of the Section being "or lose any right or privilege which he now has."

If a Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment does not make provision for the raising of a fund for such purpose, the dues of such members must be charged up against them until such time as provision may be made for their payment, but such charging of dues cannot in any event cause such member to become non-beneficial if he was already in the service and was beneficial September 21, 1917, or if he entered the service after September 21, 1917, and was beneficial at the time he entered the service.

If he was already in the service and was non-beneficial, by reason of being in arrears on September 21, 1917, or if he entered the service after September 21, 1917, and was non-beneficial, by reason of being in arrears at the time of entering the service, he could not be dropped from membership but would remain non-beneficial until restored to beneficial membership by the payment of such arrearage.

He would have the right to pay such arrearages at any time and would become beneficial thereafter in accordance with the laws of his Grand Jurisdiction.

Decision No. 14 (S. G. L. Code 1 and 376—West Virginia).

Suspension of Lodge, Rights of Members.—The Grand Lodge of West Virginia at its annual session in October, 1917, suspended a Subordinate lodge for 90 days.

The legality of such suspension is not questioned and is not before me for a decision.

Assuming that such suspension was legal and within the power of the Grand Lodge, and that the Subordinate Lodge was suspended during the 90-day period, then during such period dues of members would not accrue and sick members would not be entitled to benefits.

Decision No. 15 (S. G. L. Code 408—West Virginia).

Installation of Grand Officer Elect.—The constitution of a Grand Lodge provided that, should an elective officer fail to be present at the proper time for installation, such office should be declared vacant and should at once be filled by election.

At the proper time for the installation of the officers of that Grand Lodge the Grand Warden elect was not present, his absence was not "due to sickness or other unavoidable circumstances." The installing officer did not declare the office vacant and no election was held, so that no one was installed as Grand Warden.

Under such circumstances, the office of Grand Warden is vacant and must be filled by election at the next session of the Grand Lodge.

Decision No. 16 (S. G. L. Code 316—Vermont).

Funds, Red Cross.—It is not a legitimate use of the funds of an Odd Fellows' Lodge or Encampment to vote money for a donation to the Red Cross.

Decision No. 17 (S. G. L. Code 316—Vermont).

Funds Raised in Name of the Order, Red Cross.—It is not proper for a Lodge or for its members to hold a meeting or entertainment in the name of the Order for the purpose of raising money to be donated to the Red Cross and present the same as coming from the Order.

James Ewing Davis.

Grand Representative,

Chicago.

DECISION No. 18 (S. G. L. CODE 315—NORTH DAKOTA).

FUNDS, RELIEF OF WIDOW.—It is a legitimate use of the funds of the Order to vote a donation of a reasonable amount for the relief of the widow of an Odd Fellow who died while in good standing. (See Busbee's Digest, Section 507.)

DECISION No. 19 (S. G. L. CODE 397—COLORADO).

GRAND OFFICER, HONORS OF THE ORDER.—When a Grand Master is visiting a Subordinate Lodge officially and is to be received with the honors of the Order it is both legal and proper for him to be accompanied by his appointive officers.

The same ruling will apply in other branches of the Order.

DECISION No. 20 (S. G. L. CODE 187, REBEKAH CODE 6—MINNESOTA).

REBEKAH LODGE, ELIGIBILITY TO MEMBERSHIP.—A woman whose husband is not an Odd Fellow may join a Rebekah Lodge, provided she is otherwise qualified as provided in the Rebekah Code, Section 6.

DECISION No. 21 (REBEKAH CODE 6—MINNESOTA).

REBEKAH LODGE, ELIGIBILITY TO MEMBERSHIP.—A woman who has been elected to membership in a Rebekah Lodge, and whose eligibility is based solely upon the fact that she is an unmarried woman, and who, before her initiation, marries a man who is not an Odd Fellow, is not eligible to be initiated. (See Decision 28, by Grand Sire Conway, Journal 1908, p. 434, 719, 737.)

DECISION No. 23 (S. G. L. CODE 484, 493—MINNESOTA).

RESIDENCE OF CANDIDATE.—Application for membership shall be made to the lodge nearest residence (Code 490).

If a Brother has moved and now resides outside of the Grand Jurisdiction in which the lodge to which he formerly belonged is located, and should wish to rejoin his former lodge, he can do so only by securing, first, a waiver from the lodge within whose local jurisdiction he resides; second, a waiver from the Grand Lodge within whose Jurisdiction he resides; and, third, the consent of the Grand Lodge having jurisdiction of the lodge which he desires to join.

DECISION No. 25 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—COLORADO).

WAR LEGISLATION, SOLDIER IN SERVICE OF OUR ALLIES.—Odd Fellowship is an international organization. Its beneficence is not limited by the boundary lines which divide and separate nations.

The war legislation (Journal 1917, p. 247) authorizes, and, in my opinion, contemplates, that the legislation therein provided for shall apply to soldiers and sailors whether in the service of the country in which the lodge is located or in the service of one of the allies of such country, therefore a Grand Lodge may lawfully enact legislation providing for the payment of the dues and benefits of those of its members who are in the military or naval service of any of the allies of the country in which it is located.

DECISION No. 26 (S. G. L. CODE 187, REBEKAH CODE 6—ILLINOIS).

REBEKAH LODGE, ELIGIBILITY TO MEMBERSHIP.—A member of the Order who has received the Initiatory Degree, and who is otherwise qualified, is eligible to membership in the Rebekah lodge. (Sec. 6 Reb. Code; Sec. 2602 Busbee's Digest.)

(See also Decision No. 18, by Grand Sire Stebbins, 1895, p. 14240. Report Judiciary Committee, 1896, pp. 15003, 15071, 15087. Decision No. 85, by Grand Sire Pinkerton, 1899, pp. 32, 365, 394.)

DECISION No. 27 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—ALBERTA).

WAR LEGISLATION, WHO ENTITLED TO BENEFITS.—A member of the Order, who is in good standing at the time of entering the military or naval service, and who has entered into such service since September 21, 1917, is entitled to the benefits of the war legislation, being Article 22, Journal 1917, p. 247, and if beneficial at the time of his entering such service he must be retained as a beneficial member until the close of the war or until he leaves such service.

DECISION No. 28 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—ALBERTA).

WAR LEGISLATION, SUBORDINATE BODIES MAY REDUCE OR ABOLISH BENEFITS.—The provision of the war legislation to the effect that "No member of the Order while hereafter serving in the military or naval forces shall be suspended for non-payment of dues, or lose any right or privilege which he now has," does not mean that a Subordinate lodge cannot reduce the amount of benefits payable to its members; nor does it mean that a Grand Encampment is prohibited from abolishing payment of pecuniary benefits by its Subordinate Encampments. If such action is taken, a soldier member still retains all of his rights and privileges as a member of his subordinate body.

A Grand Encampment may, therefore, provide that pecuniary benefits shall not be paid by any of its subordinate encampments, and such legislation shall apply to soldier members as well as to other members.

DECISION No. 29 (S. G. L. CODE 401, 412, 852, 855—ALBERTA).

ENCAMPMENT OFFICERS, ELIGIBILITY TO ADVANCEMENT.—The High Priest in a Subordinate Encampment and the Grand High Priest in Grand Encampments are not executive officers, and, in case the office of Chief Patriarch or Grand Patriarch becomes vacant, his place shall be filled temporarily by the Senior Warden or Grand Senior Warden.

Any Past Chief Patriarch is eligible to the office of Grand Patriarch; service as Grand Senior Warden not being essential.

Eligibility to the office of Chief Patriarch is fixed by the Code, 852, 853.

In case of a vacancy in the office of Grand Patriarch, the vacancy shall be filled as provided in the Code, 412.

In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Patriarch, the vacancy shall be filled by election (Code 855).

DECISION No. 31 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—HAWAII).

WAR LEGISLATION APPLIES TO LODGES UNDER IMMEDIATE JURISDICTION OF THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.—Article 22 of the Code, being the War Legislation adopted in 1917 (p. 247) is applicable to all lodges of the Order whether they be under the immediate jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge or under the jurisdiction of a Grand Lodge.

DECISION No. 32 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—HAWAII).

WAR LEGISLATION, DUES AND BENEFITS.—Article 22 of the Code, being the War Legislation adopted in 1917 (p. 247) does not require the actual raising of money for the payment of dues of soldier members. Grand Lodges and lodges under the immediate jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge are given the authority to raise money for that purpose, but such action is not compulsory. The second clause of such legislation is, however, compulsory, and "No member of the Order while serving in the military or naval forces shall be suspended for nonpayment of dues or lose any right or privilege he now has."

DECISION No. 33 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—HAWAII).

WAR LEGISLATION APPLIES TO SOLDIERS IN TRAINING—Article No. 22 of the Code, being the War Legislation adopted in 1917 (p. 247) is applicable to soldiers and sailors from the time they enter the service of their respective countries, whether such service be in training camps at home or over seas.

DECISION No. 34 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—HAWAII).

WAR LEGISLATION, BENEFITS TO SOLDIERS IN GOVERNMENT HOSPITALS.—Article No. 22 of the Code, being the War Legislation adopted in 1917 (p. 247), does not change the law providing that benefits shall be paid to soldiers or sailors in government hospitals.

DECISION No. 35 (S. G. L. CODE 6—HAWAII).

BENEFITS.—The amendment to Section 6 of the Code of General Laws, which amendment was adopted in 1917 (p. 249), provides that 'Grand Bodies shall have power and authority to enact laws abolishing weekly benefits after the payment of 52 weeks, or to authorize the Subordinates of such Grand Bodies to abolish payment of benefits after 52 weeks." This amendment is applicable to lodges working under the immediate jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, so that such Subordinate lodges now have the authority to abolish weekly benefits after 52 weeks, if such Subordinate lodges so desire.

Decision No. 36 (S. G. L. 316—Nevada).

Funds, Red Cross.—It is not a legitimate use of the contingent fund of an Odd Fellows or Rebekah Lodge or Encampment, to vote money from such contingent fund as a donation to the Red Cross.

Decision No. 37 (Journal 1917, Page 247—Kansas).

War Legislation, Honors of Office.—That portion of the War Legislation enacted in 1917 (p. 257, 3d), providing that officers of the Order "shall be excused for failure to attend any meeting when such failure is due to their service in the military or naval forces," does not authorize the giving of the honors of office to a member in the military or naval service who has not been regularly installed in his office.

Decision No. 38 (S. G. L. Code 159—Kansas).

Transfer Certificates.—The Transfer Certificate Law (Code 159, Journal 1913, pp. 830 to 838) does not apply to the case of a member who desires to withdraw from one lodge or Encampment and to join another lodge or Encampment, unless such member changes his place of residence, as provided therein.

Decision No. 39 (S. G. L. Code 490—Kansas).

Membership in Encampment, Location of Lodge.—The general law of the Order provides that a candidate must apply for admission to the lodge or encampment nearest his place of residence, unless the Grand Jurisdiction has otherwise provided.

The location of the lodge to which a Brother belongs when such Brother desires to join an Encampment is no importance. The question is not the location of the lodge, but the place of residence of the Brother.

Decision No. 40 (Journal 1917, Page 247—Massachusetts).

War Legislation, Benefits, How Long to Be Paid by Grand Lodge.—A member of the Order, engaged in the military or naval service, who is taken sick, and by reason of such illness discharged from such service, but who still remains sick, as sickness is defined by the laws of our Order, should be paid benefits until the end of such sickness; and, in case a Grand Lodge has assessed its members for the purpose of establishing a fund for the payment of benefits to soldier and sailor members, such benefits should be charged against said fund.

Decision No. 42 (S. G. L. Code 408—Kentucky).

Grand Master Elect, Installation if in Military Service.—A Grand Master elect, who is absent from the session of his Grand Lodge, by reason of being engaged in the military or naval service, may, if the Grand Lodge so directs, be installed into his office, wherever he may be, by any qualified member of his Grand Lodge.

DECISION No. 43 (S. G. L. CODE 319—ARKANSAS).

CONTINGENT FUND OF REBEKAH LODGES, FIVE PER CENT ONLY.—Section 319 of The Sovereign Grand Lodge Code gives to Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments power to authorize their subordinates to set aside not exceeding ten per cent of their income from all sources as a contingent fund.

In 1917, page 250, this section was amended by the insertion, after the word "subordinates" in line 3, of the words, "and Grand Lodges shall have power to authorize Rebekah Assemblies."

As amended, the power to establish contingent funds is now vested in Subordinate lodges, Subordinate Encampments and Rebekah Assemblies, when authority for such fund has been specifically granted by their Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments, respectively.

The law providing for the establishment of contingent funds was enacted in 1890 (p. 12232). This contingent fund was originally established at five per cent of the receipts for dues.

In 1891 (pp. 12610 and 12651) this law was amended so as to include Rebekah lodges.

As the law now stands with relation to Rebekah lodges, the Grand Lodges have power to authorize Rebekah lodges "to set aside five per cent of their receipts for dues as a contingent fund."

Rebekah lodges are not authorized to establish the above contingent funds unless specific authority for that purpose has been granted by the Grand Lodge having jurisdiction. The granting of authority to Subordinate lodges to establish contingent funds does not authorize the establishment of such contingent funds by Rebekah lodges.

DECISION No. 44 (S. G. L. CODE 315—WISCONSIN).

FUNDS, ENTERTAINMENT FUNDS.—Whenever "Sunshine Funds" or "Entertainment Funds" or any other funds of like character are established by Subordinate or Rebekah lodges or Encampments, whether such funds are established from voluntary contributions, from receipts from entertainments, or in whatever similar manner, such funds should always be under the control of the lodge, but all such funds may be administered as the lodge may direct unless the by-law establishing such fund has limited the expenditure to specific purposes, in which case, of course, the expenditure must be in accordance with the by-law.

DECISION No. 45 (S. G. L. CODE 85, 166, 170—NORTH CAROLINA).

WITHDRAWAL CARDS ISSUED BY GRAND BODIES.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge Code (Sec. 166) fixes the price of the Dismissal Certificate at one dollar.

In Sec. 85 it provides that Grand Bodies may prescribe the fee that shall be charged for a Withdrawal Card.

Sec. 170 provides for the issuance by Grand Bodies of Withdrawal Cards under certain circumstances to members of defunct lodges.

Under these circumstances, Grand Lodges have the power to prescribe the fee that shall be charged for Withdrawal Card when such card is issued to a member of a defunct lodge.

DECISION NO. 46 (REBEKAH CODE 7 AND 16—MINNESOTA).

DISTRICT ASSOCIATIONS OF REBEKAH LODGES.—Decision No. 27, to be found on page 27 of The Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal of 1917, was regularly approved by The Sovereign Grand Lodge and is the law of the Order.

DECISION NO. 47 (REBEKAH CODE 7 AND 16—MINNESOTA).

DISTRICT ASSOCIATIONS, POWERS OF.—The passwords of the Rebekah lodge must not be given to, or be taken up by, the President of a Rebekah District Association meeting.

DECISION NO. 48 (REBEKAH CODE 7 AND 16—MINNESOTA).

DISTRICT ASSOCIATIONS, OPENING MEETINGS.—The President of a Rebekah District Association has no right to open such meeting using the passwords and signs, as in a Rebekah lodge.

DECISION NO. 49 (REBEKAH CODE 7 AND 16—MINNESOTA).

DISTRICT ASSOCIATIONS, INSTALLATION CEREMONY FORM.—A Rebekah District Association has no right to provide an installation ceremony for the installation of the officers of such association.

DECISION NO. 50 (REBEKAH CODE 7 AND 16—MINNESOTA).

DISTRICT ASSOCIATIONS, ENCOURAGEMENT OF, POWERS OF.—It is the policy of the Order to encourage the organization and work of District Associations of Rebekah lodges for the purpose of studying the law of the Order, and especially the secret work and the exemplification of the Rebekah Degree.

The secret work of the Order and the exemplification of the Rebekah Degree, whenever given at such District Association meetings, must be given by and under the control of the local Rebekah lodge at regular or special meetings thereof.

The District Association, itself, has no right to exemplify the Rebekah Degree, to take up the passwords, or to discuss the secret work.

DECISION NO. 51 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—MASSACHUSETT).

WAR LEGISLATION, PERSONS IN MILITARY SERVICE.—The personnel of the military and naval forces of the United States is defined by Section

101, Act of Congress, known as the Soldiers and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, approved March 8, 1918, as follows:

"Section 101. That the term, "persons in military service," as used in this act, shall include the following persons and no others: All officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army, the Regular Army Reserve, the Officers' Reserve Corps, and the Enlisted Reserve Corps; all officers and enlisted men of the National Guard and National Guard Reserve recognized by the Militia Bureau of the War Department; all forces raised under the Act entitled 'An Act to authorize the President to increase temporarily the Military Establishment of the United States,' approved May eighteenth, nineteen hundred and seventeen; all officers and enlisted men of the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Coast Guard; all officers and enlisted men of the Naval Militia, Naval Reserve Force, Marine Corps Reserve, and National Naval Volunteers recognized by the Navy Department; all officers of the Public Health Service detailed by the Secretary of the Treasury for duty either with the Army or the Navy; any of the personnel of the Lighthouse Service and of the Coast and Geodetic Survey transferred by the President to the service and jurisdiction of the War Department or of the Navy Department; members of the Nurse Corps; Army field clerks; field clerks, Quartermaster Corps; civilian clerks and employees on duty with the military forces detained for service abroad in accordance with provisions of existing law; and members of any other body who have heretofore or may hereafter become a part of the military or naval forces of the United States. The term, 'military service,' as used in this definition, shall signify active service in any branch of service heretofore mentioned or referred to, but reserves and persons on the retired list shall not be included in the term, "persons in military service,' until ordered to active service. The term, 'active service,' shall include the period during which a person in military service is absent from duty on account of sickness, wounds, leave, or other lawful cause."

Decision No. 52 (S. G. L. Code 926—West Virginia).

Penal Offenses, Desertion.—Desertion from the naval or military forces is sufficient ground for the filing of charges against a member of the Order, and for his expulsion from the Order.

Decision No. 53 (S. G. L. Code 289—Colorado).

Special Assessments, How Charged and Collected.—When a lodge provides for the levying of a special assessment, the law requires that such assessment shall be charged and collected "as dues." If a member of such lodge fails to pay such assessment, but has paid his dues in advance so that the amount of money paid by him "as dues" is greater than the amount of accrued dues and assessments, such Brother is not in arrears. (Code 289.)

The assessment having been charged "as dues," and the Brother having paid a sufficient amount "as dues" to meet both "dues" and "assessments," it follows that the amount of dues paid by the Brother and which was paid by him for the purpose of keeping himself in good standing, should be applied to the payment of both dues and assessments.

DECISION No. 54 (S. G. L. CODE 475—ARIZONA).

MEMBERSHIP, ELIGIBILITY OF PERSONS PHYSICALLY DISABLED.—The question of admission to membership in the Order of persons who are physically disabled by the loss of a limb was settled in 1868 (pp. 4384 and 4417) by the adoption of a very full report and discussion of the subject by the Committee on State of the Order. The resolution adopted at that time, and which now governs the subject, is as follows:

"The question of eligibility to membership in the Order by initiation of persons who have lost a limb is hereby remitted to the jurisdiction and disposal of the Subordinate lodge to which admission is asked."

DECISION No. 55 (JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—MICHIGAN).

WAR LEGISLATION, REMISSION OF DUES NOT LEGAL.—Article 22 of the Code, adopted in 1917 (Journal, p. 247), does not authorize a Grand Encampment to provide that its subordinate Encampments may remit the dues of members engaged in the military service of their country. The provisions of Article 22 must be followed.

DECISION No. 56 (S. G. L. CODE 109, 121, 124, 500—IOWA).

REBEKAH LODGE, NON-CONTRIBUTING MEMBER, VISITING CARD FOR.—The low provides (Journal 1913, pp. 427-444) that a member of a Rebekah lodge who has become sixty years of age, and has been a contributing member for twenty-five consecutive years, may not be dropped for non-payment of dues but must be retained as a non-contributing member.

Such a member is "entitled to the passwords and fellowship of lodges and shall have all the privileges of active members."

Such a member may be granted a visiting card, as provided for in the Code, Sections 109, 121, 124.

DECISION No. 57 (S. G. L. CODE 356, 369, 373, 391—COLORADO).

PER CAPITA TAX OF LODGES.—The question as to whether or not a lodge instituted in June should be required to pay per capita tax for the full term of six months is a matter to be determined by local legislation of the Grand Body.

DECISION No. 59 (S. G. L. CODE 551—INDIANA).

RE-INSTATEMENT, SIGNING OF CONSTITUTION.—When a member is reinstated in a lodge, it is not necessary or proper that such member should again sign the constitution unless the local law so provides (Code 551).

Robt. E. Henry.

Grand Chaplain,

Decatur.

DECISION No. 60 (S. G. L. CODE 788—INDIANA).

AS TO REGULAR MEETINGS ON HOLIDAYS.—When the regular meeting night of a lodge falls on the date of any national or other legally established and generally recognized holiday, according to the laws or customs of the state or country where such Lodge is held, it shall be lawful for such lodge to omit such meeting.

DECISION No. 61 (S. G. L. CODE 882—SOUTH DAKOTA.)

HONORS OF OFFICE FOR SOLDIER OFFICERS IN SUBORDINATE LODGE.—The war legislation of 1917 (p. 247) provides that an officer of a lodge or Encampment will not forfeit the honors of his office because of his enforced absence in the military service.

If, therefore, an officer who has been installed into office is required to be absent in performance of his military duties, the proper course for the lodge to pursue is to let that fact appear upon the minutes, and show that the Brother is excused from attendance by reason of his absence in the military service.

If such officer be the Noble Grand of the lodge, the Vive-Grand will thereafter fill the chair, as in other cases of absence of the Noble Grand. It would not be proper for the lodge to elect another member as Noble Grand.

DECISION No. 62 (WAR LEGISLATION—VERMONT).

BACK DUES OF SOLDIER MEMBER.—The war legislation of 1917 (p. 247) provides that "No member of the Order, while hereafter serving in the military or naval forces, shall be suspended for non-payment of dues or lose any right or privilege which he now has."

Under this law a member automatically holds the same status in the Order which he had at the time of his entry into the military service. If he was beneficial at that time he remains beneficial during his term of military service. If he was in arrears to such an extent as to be non-beneficial he must remain non-beneficial, unless he restores himself to beneficial membership, in the same manner as though he had not entered the military service. At any rate, his dues prior to the date of his entry into such military service and for the period elapsing between his entry into the military service and September 21, 1917, the date when such war legislation became effective, must be paid by the Brother, himself, or by some one for him, but not in any event by the lodge or by authority of the war legislation of 1917.

DECISION No. 64 (WAR LEGISLATION—SASKATCHEWAN).

DUES OF DISCHARGED SOLDIER.—The war legislation of 1917, as finally adopted (Journal, p. 247), in paragraph 5th omits the words: "and for thirty days after members shall be discharged from the military and naval service."

Therefore, when a soldier is discharged from the military or naval service, and the Grand Lodge has been paying his dues from a special fund raised for that purpose, the liability of the Grand Lodge ceases upon his discharge.

DECISION No. 65 (SASKATCHEWAN).

CONSTITUTION OF GRAND LODGE CANNOT BE CHANGED BY RESOLUTION.—The Constitution of a Grand Lodge provides that "The Advisory Board shall appoint standing committees immediately after the session of the Grand Lodge."

The Grand Lodge cannot, by the adoption of a resolution, direct the Advisory Board as to who shall or shall not be appointed on such committees. Any such direction must be made by amendment to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge.

DECISION No. 66 (S. G. L. CODE 319—CANAL ZONE).

CONTINGENT FUND.—Interest received by a lodge from its investments is a part of the income of the lodge, and, under Section 319 of the Code authorizing lodges "to set aside not exceeding ten per cent of their income from all sources as a contingent fund," not more than ten per cent of such interest can be applied to the contingent fund.

DECISION No. 67 (S. G. L. CODE 466-470—INDIANA).

ELIGIBILITY TO ODD FELLOWS HOME.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge has left the matter of fixing qualifications for admission to Homes maintained by the Order to the Grand Jurisdictions.

If the law of the Grand Jurisdiction provides that the widow of a member is not eligible for admission to a Home unless her husband was beneficial at the time of his death, that rule is binding upon the widow.

If the widow belongs to a Rebekah Lodge in one Jurisdiction, and the husband belonged to a Subordinate lodge in another Jurisdiction, the question of the widow's admission to one or the other of these Homes depends entirely upon their local law. She cannot be refused admission to the Home in the Grand Jurisdiction to which her husband belonged solely because she belongs to a Rebekah Lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction, but, if she is not eligible under the law of the Grand Lodge to which her husband belonged, they are not compelled to admit her because of the fact that she belongs to a Rebekah Lodge in another Grand Jurisdiction. The law in each Jurisdiction must be applied, regardless of the fact that the husband and wife belonged in different Grand Jurisdictions.

DECISION No. 68 (S. G. L. CODE 500—CALIFORNIA).

VETERAN CHEVALIER CANNOT BE D. N. P.—A Chevalier who has been in good standing in his canton for twenty-five (25) consecutive years, and who is sixty (60) years of age, cannot be dropped for non-payment of dues. (See Resolution No. 39, Paragraph 6th, Journal 1915, pp. 251-255, and Code, Section 500.)

DECISION No. 69 (S. G. L. CODE 1, 3, 6—IOWA).

PAYMENT OF SICK BENEFITS.—The Constitution for Subordinate Lodges of a Grand Lodge, adopted in October, 1917, provides: "Every member.....shall receive.....but which benefits shall not be less than two dollars a week for the first year."

The by-laws of a Subordinate Lodge in the above Jurisdiction provide: "Every member.....shall receive..... and one dollar per week thereafter during the continuance of the illness."

A member of the said Subordinate Lodge, who has already been paid fifty-two weeks' sick benefits, is still entitled to draw benefits at the rate of one dollar per week.

DECISION No. 70 (S. G. L. CODE 1, 3, 6—IOWA).

PAYMENT OF SICK BENEFITS.—The amendments to Sections 1, 3, and 6 of The Sovereign Grand Lodge Code (Journal, 1917, p. 249) are permissive in their character.

These amendments give to Grand Lodges the power of "abolishing weekly benefits after the payment of fifty-two weeks' benefits, or authorizing the Subordinates of such Grand Bodies to abolish weekly benefits after the payment of fifty-two weeks' benefits."

After the adoption of the above amendments a Grand Lodge adopted a Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, providing: "but which benefits shall not be less than two dollars a week for the first year." Under the above Constitution it is optional with a Subordinate Lodge to pay or not to pay benefits after the payment of fifty-two weeks' benefits.

A by-law of a Subordinate Lodge, adopted prior to the adoption of the above Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, and providing for the payment of one dollar per week after the payment of fifty-two weeks' benefits, remains in force.

DECISION No. 72—OKLAHOMA.

WAR LEGISLATION, NOBLE GRAND, HONORS OF OFFICE.—Under the war legislation of 1917, where a Noble Grand enters the military or naval service, the records of the lodge should show that hei s thereby excused from further attendance, and in the interim the Vice-Grand will perform the duties of the Noble Grand as in any other case of the absence of the Noble Grand.

The law does not authorize the election of a Noble Grand until the term of office of the soldier member has expired.

DUES OF REBEKAH MEMBERS IN MILITARY SERVICE.—Members of a Rebekah Lodge who are in the military service are not exempt from paying dues. If they do not pay dues they cannot be D. N. P., and in that case the dues will be charged against them, and will stand after the war as unpaid dues unless further legislation be enacted in relation to the subject. The Rebekah Lodge of which such persons are members must pay per capita taxes to the Rebekah Assembly pending further legislation on the subject.

DECISION No. 10 (S. G. L. CODE 2, 6—KENTUCKY).

BENEFITS, LEGISLATION OF 1917.—When a Grand Lodge has adopted legislation permitting its Subordinate Lodges to limit the benefits paid by such Subordinate Lodges to 52 weeks in accordance with the legislation of The Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1917, page 249, and a Subordinate Lodge changes its by-laws so as to limit the payment of benefits to 52 weeks, such legislation will apply to Brothers who were on the sick list at the time of the adoption of such By-Laws, and if they have received benefits for 52 consecutive weeks their right to further benefits will immediately cease.

Report 49. By Rep. Connick of California, from the same Committee.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, report that we have carefully considered Decision No. 10, page 31, of the Grand Sire's Report.

To avoid any confusion which may possibly hereafter arise from a misunderstanding or misinterpretation of this decision and to make the same clearly conform to the evident intent of the Grand Sire, we are of the opinion that such decision should be modified to read as follows:

When a Grand Lodge has adopted legislation permitting its Subordinate Lodges to limit the benefits paid by such Subordinate Lodges to 52 weeks in accordance with the legislation of The Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1917, page 249, and a Subordinate Lodge changes its By-Laws so as to limit the payment of benefits to 52 weeks, such legislation will apply to Brothers who were on the sick list at the time of the adoption of such By-Laws, and, if they have received benefits for 52 weeks for the same sickness, their right to further benefits will immediately cease.

We recommend that Decision 10 be modified as above stated and, as so modified, approved.

Signed by the Committee.

DECISION No. 11 (S. G. L. CODE 538, JOURNAL 1917, PAGE 247—ILLINOIS).

WAR LEGISLATION, NOTICE TO SOLDIER MEMBERS BEFORE D. N. P.—When a member joined the military or naval forces of the United States or of one of the Allies of the United States before the adoption of Article 22 of The Sovereign Grand Lodge Code (Journal 1917, p. 247) he cannot be dropped for non-payment of dues without being notified in accordance with the law that such action is about to be taken. The fact that the Secretary does not know his address will not justify such member being dropped for non-payment of dues, unless legal notice has been given. (Code 539, 540.)

If the name of the member has been dropped under the above circumstances, i. e., without legal notice, it must be replaced on the rolls at any time thereafter upon application of such member, and the payment of accrued dues and assessments. After being restored to good standing as above, he is thereafter entitled to all the rights and privileges accorded by law to any other soldier member.

Report 25. By Rep. Hoagland of Nebraska, from the Committee on the Judiciary:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, have had under consideration Decision No. 11 and recommend that the same be revised to read as follows:

Decision No. 11 (S. G. L. Cole 538, Journal 1917, 247—Illinois.)
War Legislation. Notice to soldier members before D. N. P.

Statement. A lodge attempted to drop a member after having joined the military forces of one of the Allies of the United States, for non-payment of dues, prior to the adoption of Article 22 of The Sovereign Grand Lodge Code (Journal 1917, page 247). There was no attempted service of notice in accordance with the local law. The Secretary did not know his address.

Held. That action of the lodge was void. The fact that the Secretary did not know the address and that the member was "somewhere in France" did not excuse the failure to give the notice required by the law. Since the adoption of Section 22 of The Sovereign Grand Lodge Code (1917 Journal, page 247) the member cannot be dropped during this war, and the member's name must be replaced on the rolls of the lodge and retain the same standing therein as if no action had been attemtped by the lodge to drop him. If the member should be restored to good standing he is thereafter entitled to all the rights and privileges accorded by law to any other soldier member.

Signed by the Committee.

DECISION NO. 22 (S. G. L. CODE 90—MINNESOTA).

WITHDRAWAL CARD, DEPOSIT OF.—A Brother holding an expired withdrawal card cannot be reinstated in his home lodge, but if he rejoins his home lodge he must do so by deposit of withdrawal card the same as he would join any other lodge.

Report 14. By Rep. Mohr of Pennsylvania, from the Committee on Judiciary:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, beg to report that we have carefully considered Decision No. 22 and would recommend that the same be revised so as to read as follows:

"Withdrawal Card, Deposit of.—A Brother holding an expired withdrawal card cannot regain membership in the lodge granting the same by reinstatement, but shall be permitted to apply for membership by deposit of such card at the place of his residence upon such terms and the payment of such fee as the laws may require." (S. G. L. Code 96 and 97.)

Signed by the Committee.

DECISION NO. 24 (S. G. L. CODE 315—MAINE).

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.—An entertainment fund raised entirely by voluntary contribution or entertainment given for that purpose may be expended without restriction. If the lodge surrenders its charter, this money should be turned over with the other funds of the lodge.

Report 15. By Rep. Christensen, of Utah, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, respectfully report that we have carefully examined Decision 24 and recommend that the same be approved with the following amendment:

Add after the words, "restrictions," the words, "except as limited by Sec. 316 of the Code," so that the decision, when amended, will read as follows:

"An entertainment fund, raised entirely by vountarily contribution or entertainment given for that purpose, may be expended without restriction except as limited by Sec. 316 of the Code. If the lodge surrenders its charter, this money should be turned over with the other funds of the lodge."

Signed by the Committee.

Decision No. 30 (S. G. L. Code 710—Canal Zone).

District Deputy Grand Sire, Expenses.—A District Deputy Grand Sire is not entitled to the payment of his expenses from a Subordinate lodge within his Jurisdiction for official visits to such Subordinate lodge, unless the invitation or request for his official visit carries with it the offer of payment of such expenses. He is not entitled to expenses for official visits from The Sovereign Grand Lodge, unless he first receives from the Grand Sire authority for the making of such visits coupled with a statement that such expenses will be paid by The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Report 16. By Rep. Mohr, of Pennsylvania, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, beg to report that, after giving careful attention to Decision No. 30, would recommend that the same be revised so as to conform to the General Code of Laws 709 and 710, so as to read as follows:

"District Deputy Grand Sire, Expenses.—The necessary expenses incurred by a District Deputy Grand Sire in the performance of his official duties, or in carrying out the directions of the Grand Sire or Grand Secretary, shall be paid by The Sovereign Grand Lodge. However, all charges for traveling expenses must be paid by a Subordinate lodge whenever he is invited by such lodge to visit it for some legitimate purpose."

Signed by the Committee.

Decision No. 41 (S. G. L. Code 401—Kentucky).

Grand Master, Eligibility.—Any Past Grand is eligible to election as Grand Master. It is not necessary that he first pass through the office of Grand Warden or Deputy Grand Master.

Report 17. By Rep. Pardee, of Arkansas, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, beg to report that we have carefully considered Decision No. 41 and are of the opinion that the phraseology of same should be changed.

We, therefore, recommend the following:

"Decision No. 41 (S. G. L. Code 400—Kentucky). A Past Grand in good standing in his own lodge, who is a member of, and resides within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, is eligible to election as Grand Sire without previous service in any other Grand Office."

Signed by the Committee.

DECISION No. 63 (S. G. L. CODE 373—WASHINGTON).

GERMAN LANGUAGE IN LODGES:—POWER OF GRAND LODGES.—Section 373 of the Code provides:

"Grand Lodges shall have authority at their discretion to grant charters to Subordinate lodges within their respective Jurisdictions."

The Sovereign Grand Lodge has from time to time authorized a translation of the ritual into the German and other foreign languages but has not adopted any legislation respecting the chartering of lodges to work in such languages. Therefore, under the general powers of Grand Lodges, they have authority to grant charters to work in foreign languages.

The issuing of a charter to a subordinate lodge to do its work in a foreign language does not confer upon such lodge any vested right to the use of such language, and the authority to work in such foreign language may be revoked at the discretion of the Grand Lodge.

Report 26. By Rep. Trautmann, of New York, from the same committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of The Grand Sire, beg to report that we have carefully considered Decision No. 63 and find that authority to a Subordinate body to work and transact its business in a foreign language is not conferred by charter. Such authority emanates from Grand Bodies, and is only a permission to do so.

Your committee is of the opinion that the decision should be revised to read as follows:

Decision No. 63. "German Lodges—Power of Grand Lodges—Section 373 of the Code provides:

"Grand Lodges shall have authority at their discretion to grant charters to Subordinate lodges within ther respective jurisdictions."

The Sovereign Grand Lodge has from time to time authorized a translation of the ritual into the German and other foreign languages, but has not adopted any legislation respecting the chartering of lodges to work in such languages. Therefore, under the general powers of Grand Lodges, they have authority to grant permission to their Subordinates to work and transact business in foreign languages.

The granting of permission to a Subordinate to do its work in a foreign language does not confer upon such Subordinate any vested right to the use of such language, and the authority to work in such language may be revoked at the discretion of the Grand Lodge.

LIBRARY
OF THE

DECISION No. 71 (S. G. L. CODE 3—MISSOURI).

BENEFITS, AFTER 52 WEEKS' PAYMENT.—In 1917 (Journal, p. 249) Section 3 of the Code was amended to read as follows:

"The benefits paid by Subordinate lodges shall not be less than two dollars per week until the Brother shall have received fifty-two weeks' benefits * * *"

The question has been submitted:

(1) "Does the expression, 'fifty-two weeks' benefits,' mean fifty-two weeks consecutively or fifty-two weeks in the aggregate?"

(2) "When the Brother has drawn fifty-two weeks in the aggregate, is he barred from further benefits?"

Answering the last question first, I would say that the above section, as amended, is not a bar to the payment of benefits and is no limitation upon the payment of benefits in relation to time after the expiration of fifty-two weeks, or in relation to amount above the sum of two dollars per week.

The only effect of this law is to make it necessary that Subordinate lodges shall pay benefits in an amount not less than two dollars per week for a period of not less than fifty-two weeks.

Answering the first question, I would say that, in the absence of explanatory or limiting legislation by the Grand Lodge or in the By-Laws of the Subordinate lodge, the Subordinate lodge must pay fifty-two weeks' benefits for a sickness, whether such benefits be paid consecutively or at different times for the same sickness.

If a Brother has received fifty-two weeks' benefits for one sickness, and is afterwards taken with another sickness, he will then be entitled to benefits.

A Grand Lodge, or a Subordinate lodge if such legislation be not in opposition to the law of its Grand Lodge, has the right under Section 3, as amended, to limit the benefits to be paid to a Brother to an amount not less than two dollars per week and to a period of fifty-two weeks, whether such payments for a period of fifty-two weeks be for one sickness or more, and whether they be paid consecutively or at different times.

Report 47. By Rep. Rinehart, of Florida, from the Committee on the Judiciary:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred decision 71 of the Grand Sire, beg to report that we are of the opinion that the answers to the two questions propounded should be as follows:

1. The expression, "fifty-two weeks' benefit," means fifty-two weeks' benefit for one sickness.

2. No. If the Brother should be again afflicted by a sickness distinct from the one for which he had received the fifty-two weeks' benefit, he would be entitled to benefits the same as though he had never before received benefits; provided, his standing was such as to entitle him to benefits under the local law.

Signed by the Committee.

The following decisions of the Grand Sire were disapproved and reversed:

Decision No. 3 (S. G. L. Code 159—North Carolina).

Transfer Certificates.—In 1914 The Sovereign Grand Lodge in legislating upon the subject of Transfer Certificates enacted the following legislation (1914 Journal, pp. 830 and 838).

"The issuing of a Transfer Certificate shall sever membership in the lodge or Encampment issuing it; provided, that, if a member becomes sick or disabled, or shall die before the date to which his dues are paid and before completing his membership by signing the Constitution of his new lodge or Encampment, then said transfer ceritficate of his new lodge or Encampment shall be cancelled and returned to the lodge or Encampment issuing the same and said member shall retain his beneficial standing in his old lodge or Encampment, the same as though the transfer certificate had not been issued.

"If the member fails to sign the Constitution of the new lodge or Encampment within three months after the date of his election, the transfer certificate shall be canceled and returned to the lodge or Encampment issuing the same and the member shall hold the same standing in his old lodge or Encampment as though the transfer certificate had not been issued."

"Provided, That the foregoing shall not extend to or affect the Quasi-Independent Grand Jurisdictions."

This legislation was not carried forward into the Code (Section 159) nor was it repealed thereby. The clauses stated above are therefore still the law of the Order. (Journal 1916, p. 479.)

Report 11. By Rep. Rinehart, of Florida, from the Committee on the Judiciary:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, beg to report that we have given careful consideration to decision numbered 3 and are of the opinion that it should be reversed. The transfer law as enacted in 1914 was carried into the Code in a modified form and Section 160 of the Code provides that the issuing of a transfer certificate severs membership from the body issuing it, except in certain conditions named in that Section. Section 533 further provides that membership in the body granting the transfer certificate is not severed until the certificate is received and deposited and the Constitution signed. It thus appears that the provisions of the Code completely cover the whole subject. If the holder of the certificate becomes sick or disabled so as to be entitled to benefits during the period covered by the advanced payment of dues to the body granting the certificate, the certificate is ipso facto canceled; but if no such sickness or disability intervenes the right to complete membership in the new body by depositing the certificate and signing the Constitution continues without limit as to time.

The standing of the holder of such certificate after the expiration of the period covered by the advanced payment of dues is the same as a non-beneficial member of the body granting the certificate, and he can become a beneficial member in the new body only by completing his membership therein and in accordance with its laws.

We therefore recommend for adoption the following: Resolved, That decision of the Grand Sire numbered 3 be and the same is hereby disapproved and reversed.

DECISION No. 9 (S. G. L. CODE 484—MASSACHUSETTS).

RESIDENCE OF SOLDIER.—In 1882 (S. G. L. J. 1882, pp. 9026 and 9102) The Sovereign Grand Lodge adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That persons in the military service of the United States, who have been stationed continuously at one post for the space of six months or more, may make application for membership in our Order, provided they apply to the nearest lodge, or otherwise comply with the laws of the Jurisdiction in which the application is made."

This resolution has never been repealed and constitutes the law under which soldiers in training camps may be admitted to the Order. (See Circular Letter No. 8.)

Report 48. By Rep. Rinehart, of Florida, from the same Committee:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, beg to report that we have had under consideration decision numbered 9, and that we cannot concur with the Grand Sire in his conclusions. We are of the opinion that the resolution quoted from the Journal of 1882 had reference to regular army posts in time of peace and was intended to apply to those cases where men were enlisted in the army and stationed at regular army posts and had no claim to a domicile or residence, distinct from his domicile or residence at the post where he was stationed. In the codification of the law, it will be noted that this enactment is carried in as an annotation to Section 489 of the Code. The general law does not undertake to fix the time required for residence as a pre-requisite to a membership. This is left to the Grand Jurisdiction, but a general law does prescribe that an applicant must make application to a lodge nearest his residence and we think it self-evident that soldiers stationed at training camps cannot be said to have their residence or domicile at such training camps. We therefore offer for adoption the following:

Resolved: That decision of the Grand Sire, numbered 9, be, and the same is, hereby disapproved and reversed.

Signed by the Committee.

PAST GRAND SIRE C. A. KELLER.

During the past year the Sovereign Grand Lodge has lost one of its Past Grand Sires and, in view of the fact that Brother Keller was a native of our own state, and a Past Grand Master, we deem it fitting as a token to his memory that we record the beautiful memorial presented by Past Grand Sire Pinkerton of Massachusetts:

" 'Friend after friend departs.' Each year marks the passing away of some we have loved and esteemed. Every Memorial Proclamation of the Grand Sire records the death of some with whom we have been associated in the Sovereign Grand Lodge. And today we mourn the loss of one who was with us last session in apparently full physical and mental vigor, but whose chair is vacant now—our honored Past Grand Sire C. A. Keller. To many of the younger representatives here he may have been known only by name. But to those who have met him year after year there comes a sense of personal loss; for he was "best loved by those who knew him best."

"Bro. Keller was born in Mount Vernon, Illinois, on November 24, 1851. His early education was received in McKendree College, Lebanon, Illinois, and his legal training in Ann Arbor University, Michigan, from whence he graduated and was called to the bar in 1873. In that year he married Miss Nellie F. Raymond, of Lebanon, Illinois. After her death he married Miss Essie F. Haynes, of San Antonio, Texas.

"He began the practice of his profession in his home town, Mount Vernon, and three years later was elected judge of a court having common law and probate jurisdiction. In 1885, on account of the ill health of Mrs. Keller, he removed to San Antonio, Texas, where he resided until his death on February 21, 1918.

"He was made an Odd Fellow in Marion Lodge, No. 13, Illinois, on May 13, 1875, and soon after became a member of Jefferson Encampment No. 91. He soon passed through the chairs in both his lodge and Encampment; and in 1878 entered the Grand Lodge of Illinois. Here his advancement was rapid. In 1879, Grand Marshal; in 1880, Grand Warden; in 1881, Deputy Grand Master; in 1882, installed Grand Master. In 1884 he declined the nomination for Grand Representative; but in the following year was elected to the position. His removal to San Antonio in 1885, however, prevented his serving at that time.

"In Texas be became at once as active an Odd Fellow as he had been in Illinois; and in 1888 we find him a member of the Grand Lodge, and in 1892 he was sent to the S. G. L. Here he served his jurisdiction—with a brief interval—until his election as Deputy Grand Sire in 1912. From his first entrance into this body he took a prominent place. His professional training especially fitted him for the position he held on the Committee on Appeals; while on all questions that came up for consideration he was able to reach a definite conclusion quickly, and defend it with eloquent speech.

"On his election to the office of Grand Sire in 1914, he entered energetically upon the work devolving upon him, and bravely bore the burden of responsibility which rests on every Grand Sire. He concerned himself with the minutest details of his office, assumed at times cares that he might have avoided, and bore with dignity the unjustifiable criticism of recalcitrant members of the Order whose conduct evoked his censure.

"An amiable as well as able man—of kindly disposition and genial manner—a splendid Odd Fellow and a sincere Christian—our departed Brother has left behind him the frangrant memory of long years well spent—of work well done—bearing with him through the vicissitudes of his earthly pilgrimage 'the white flower of a blameless life.'"

The Representatives from Illinois received the following committee appointments:

Past Grand Sire E. S. Conway on Special Committee on the One Hundredth Anniversary and on Memorials.

Arnold—Committee on Finance.

Davis—Committee on Legislation.

Horn—Committee on Patriarchal Branch.

Watson—Committee on Credentials.

THE NEXT PLACE OF MEETING.

Baltimore was selected as the meeting place for the next annual session. It was the intention to hold a Centennial Celebration at that time but it was decided that only a business session would be held. In the event that conditions should change so that it would be permissible to celebrate the One Hundredth Anniversary of our Order, in a manner befitting the occasion, with more extended public functions, then suitable arrangements will be made and the Order duly notified.

SICK BENEFITS.

Your Representatives offered two bills, namely, Bill 30 and Bill 31, to amend certain sections of the Code of 1915 permitting Grand Lodges by appropriate legislation to suspend benefits or authorize its subordinates to suspend them. Grand Master Blood appeared before the Committee on Legislation and presented a very able argument for the adoption of these amendments. The object and purpose of this legislation is to assist those lodges which have become financially embarrassed as this would enable them to avail themselves of this legislation whereby they could suspend benefits until such time as they would be financially able to meet their obligations. The Committee on Legislation considered the subject-matter of such vital importance that they recommend that the consideration of these amendments be postponed until the next session and that a special committee be appointed to report on the subject. The following committee was appointed:

Representatives Thompson of Michigan, Merrill of Maine, Billstein of Maryland.

The following were present from our own Jurisdiction:
John A. Lucas, Grand Chaplain, S. G. L.
H. M. Blood, Grand Master.
John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary.
F. B. Merrills, Past Grand Master.
Owen Scott, Past Grand Master.
Walter North, Grand Patriarch.
O. C. Forsman, Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Encampment.
Gen. Joseph Fairhall, Commander Patriarchs Militant.
Irene W. Cooper, President Rebekah State Assembly.
M. H. Spier, Editor P. M. Monthly.

Ladies in attendance were: Mesdames John H. Sikes, Grace Henry, J. A. Lucas, Myrtle W. Tandy, Cora N. Phillips, Joseph Fairhall, Lina D. Carlin, M. B. Horn, Lottie Scherrer, Ruth Chamberlain, Alice M. Trees, Ellen O. Johnson, Clara Lowe; Misses Tina Peterson, Mabel Asp, Rose Horn.

We understand that there were others present whose names we were unable to obtain.

GRAND CHAPLAIN.

It should be a pleasure to all the members of our Jurisdiction to know that Doctor J. A. Lucas was appointed Grand Chaplain by Grand Sire Borst.

NEW OFFICERS.

The following are the elective officers for the ensuing two years.
Grand Sire—Henry V. Borst, of New York.
Deputy Grand Sire—Joseph Oliver, of Ontario.
Grand Secretary—John B. Goodwin, of Maryland.
Grand Treasurer—William H. Cox, of Kentucky.

The following are the appointive officers:
Grand Chaplain—Doctor J. A. Lucas, of Illinois.
Grand Marshal—William C. Collett, of Massachusetts.
Grand Guardian—George W. Titus, of Kansas.
Grand Messenger—E. A. Bussing, of New Jersey.
General Commanding the Patriarchs Militant—General W. C. Guerney, of New York.

BIENNIAL SESSIONS.

The constitutional amendment providing for biennial sessions after the year 1922 was defeated. Yeas, 95; nays, 108.

EIGHTEEN-YEAR-OLD PROPOSITION.

The constitutional amendment providing for the admission of members at the age of eighteen instead of the age of twenty-one was lost. Yeas, 98; nays, 103.

WAR RELIEF.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge appropriated and made immediately available for war relief purposes the sum of $75,000. The Sovereign Grand Lodge also permitted all branches of the Order to make appeals to its members for voluntary contributions.

ST. LOUIS.

On account of the war there was no parade and there were no contests by the Degree Staff. It was purely a business session. St. Louis deserves great credit for the manner in which they looked after the welfare and comfort of the Representatives and visitors.

On Tuesday night a most delightful banquet was served at the Planters Hotel at which there were present about 700 people. Past Grand Representative A. M. Dockery, ex-governor of Missouri came all the way from Washington to be present as toastmaster at this banquet. The address of the evening was delivered by Grand Sire Borst. We wish to express our thanks to that splendid Odd Fellow, Grand Secretary Ben Weidel of Missouri, for his untiring efforts in making this session a wonderful success.

TOURING OF THE CITY.

On Wednesday afternoon, the Representatives were given a delightful time in an automobile tour of the city, which was enjoyed by all those who participated.

REBEKAH ASSEMBLIES.

The Association of Rebekah Assemblies was successful in having a bill passed to allow Rebekah Assemblies to use their funds for the purpose of sending a representative to the National Body, which meets at the same time as the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

RED CROSS.

Legislation was enacted permitting Subordinate bodies to appropriate, from their contingent funds, money for the benefit of the Red Cross, Young Men's Christian Association, and other agencies recommended by the military authorities.

On account of the great advance in the cost of printing, your Representatives have endeavored to make their report as brief as possible.

We wish especially to thank Grand Master Blood for the deep interest and valuable assistance which he rendered in all matters of general interest to the Order and of especial significance to our own Jurisdiction.

To have served the great Jurisdiction of Illinois is a distinct honor for which we are deeply grateful.

Fraternally submitted,

James Ewing Davis.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT BY GRAND MASTER.

Chicago, Nov. 12, 1918.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

The year just ended for our Order in Illinois also marks the actual beginning and ending of the Great War for our country. Our soldiers are still in camps and in foreign lands, but the worst is over and we may look forward to that happy day when they will again take their places in the civic life of our people.

We should not forget that the mere suspension of gun fire in France does not end our responsibility. Many thousands of our members are still under arms and will continue to be for many months. Our concern for them should not be slackened while they are in uniform, neither should we forget the splendid service they have rendered to our country and the honor they have achieved in which we may all share.

These Odd Fellow soldiers will need our care and protection until they have again resumed the normal life—whenever that may be. Those who have suffered from sickness or wounds should be our special care that while they have given so freely of their blood we who have stayed at home may in a small way show our appreciation of their service by giving freely of our money.

This Grand Lodge should make provision for the returning Odd Fellow soldier who is unable to care for himself. Let it never be said that while the uncertainties of war face us we were liberal, but when security seemed again assured, we lost interest in our soldiers.

The War Relief Committee should be continued and provision made for raising as much money at least as was raised the past year for relief purposes. That we have not, as yet, been called upon to pay out a larger portion, or all, of the $40,000,00 accumulated and set aside from capitation tax this year does not mean that every dollar will not be called form. Great battles are not won without corresponding loss. We do not know at this time what our losses have been. That they are great, and that our members have sustained their full share is unquestioned.

I recommend that not less than $40,000.00 be provided for and added to whatever balance we have on hand from the last appropriation, and that the same be used for the special relief of soldier-members, the reimbursing of Lodges for sick benefits and funeral benefits paid on account of their soldier-members, and our activities at Rockford and Waukegan, be continued until it shall appear to the War Relief Committee that further service of this nature is unnecessary.

THE INFLUENZA.

Owing to the epidemic, carrying with it appalling loss of life, Lodge meetings, as well as public gatherings of all kinds were suspended in this State about October 14th. I had many engagements scheduled for the last four weeks of my term which I was compelled to cancel, and the whole Order in Illinois suspended business in conformity with the direction of the State Board of Health. At this writing many cities and towns are still closed and the epidemic is still raging, but shows indication of having about run its course.

This closing of the Lodges at a season regarded as the best for Lodge activities is a severe loss to the Order. I trust that special effort will be made by the brethren everywhere to retrieve the unavoidable loss of time as soon as may be, and that the loss may be only temporary.

VISITATIONS.

Blessed with good health, it has been possible for me to cover a good deal of ground in the past year, as well as attend to the heavy burdens of the office due to the abnormal prevailing conditions. I have made nearly sixty railroad trips, that is trips outside of Chicago during the year. Many of these trips have involved more than a day and a night, and some of them several days and nights. When in the city I have tried to visit the Chicago Lodges wherever and whenever it was thought by the members I could be of any service.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Several thousand letters from members of the Order have been received by me during the year, and only in rare instances, and for some very good reason, were they not answered the same day as received. No letter written by an Odd Fellow or Rebekah has been held on my desk awaiting reply unless I was out of the city or on account of delay caused in securing the information desired. I have assumed that if the writer regarded his subject of sufficient importance to write a letter, it was entitled to a prompt reply.

RECONSTRUCTION.

As important as has been the period through which we have just passed, the period of the world's reconstruction will be still greater. Our Order is now completing its 100th year of service in this country. That it has filled an important place in the lives of hundreds of thousands of men and women there is no question. But now comes new conditions and new problems to be met and solved. It is my hope that our beloved Order will be quick to appreciate and understand these changed conditions and so adjust itself as to continue to lead in fraternal work, realizing that we cannot rest our case on past good works, but that we must keep step with the march of events and strive to enlarge our influence through what we do and what we stand for today and are prepared to do tomorrow.

H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Master.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 5.

Whereas, At the Session of the Grand Lodge held in 1917, provision was made for war conditions as far as could be anticipated, and

Whereas, The railroad rate of fare was at that time two (2c) cents per mile, and

Whereas, The Government, as a war measure, took over control of the railroads of the country and raised the passenger rate of fare from two (2c) cents to three (3c) cents per mile plus an added war tax, and

Whereas, In addition to the increase of railroad fare that must be paid by the members of this Grand Lodge to enable them to reach the city of Springfield and perform the duty assigned to them by their respective lodges, they must also pay a substantial increase in living expenses while in Springfield, and,

Whereas, We believe that it is the intention of the lodges from whence the members of the Grand Lodge come that the Brothers shall be reimbursed for their actual expenses and shall not be required to not only devote their time but stand a loss of money as well,

Whereas, The mileage at the present time is fixed by allowing five (5c) mileage one way and under present conditions this is not sufficient to pay the railraoad fare of the Members of the Grand Lodge, therefore, be it

Resolved, That as an emergency measure that in addition to the five (5c) mileage one way, the Members of the Grand Lodge shall receive the sum of an amount equal to three (3c) cents mileage one way and said amount shall be appropriated immediately and disbursed at this Session of the Grand Lodge through the Mileage and Per Diem Committee at the time the Mileage and Per Diem paid to the members of the Grand Lodge entitled to the same, and be it further

Resolved, That the Per Diem shall be fixed at three days for this session.

Shall be revised to read:

ARTICLE 5—STANDING COMMITTEES.

VISITING COMMITTEE—Sec. 3—The visiting and relief committee shall consist of seven sisters, the noble grand to be chairman, whose duty shall be to visit the sick, relieve the distressed, and in every way assist Subordinate and sister Rebekah lodges in kindly ministrations to the families of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs who are in trouble or want. They shall keep themselves at all times informed thereon, and shall report the condition of those who may be sick, in distress, in trouble or in want. Only the sisters of this lodge shall be required to watch with the sick, etc., whenever notified to do so by the secretary or visiting committee. Services shall be by regular term: provided, that in cities or towns having more than two lodges, the relief committee of the different lodges may, if they see fit, appoint one of their number to act with a like number from the other lodges in the town or city as a special visiting committee, whose duties shall be the care of traveling or sojourning brothers and sisters who may be sick or disabled in the town or city where such lodges are situated. Should a member of this or any other Rebekah lodge be sick or in distress, it shall be the duty of any other member of this lodge, knowing the fact, to report the case promptly to the visiting committeee.

ARTICLE 10—CARDS, DISMISSAL CERTIFICATES AND RESIGNATIONS.

MEMBERSHIP VOLUNTARILY TERMINATED—Sec. 1—A member of this lodge may end membership therein by taking a withdrawal card or a dismissal certificate, and a sister may end her membership in this lodge and in the Order also, by presenting a written resignatoin of membership. No resignation of membership or application for a withdrawal card or dismissal certificate shall be entertained from any one who is not clear on the books.

WITHDRAWAL CARDS, WHEN AND TO WHOM GRANTED.

Sec. 2—A withdrawal card may be granted to any member by vote of a majority upon ball ballot at a regular meeting. Application therefor must be made by the member in person or in writing, and shall lie over until the next regular meeting for final action; except that when an applicant has left the vicinity of the lodge, or it is his or her known purpose to leave before the next regular meeting, or to join in a petition for a new lodge, the card may be granted without delay.

DOCUMENT NO. 7.

We the undersigned representatives to the Grand Bodies would respectfully suggest that the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem be called upon to take into consideration the question of increasing the amount of Per Diem of Representatives, Committees and Grand Officers of this Grand Body from $3.00 to $4.00 and that the mileage be increased from five cents to eight cents per mile one way.

The arguments set forth for the increase are to the effect that the increased cost of living at hotels and all expenses generally, together with the increased cost of railroad fare, makes it unquestionably unfair that the Representatives, Committees and Grand Officers should receive the same Mileage and Per Diem as heretofore when railroad fares and hotel rates were more than 50% cheaper than they are now.

We believe it imperative, therefore, as a matter of justice that this Grand Body should make the increases as cited above to take effect at this Session of the Grand Lodge, and we therefore offer this resolution and recommend its adoption.

DOCUMENT NO. 9.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your petitioner, the undersigned, Minonk Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 377, located at Minonk, in the State of Illinois, respectfully represents that on October 16, 1916, an order was drawn on the treasurer of the petitioner Lodge for twenty-eight dollars and eighty cents to pay the capitation tax of this petitioner from October 1, 1916, to April 1, 1917, and that the same was duly remitted to John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary, and was duly paid. Further, your petitioner shows that on January 16, 1917, the petitioner Lodge paid to the Grand Secretary at his request the sum of twenty-seven dollars and sixty cents, being the capitation tax of your petitioner from January 1, 1917, to July 1, 1917, thereby paying the capitation tax of the petitioner for the months of January, February and March, A. D. 1917, a second time. Your petitioner further represents that a resolution was duly adopted by this petitioner Lodge that one-half of the said sum of twenty-seven dollars and sixty cents be paid under protest and said sum was so paid, the protest being that it was a sum that petitioner Lodge had already paid by their remittance of October 10, 1916, that is for the months of January, February and March, A. D. 1917. This protest was sent with the remittance of twenty-seven dollars and sixty cents to John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary.

Your petitioner, Minonk Lodge, No. 377, always loyal to all its obligations, does not however believe and hold that there is justly and rightfully due from the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of the State of Illinois to your petitioner Minonk Lodge, No. 377, I. O. O. F., of the State of Illinois, duly chartered and working under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of the State of Illinois, the sum of thirteen dollars and eighty cents, as hereinbefore set out and earnestly and respectfully pray that the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of the State of Illinois, at its next regular session, to be held at the city of Springfield, Illinois, in the month of November, A. D. 1918, duly reimburse to your petitioner the sum of thirteen dollars and eighty cents.

Dated at Minonk, Illinois, this 12th day of November, A. D. 1918.

DOCUMENT NO. 10.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Among the radical transformations in the public mind wrought by the circumstances attending the world war, none would appear, at the moment, to have greater significance than the awakening in regard to the early development of American manhood.

Notwithstanding the giant progress we have made in education and the development in the arts and sciences in our institutions of learning, we have continued to plod along with the time honored notion that somehow there is a magic halo about the age of 21 years in a man's life that cannot and must not be disturbed. Just why the number should be 21 instead of 20 or 22, no one seems to know, and yet it is assumed that in some mysterious way, when the magic hour is struck, the boy instantly becomes a man, with full intelligence and powers of responsibility and discretion.

Now, the exigencies of war have caused the conservative law-making power of our land to realize that an intelligent and vigorous youth of 18 is plenty old enough to understand the fundamental principles of liberty and equality as exemplified in our beloved nation and to bear a man's burdens and do a man's part in the defense of these principles at home, and carry them to the oppressed of the lands beyond the seas.

Thus it happens that Congress has wisely fixed the year of accountability at 18 and the world has with equal wisdom and discretion approved of that action.

With the close of the war will inevitably come the problems of reconstruction and the application of new principles and new ideas in our modes of life and government, and we hold it to be grandly true that if a boy is old enough to intelligently fight for the principles of government at 18 years of age he is old enough to intelligently vote on the problems of reconstruction that follow when the awful peril is passed.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that the age of suffrage in the United States should be by proper legislation consistent with the public welfare, reduced from 21 to 18 years, and we each and everyone pledge our most earnest individual efforts to bring about such legislation.

Resolved, That the Illinois Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge be instructed to use their every honorable effort to have the age limit for admission into this Order also reduced from 21 to 18 years.

Respectfully submitted as per instructions from the Department Council Patriarch Militant of Illinois.

WARREN C. DARNALL,
E. R. SAYLER,
J. A. LUCAS,

DOCUMENT NO. 12.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:
Greeting:

Whereas, The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the session of 1912 passed a resolution providing for the organization and maintenance of a General Relief Committee, in cities and towns having more than one Subordinate Lodge. (S.J. 1912, page 715.)

Whereas, In cities and towns having more than one Subordinate Lodge, the burden of caring for sick and distressed visiting or sojourning members falls on lodges that are best known and most willing to do their duty, thus imposing on them a duty that should be borne by all equally; and,

Whereas, In the larger cities and towns this relief work can be more successfully carried on by a central organization; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the by-laws of the Grand Lodge be amended by adding the following section, 11a.

Section 11a—In cities and towns having more than one Subordinate Lodge, the lodges may by a majority vote thereof, organize a General Relief Committee, composed of one or more members from each Lodge, such General Relief Committee to have charge of all sick and distressed visiting or sojourning members within the jurisdiction of such lodges, with the same authority as to paying benefits, providing watchers or nurses, and otherwise caring for such visiting or sojourning members as is given to relief committees of lodges, where no such General Relief Committee exists, and such General Relief Committee shall adopt rules and regulations to govern it, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge. The expense of such General Relief Committee shall be borne equally by all the lodges within its jurisdiction on a per capita basis, and provided that lodges in adjoining cities or towns in th esame county, may become affiliated with such General Relief Committee, and sharing in the expense thereof. And provided, further, that the General Relief Committee may admit representatives from Rebekah Lodges, Encampments and Cantons.

First report by Bro. L. L. McKinley, P.G.M., of No. 41.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your committee on Libraries would respectfully report as follows:

We have carefully studied the condition of our Home Libraries and find that much of the reading matter on their shelves is almost worthless and needs to be replaced by books and magazines up to date. We would especialy call the attention of this Grand Body to the fact that Brother M. P. Berry, P.G.M., has, almost alone, kept up the efficiency of our libraries by donating books; but one man alone, can not do the work needed, but should have the help of the entire membership of this Order in Illinois.

We, therefore, respectfully ask that the membership send to the Superintendent of the two Homes, books and magazines to be placed by them where they may do the most good and be of benefit to the members of the Homes.

Respectfully submitted,

Third report by Brother James Ewing Davis, P.G.M., of No. 990.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committe on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

The annual visit of your Finance Committee to the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home at Lincoln was made on Thursday, November 7, 1918.

Brother John J. Crowder, the Secretary of the Board of Directors, as well as Dr. J. A. Lucas, the Superintendent, were present.

During the last year the Grand Encampment has provided a splendid swimming pool for the children. Grand Patriarch North is to be congratulated for the installation of this service which will be so beneficial to our children.

The records of the Home show that they had at the Home on October 1, 1918, 98 girls and 75 boys making a total of 173. During the year the total number of children has averaged 184; 26 have been received and 31 children dismissed from the Home. At the time of this report the total membership is 178, 99 girls and 79 boys.

During the past year the Home has received $3.906.03 from the parents and guardians of the children. This is an increase of revenue from this source of more than $1,300.00, and we congratulate the board of directors for the special interest which they have manifested in looking after the arrerages during the past year.

We have found the expenses and disbursements of the Home for the past year to be as follows:

RECEIPTS.

October 1, 1917 balance on hand:
Maintenance	$ 4,612.39
Furnishings	469.42	$ 5,081.81
Grand Lodge Appropriation		44,000.00
Collections from parents or guardian	$ 3.906.03
Collections, sundries	160.56
Donations	497.42
Sale farm products	3,659.82	8,223.83
Christopher Dahl estate		671.56
Interest on Endowment Fund	1,811.75	1,811.75
Total		$59,788.95

DISBURSEMENTS.

Vouchers drawn on Grand Treasurer		$54,178.21
Balance on hand		$ 5.610.74
Maintenance	$ 5.141.32
Furnishing Account	469.42
Total	$ 5,610.74

During the past year the Rebekah Assembly has furnished and equipped the parlors at the Home with elegant rugs, chairs, davenport, and other furnishings. The Assembly certainly should be complimented upon the splendid taste which they have displayed in the selection of these furnishings and we commend the Assembly for this work on their part which has added so much to the beauty and comfort of the Home.

The Board of Directors are preparing a sun room to be especially adapted to those children whose condition of health demands that they should have more sun light.

Among the receipts during the past year was the sum of $671.56 bequest from the estate of Christopher Dahl. Brother Dahl was a member of Atlas Lodge No. 261 of Chicago, and remembered both of cur Homes with a bequest of equal amounts. This splendid manifestation of practical Odd Fellowship on the part of Brother Dahl might be emulated by many brothers and sisters who wish to aid a most worthy cause.

The general health of the Home children is good and up to the present time they have had not one case of influenza at the Home. Considering the great increase in the prices during the past year the Board of Directors has kept within the appropriation and the good judgment which they have used in purchasing supplies in advance has been the means of keeping down the expenditures to as low a rate as possible. With the tremendous increase in prices of everything used in connection with the Home, the Order will be obliged to expend more money each year as long as these conditions prevail.

Fraternally submitted,

Report adopted. Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 18.

Seventh report by Brother Cicero J. Lindley, P.G.M., of No. 3.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

Your committee reports that, as it is necessary for the Grand Treasurer to disburse the funds for mileage and per diem to the Representatives to the Grand Lodge, the exact amount of which is not at this time known, we would, therefore, recommend that a voucher be drawn on the Grand Treasurer, in the sum of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000.00), for the purpose of paying the mileage and per diem of the Representatives; the surplus, if any, to be turned back to the treasury of the Grand Lodge and the shortage, if any, be made up by an additional voucher on the Grand Treasurer.

Fraternally submitted,
Signed by the Committee.

On motion the rules were suspended and the report was adopted unanimously.

DOCUMENT NO. 19.

November 16, 1918.

MR. H. M. BLOOD,
Springfield, Illinois.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Just a few lines to let you know that we cannot thank you enough for the good work of the Illinois Odd Fellows in looking after the Brethren at Rockford, (Camp Grant), as some of our Worthy Brethren were among the unfortunate to be on the sick list. I want to say frankly that they were given special attention and received a very loyal treatment according to letters received from our Brethren, even though peace has been declared I sincerely hope that you will keep up the good work at least until they get all the boys out, as I really believe that we will be in need of the good work as much as before for sometime to come and think that you have and sincerely hope that you continue to play a wonderful part in assisting the needy.

With best wishes.

Yours Fraternally,
COLLINSVILLE LODGE 712 A. F. A. M.,
Frank W. Needle, Secretary.

Ordered printed in the Journal.

DOCUMENT NO. 20.

Brother Owen Scott, P.G.M., presented the following:

AMEND GRAND LODGE BY-LAWS BY ADDING AFTER ART. 3 THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE:

ARTICLE 4.

134½. DISTRICTS—Section 1.—The State of Illinois shall be divided into districts, having regard to population, geographical location and convenience. The Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretary shall form the districts. The officers named shall make such changes in the districts as conditions require.

Section 2.—One District Deputy Grand Master shall be appointed and commissioned by the Grand Master in each district, the term of his service to be one year from the December 1st succeeding his appointment. He shall be a resident of his district and a member of a lodge therein. He shall be responsible alone to the Grand Master, obey his instructions and perform such duties as are required by the Grand Master or the laws of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master at his discretion, shall have the power at any time to remove any District Deputy. The District Deputy shall be subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of his lodge the same as any other member.

Section 3.—Every District Deputy Grand Master shall visit each lodge in his district at least once each year. He shall thoroughly examine its records and accounts and ascertain the condition of the lodge and report the same to the Grand Master with such recommendations as conditions may warrant.

Section 4.—On the 15th of October of each year every District Deputy Grand Master shall make a report to the Grand Master of his official acts during the year. He shall set forth the condition of the lodges in his district and suggest such measures as he may deem to be for the general good of the order. The Grand Secretary shall furnish a blank on which this report shall be made. A summary of the reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters shall be published in the Journal.

Section 5.—Officers of Subordinate Lodges shall be installed at the times fixed in the Subordinate Constitution. The District Deputy Grand Master shall be the installing officer when present. When the District Deputy Grand Master is unable, for any reason, personally to install the officers, he may authorize, in writing, some qualified Past Grand to act for him at such installation.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Secretary to transmit the semi-annual password and his instructions thereon to the Secretary of each lodge. The Secretary shall give the same to the installing officer, whose duty it shall be to communicate the password to the Noble Grand immediatey lafter his instalation.

Amendment adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 21.

Lovington, Ill., Nov. 19, 1918.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Whereas, One of the greatest wars in the history of the world is coming to a close, and in which our own country has played a very important part and many members of our splendid Order have been in the thick of the battles and that Odd Fellowship in a sincere patriotic desire to keep the sparks of patriotism ever burning:

Therefore, be it Resolved, That during every anniversary program of Subordinate Lodges the Declaration of Independence be read and the national anthem "America" be sung.

M. W. MUNCH,
Representative Lovington Lodge, 593.

No action taken.

DOCUMENT NO. 22.

First report by A. Otis Arnold, of No. 12, of the Committee on Legislation.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your committee having carefully considered the subject matter of the resolution presented by P.G.M. Owen Scott, Document No. 20, concur therein and recommend that it be adopted.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Report adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 23.

Second report by Brother Henry Debus, of No. 540.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

We your Committee have examined that portion of the Grand Master's Report entitled "The Old Folks' Home" and find that the subject matter therein contained involves a very big proposition and of vital interest to the order, and we recommend that no action be taken on it this year but that the incoming Grand Master give the subject careful consideration during his term and report to the next session of the Grand Lodge his findings, and that he shall go into the feasibility of increasing the capacity of the Hospital, and ascertain as far as possible the calls that are made upon the order which cannot be accommodated within our present facilities.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Report adopted.

There being no further business, the Grand Lodge adjourned until 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1918

Representatives' Hall, State House.

November 20, 1918, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Grand Lodge met pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Blood in the chair.

Present: All Grand Officers with a quorum of representatives.

The Grand Marshal with his assistants, having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Grand Lodge was then declared regularly opened for the transaction of business.

The Daily Journal of Tuesday was distributed by the Grand Marshal and his assistants.

Bro. M. P. Berry, Grand Treasurer presented to the Grand Lodge through the Grand Master, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, Five Hundred Dollars to be applied to the Endowment Fund for the Old Folks' Home and Five Hundred Dollars to the Endowment Fund for the Orphans' Home. It was stated by Brother Berry that this is the proceeds of the interest on Grand Lodge funds in his possession during the past year.

Representative Phillips of 308 moved that a rising vote of thanks be extended to Brother Berry. Motion carried.

Brother Lucas, P.G.M., presented to Grand Master Blood, as his personal property, a gavel made by one of the boys from White City Lodge in the Orphans' Home. This was gratefully accepted by the Grand Master.

The Grand Lodge proceeded to consideration of reports from the Committee on Finance contained in the Grand Officers' reports.

The first and second reports of said committee were considered and adopted.

The first report of the Endowment Trustees found in the Grand Officers' reports was considered and adopted.

Thereupon the Grand Master ordered a recess during which time were admitted a committee from the Rebekah State Assembly, bearnig the greetings of the Rebekahs. They were escorted to seats on the rostrum.

These were: Myrtle Tandy, P.P., Caritas, No. 635, Jacksonville; Dora L. North, P.P., Iantha, No. 413, Farmer City; Lillian Stewart, P.P., Elite No. 2, Chicago; Josephine Lucas, Orphans' Home, No. 9, Lincoln.

Services in memory of our fraternal dead followed:

The Grand Lodge sang, "Nearer My God to Thee." The Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

COLUMBUS A. KELLER.

Past Grand Sire.

Past Grand Master M. P. Berry, from the Special Committee on Memorials, made the following address:

"An honest man has gone to rest
As ever God with his image, blessed.

The friend of man, the friend of truth,
The friend of age, the friend of youth;

Few hearts, like his, with virtue warmed,
Few heads, with knowledge so informed.

If there's another world, he lives in bliss;
If there is none, he made the best of this."

Past Grand Sire and Past Grand Master, C. A. Keller, departed this life, at his home in San Antonio, Texas, on Feb. 21, 1918.

Brother Keller was born in Mount Vernon, Illinois, on Nov. 24, 1851. He received a common school education in his native town, and later graduated from McEndree College, in Lebanon, Illinois. Then, having chosen the law as his work for life, he graduated from the Ann Arbor University, in Michigan, in 1873, and was admitted to the bar in Illinois, the same year.

In the same year, he was married to Miss Nellie F. Raymond, who lived only a few years. He was married again, to Miss Essie F. Haynes, in San Antonio, Texas. He began the practice of his profession, in his home town of Mount Vernon, and in a short time, was elected Judge of the County Court, of his county.

Brother Keller was made an Odd Fellow in Marion Lodge, No. 13, on May 13, 1875. He loved Odd Fellowship, and his rise in the Order was rapid. He entered this Grand Lodge in 1878; in 1879, he was chosen Grand Marshal; in 1880, Grand Warden; and in 1882, was installed Grand Master of the Grand Lodge. Very many of the older members of the Grand Lodge, will remember him well; very few of the younger ones will. In 1885, he was elected to the office of Grand Representative, but having removed to Texas, the same year, he was prevented from serving, at that time.

In 1885, he located in San Antonio, Texas, and at once, transferred his membership to that Jurisdiction, and in 1888, became a member of the Grand Lodge of Texas. In 1892, the Grand Lodge of Texas sent him, as its representative, to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Here, he soon became a favorite.

Brother Keller was a natural born Odd Fellow. God created him with the principles of Odd Fellowship. He loved its principles, and its precepts, which accounts for his rapid rise in two Jurisdictions of our Order.

In 1912, Brother Keller was elected Deputy Grand Sire, and in 1914, he was chosen Grand Sire of the world. His education and qualifications especially fitted him for this position, and his record as Grand Sire is an honor to both Illinois and Texas. He was a strong advocate of every righteous measure, he gave his undivided atteniotn to every detail of his office, he was an eloquent speaker, and was always listened to with rapt interest. He possessed a lovely disposition, and was a sincere Christian man. He nobly fought, and overcame many vicissitudes of life. Few men, perhaps none, ever rose so rapidly in our Order, in two Jurisdictions. This could not have been done, had he not been an Odd Fellow in spirit and in truth.

He was a good man, a good citizen, a good Odd Fellow, a good Christian, and in the language of Past Grand Sire Pinkerton, wore, through all his days, "The white flower of a blameless life."

The Grand Lodge of Illinois is proud to do him honor, and to embalm his name and memory in the archives of this jurisdiction.

Our Brother is dead, and yet, what is death?

"To live in hearts we leave behind,
Is not to die."

J OTIS HUMPHREY.
Past Grand Master.

Bro. Owen Scott, P.G.M., offered the following in memory of Bro. J. Otis Humphrey.

"His life was so gentle and the elements so mixed in him, that all Nature might stand up and say to all the world, 'This was a man.'"

Few men stand out as a more conspicuous example of Shakespeare's definition of a man than J Otis Humphrey. A thorough student, an unselfish publicist, a wise jurist, a brilliant orator, a loyal fraternalist, a devoted Christian, a good citizen and a successful man of affairs—these are seldom combined in one person as completely as in him whom this day we honor.

In whatever direction the versatile mind of Brother Humphrey was turned his enthusiasm and capacity for accomplishment made success a certainty. In no turn or thought of life was he more loyal and devoted than to his church. In fact for a generation he was the leading factor in the Central Baptist Church of Springfield. While tolerant and liberal in his views of religion, he stood out distinctly for the dignity of his church. Devotion to other interests and activities of life was never permitted to obscure his intense loyalty to the affairs of organized religion. He never overlooked the religious phases of life. Death to him was "That golden key that opens the palace of eternity."

Second only to his church was his service to fraternity. As a field for the exercise of his talents in helpfulness to others, he allied himself most actively with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He was also a member of the Masonic Fraternity and was ever ready to meet the duties and bear the responsibilities imposed by this great brotherhood. His active work as a fraternalist, however, centered in Odd Fellowship. Here he was ever a conspicuous personality, first in his lodge, then in his Grand Lodge and after that as a representative in the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

He was initiated into Odd Fellowship by Auburn Lodge No. 543, located at Auburn, Illinois on March 31, 1877. On November 11, 1880 he united with Springfield Lodge No. 465, located at Springfield, Ill. He speedily became one of the leaders of this Order.

In 1886 he was elected as Deputy Grand Master, without having served as Grand Warden as is the usual course. The next year he was advanced to the exalted position of Grand Master of this Grand Lodge. For six years from 1893 to 1899 he, with Bro. Edwin S. Conway, represented the Grand Lodge in the highest body of Odd Fellows in the world, the Sovereign Grand Lodge. No abler representative than Brother Humphrey ever sat in this great body of selected men.

His choicest and most loving service, however, was to the children in the Orphans' Home at Lincoln. Here for many years he gave his heart and brain to those who were bereft of their natural protectors. For fifteen years he was chairman of the board at Lincoln and practically managed the Home during this time. Many of the best features of this unrivalled exhibition of true fraternity are the result of Brother Humphrey's love, thought and care. In all Odd Fellow activities he was a dominant factor and always a leader.

As a citizen J Otis Humphrey was always found on the right side of all public movements. Prior to his elevation to the position as Judge of the Federal Court at Springfield he was active in politics. While a party man, he yet stood for only the best in the political arena. He found that loyalty to party did not require him to be other than a good citizen.

He was born in Morgan County, Illinois, Dec. 30, 1850. After graduating from Shurtleff College at Alton, he became a lawyer and in 1897 was appointed United States District Attorney by President McKinley. Four years later, in 1901, he was appointed Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois and held this position at the time of his death, June 14, 1918.

In consequence of his judicial position he withdrew from many of the activities in which he was formerly engaged. However, his interest in Odd Fellowship was only slightly abated during his judicial service. On many occasions, almost to the day when he crossed the bar, he was found in the fraternal harness when occasion required. His words of burning eloquence yet linger in the ears of those who have been given the privilege of hearing him. Though we see him no more he is not dead, for—

"There is no death! What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath is but the suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call death."

His life, his influence, his high character, will remain as a benediction first and greatest of all to his family, but next to this to the great fraternities that honored him and that he loved and greatly esteemed. As a citizen and Christian gentleman of the highest type, he will long linger in the thought and memory of those with whom he mingled.

As our friend and Brother we can say—

"Sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

CHESTER M. TURNER, P.G.R.

Bro. James Ewing Davis, P.G.M., offered the following as a memorial to Bro. Chester M. Turner.

Chester M. Turner was born on Nov. 1, 1861, at Toulon, Stark County, Illinois. He was the son of Benjamin Turner and Ruth Myers Turner. The Turner family was one of the oldest and best known families of Stark County, the father having moved to Stark County from Delaware in 1839.

Judge Turner, as he was konwn by all his friends, was reared on a farm adjoining Toulon and attended the Public Schools there and was the first to graduate from the Toulon High School on May 16th, 1879. Later he entered Knox College, at Galesburg and graduated in 1884. Returning to Toulon, he took up the study of law in the office of Martin Shallenberger and was admitted to the bar in 1888. He practiced law in Toulon for two years and in June, 1890, moved to Cambridge, Illinois. He had been a practitioner at the Henry County Bar constantly since that time, being at the time of his death, one of the leading and best known lawyers in that part of the state.

Bro. Turner was elected Judge of the County Court of Henry County in 1899 and held that office for four years. His judicial service was characterized by all that marks the able jurist whose knowledge of the law is comprehensive, whose reasoning is sound and whose deductions are logical.

On Saturday evening, April 27th, 1918, about 6 o'clock, while sitting at his desk concluding his day in the office, he became suddenly ill and shortly sank into unconsciousness, from which he never roused. He was removed to his home and lived until 11 o'clock that evening.

He was intensely patriotic. The night before he had addressed a meeting in Woodhull, and during his last day had been busily engaged with the Executive Committee of Henry County to effectively promote the work of the Liberty Loan.

In his home town, where he was known, he was called upon to serve the public as Trustee and President of the Town Board of Trustees several terms. He was also President of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Judge Turner was also for several years President of the Federation of Bar Association for the Fifth District of the Supreme Court composed of ten counties. He was for many years Secretary of the Henry County Bar Association.

On June 6th, 1889, Bro. Turner was married to Miss Emma F. Follett of Toulon, Illinois. Of this marriage three children were born, Helen M. Long, deceased, wife of Dr. Lester L. Long, Ruth A. Carlson, wife of Clarence W. Carlson of Cambridge, Illinois and Benjamin Follett Turner.

Judge Turner was President of the Board of Education, Director and First Vice-President of Farmers' National Bank of Cambridge, and in a fraternal way, he served on many prominent and important committees. At the time of his passing he was the Treasurer of the Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., of Illinois, a member of the Judiciary Committee of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Illinois, and for ten (10) consecutive years served on the Endowment Fund Committee, I. O. O. F., where he was called upon to pass upon the title of legal papers calling for investment of many thousands of dollars; and never once did he err in this work.

Brother Turner was a great admirer of the fellowship afforded by membership in fraternal orders; and nothing pleased him more than to know personally the layman of these orders who he was always happy in meeting.

He was an Odd Fellow and Mason, having passed through the Chairs of the Local Lodges, besides the higher honors of being singled out for similar honors in the Grand Encampment of I. O. O. F., of Illinois, and always was a regular attendant of the Local Lodge when at home.

Bro. Turner was of a genial social disposition, a man who prized the friendship of his associates and as a citizen he was a friend of all, and we know of no one who will be missed more from the every day life of his home town than Chester M. Turner.

In community affairs, he had long been prominent and influential. None in distress were ever turned from his door and no worthy cause ever found him other than a willing and liberal giver. His co-operation has been a potent force for good in many lines of public progress.

He was a member in good standing of Cambridge Lodge No. 199, I. O. O. F.; Cambridge Rebekah Lodge No. 517, I. O. O. F.; Cambridge Encampment No. 188, I. O. O. F.; Kewanee Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F., Past Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Illinois, I. O. O. F.; Past Grand Representative of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.; Cambridge Lodge No. 49, A. F. & A. M.; Geneseo Chapter No. 12, R. A. M.; Peoria Consistory of Peoria; Kewanee Commandary of Knight Templar; Mohammet Temple of Mystic Shrine of Peoria; Mystic Chapter, O. E. S. No. 160.

The funeral services in honor of Judge Turner were conducted at the home on Monday afternoon, at four o'clock, and were in charge of Dr. R. Emory Buckey, pastor of the Methodist church who read the scriptures and offered prayer. The Male Quartette consisting of Dr. W. H. Conser, Dr. O. W. Eaton, W. E. Eaton and August Alsen sang, "Lead Kindly Light." Dr. Buckey read the obituary and made an address on behalf of the church. Judge Leonard E. Teleen made an able and impressive address on behalf of the Bar Association. Rev. L. A. Miller, pastor of the Baptist church, in an appropriate and sympathetic manner spoke on behalf of the Independent Order of Odd Fellowship. Bro. D. C. Stocking, of Rockford, represented the Grand Encampment of Illinois in language both fitting and beautiful. The Masonic Order was represented by Mr. Walter A. Olson whose sentiments and diction did credit to the Fraternity on behalf of which he spoke. As the closing number, Mr. C. B. Taylor of Rock Island sang, "Face to Face."

At an early hour Tuesday morning, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs met at the home and escorted the procession to the railroad station. An extra coach was provided to convey to Toulon the friends, members of the bar, fraternal orders, and a large number of people from different points, who wished to attend the last services in honor of Judge Turner.

On Tuesday forenoon funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church at Toulon and were in charge of Dr. Buckey who read the scriptures. The choir sang " Faith of Our Fathers" after which prayer was offered by the Rev. Fletcher DeClarke, pastor of the church in which the services were being held. Doctor Buckey read the obituary and spoke on behalf of the church. Mr. James K. Blish of Kewanee made an excellent address on behalf of the Bar Association. Bro. H. M. Blood, Grand Master of Illinois, spoke as the representative of the Independent Order of Odd Fellowship in a manner long to be remembered. The Grand Encampment was represented in the person of Bro. J. A. Lucas, of Lincoln, who spoke in language of intimate friendship. The choir sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and the burial services at the cemetery were con ducted by the Order of Odd Fellowship.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. At the thoughtful request of the family probably $100.00 that would have been spent for flowers, is to be invested in a Liberty Bond for certain needy children of Cambridge.

Grand Herald,
Farmer City.

No man in his own county knew more of its people, no man was better and more generally liked and no man will be more missed. He left us in the full vigor of a useful and influential manhood.

In the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, on account of his long service, his kindly disposition, and true fellowship he had endeared himself to the brotherhood in every section of this great state.

His life will always be an inspiration to his friends and the splendid example of humanitarism which characterized his business and fraternal associations will be a rich heritage to his family.

Sister Margaret E. Weldon, Past President, sang "The Home of the Soul" in a most touching manner.

The Grand Chaplain offered prayer. The Memorial services were thus concluded.

The committee from the Rebekah Assembly were introduced by the Grand Master.

Sister Myrtle Tandy, Past President, thereupon responded on behalf of the representatives of the Assembly in most fitting and beautiful language.

Sister Birney, wife of Grand Warden J. W. Birney, entertained the Grand Lodge with a number of songs. This was enthusiastically received.

Thereupon the Sisters retired and the Grand Lodge resumed its regular session.

DOCUMENT NO. 24.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

We, the Committee on the suspension of members beg leave to make the following report.

This is a matter which concerns every lodge and every member, and we should undertake the consideration of the matter with the object of preventing suspensions rather than recovering those suspended—although the latter is important as well.

Let us first consider the causes of suspensions. We have come to the conclusion, from our observation, that there are six principal causes: Curiosity, lack of interest, carelessness, financial embarrassment, failure to collect promptly, emphasis upon financial benefits.

First, Curiosity: By this we mean the curiosity which a candidate has to find out the secrets; the curiosity mentioned in the Past Grand's charge to the candidate. Many a candidate, when his curiosity is satisfied, has no further interest and drops out. He is not curious to find out what work is done by the Order or whether that work is worthy his assistance; all he wants to know is what kind of a performance has to be gone through to be admitted. A candidate who is animated by this spirit is probably not much loss. Men should not be admitted unless they have some knowledge of what the Order stands for, what its objects are, and how those objects are carried out. They should also have a desire to become associated with the class of men who make up the Order, and to help along the work which the Order undertakes to do; to assist in the upbuilding of the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth to the end that ultimately universal brotherhood shall reign. A candidate who exhibits symptoms of undue curiosity should be regarded with suspicion.

Second, Lack of Interest: This applies to many lodges as well as individuals; but happily they are in the minority. Want of knowledge of the beautiful teachings of our Order is perhaps the chief reason for lack of interest on the part of members. After a candidate has been admitted, no effort is made to get him interested in the work; he is allowed to sit by himself; with nothing to do, and no one takes any special interest in him. Naturally he says, "What's the use?" and drops out. If a little inerest had been taken in him and he had been given something to do, so that he would have understood the aims and objects of the Order (as exemplified and taught in well rendered degree work) he would have been aroused and would have been inspired to loftier ideals by the lessons protrayed, and once having learned, his interest would never be lost. In some Lodges meetings are held and routine business trasacted, but no effort is made to keep up interest in the real work that is being done; but that leads to the third cause.

Third, Carlessness: This matter is responsible, perhaps more than any other, for members allowing themselves to be suspended; carelessness in the conduct of Lodge meetings; carelessness in the conduct of the business of the Lodge generally, and last but not least, carelessness on the part of the member himself. The first two can be overcome and perhaps if that were done there would be much less carelessness on the part of the members. Have Lodge meetings opened promptly on time; have the business of the Lodge transacted in a businesslike manner, raise the standard of degree work where possible, and for this purpose, even if there are no candidates, have degree practices at Lodge meetings; attend to correspondence and keep the records and files up to date at all times. These things will have a tendency to counteract carelessness in the individual as well as lack of interest. Members are often careless in notifying the Lodge of change of addres and so do not receive their notices; some receive their notice and neglect to attend to them until they are forgotten, and by their procrastination they find themselves so far in arrears that they think it is too hard to catch up again. Eradicate carelessness and a long stride is made towards preventing loss by suspensions.

Fourth, Financial Embarrassment: Sometimes a member finds himself unable to pay his dues promptly, and as each quarter goes by it gets harder. He is too independent to let the Lodge know that he can't pay and so loses his right to the attention of the Lodge. These arouse our sympathy and we should all be glad to deal leniently with them until the tide turns; but usually we do not know. The other side of the financial question, perhaps it should not be called embarrassment, is that increased prosperity on the part of some of our members leads them to believe that the benefits of the Order are no longer necessary for their welfare, forgetting that the principles of humanity and brotherly love extend to the rich as well as the poor.

Fifth, Failure to Collect Promptly: Failure of the Financial Secretary to try and collect the dues of the members at the proper time, old fashioned style of dun that Noah threw out of the Ark, instead of up-to-date statements, too stingy to use printer's ink, no assistance of the Financial Secretary, failure to keep in touch with the members, a kind of a go-as-you-please way of transacting the business of the Lodge, are all causes for suspension which are to be deplored. In some Lodges a membership committee is appointed whose duty it is to assist the Financial Secretary in keeping in touch with the members and collecting dues in arrears.

Sixth, Emphasis upon Financial Benefits: Many members are being brought into our Order solely by the prominence given to the financial benefits paid by the Order which leads them to believe that these are the greatest advantages to be gained by membership. They consider it much in the same way as an insurance, and take no further interest in the membership than they do in their insurance policy. While the pecuniary benefits are indeed great, they are, as we all know, the least of the real benefits to be derived, and the sooner every Brother is made to realize this fact the better it will be for each individual member and the Order in general. In approaching a candidate, put the emphasis upon the value of the Order as a means of doing good, the opportunity it affords for broadening his mind and making his effort tell in making the world better, and convince him that the financial benefits are merely incidental to the principal work of the Order.

Incidentally, we observe that many members have been suspended illegally, either through ignorance of the law, or through carelessness on the part of the Secretary.

Now, what can we do to remedy matters? Possibly the suggestions in this paper will contain nothing new, but if their repetition will help to bring about any improvement, we will be amply repaid.

In considering this subject, it must be remembered that the local conditions affect each jurisdiction differently and the same remedy will not apply to all alike.

It is a well-known fact that we can teach only that which we have learned, and pronounce good only that which has led to happiness. True happiness is the result of conscious usefulness.

Every Lodge should try to be an ideal Lodge. See that the meetings are opened promptly on time, that the business is conducted with dispatch; follow the prescribed order of business instead of allowing things to stand over until "Good and Welfare"; keep the standard of degree work high; see that visitors are made to feel that they are truly welcome, and when the Good of the Order is reached, devote a little time to the cultivation of the sublime teachings of the Order and the inculcation of the enthusiam for the ideals which the Order endeavors to promote.

Respectfully submitted,

D. J. DUMSER, 47,

ALEX. VAN PRAAG, 186.

Bro. Yantis moved, seconded by Bro. Strang, that the ballot be made unanimous. Motion carried.

Whereupon the Grand Master declared Bro. C. A. Robbins, of No. 39, duly elected as Grand Warden.

Thereupon the Grand Lodge adjourned until 2:00 o'clock P. M.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

November 20, 1918, 2:00 P. M.

The Grand Lodge met pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Blood in the chair.

Present: All Grand Officers and a quorum of Representatives.

The Opening Ode was sung and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Grand Lodge was then declared regularly opened for the transaction of business.

The Grand Master then declared a recess while the distinguished visitors were introduced.

Past Grand Masters Davis and Lindley and Past Grand Sire Conway were appointed a committee to escort Hon. Frank O. Lowden, Governor of Illinois, and Congressman at Large Richard Yates.

Bro. Conway introduced Governor Lowden and Bro. Lindley Congressman Yates.

The Governor said he appreciated the compliment paid him by inviting him before the Grand Lodge because of the service rendered during the past year and a half, not only by the members of this Order, but by the people of this great loyal State, representing, as this Order does, a great brotherhood.

The Governor retired on account of pressing engagements in his office. Congressman Yates then addressed the Grand Lodge at length on the great work of this brotherhood during the war that is past. He described the conditions of the times, through which the country has passed, the self sacrifices endured by those who defended our country and the great and glorious victory achieved by the allied armies.

In closing he asked everybody to stand while they cheered for the American boy and to tender the sympathies of this Order to all those whose hearts are bereaved by the loss of a son, brother or other member of their families.

While Bro. Yates retired from the Lodge room the Grand Lodge rose enmasse and sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

The Grand Lodge resumed its session.

Doc. 23. Second report of the Comimttee on Legislation, was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 26.

First report, by Bro. A. A. Ludwig, of No. 105.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows:

Having carefully considered those parts of the Grand Master's Report under the following captions: Our Country in War, State of the Order, Credit to those to whom credit is due, Associate Grand Officers, Official Letters, dated November 23, 1917. Salutatory dated November 23, 1917, Synopsis of Legislation dated December 20, 1917, U .S. Fuel Administration, letter dated January 25, 1918, embodying the following subject matter:

Efficiency, Diploma Extraordinary, Rituals, War Times, Home Tax, Specially Prepared Letter, all that part of the Grand Master's Report referred to the Halifax Disaster, all that part of the Grand Master's Report under the head of Team Work mentioned in his letter of February 12, 1918, also his letter dated March 25, 1918, concerning Spurious Rituals and Keep the Home Fires Burning, Anniversary Proclamation, World Wide War, Memorial Day Proclamation, Change of time of meeting in training camps as mentioned in his letter April 15, 1918, Memorial Day proclamation, Deputies as indicated by his letter of May 3rd, also his entire letter of June 12, 1918, also his entire letter of August 1st, together with a communication to the general public of President Wilson enclosed therewith, his communication concerning Food Conservation, his communication concerning Spanish Influenza, New Subordinate Lodges, Subordinate Lodges Closed, Subordinate Lodges Consolidated, Change of Name, Loss by Fire, expelled subordinate Members Reinstated, Centennial Committee Resignations, Training Camps in Illinois, training camps in Illinois, all that part of the Prager Case except the voucher drawn to cover the expense thereof, Odd Fellows League and Relief Board, Literature, and the Press.

We hereby approve these parts of the Grand Master's Report, and recommend their approval by this Grand Lodge.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Report adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 27.

Second report, by Bro. John J. Brown, of No. 122.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows:

That portion of the Grand Secretary's report in reference to members in the service shows quite an amount of labor on the part of the Grand Secretary in order to secure a complete record, but as the members in the service are constantly changing, it has been very difficult for him to secure an accurate list. Your committee would therefore recommend that the Grand Secretary be instructed to complete the roll of the members of our Order in the service and make report of the same at the next Grand Lodge.

In reference to that portion of the Grand Secretary's report concerning the Chicago Historical Society asking that the Grand Secretary present to said Society the journals of this Grand Lodge and that the Grand Secretary has not been able to do so on account of a number of the journals being out of print. Your committee therefore recommends on this subject that the Grand Secretary be directed to continue his research for the journals mentioned in his report and that he forward to the Chicago Historical Society such journals as can be spared.

Upon that portion of the Grand Secretary's report headed "Grand Lodge Constitution Amended" would report that this portion of the Grand Secretary's report concerns an amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution which amendment was made in the Sovereign Grand Lodge and passed. This amendment being approved by Grand Sire Frank C. Goudy on December 31, 1917, which action was ratified by the Sovereign Grand Lodge held in St. Louis, September 16-21, 1918, and has reference to standing committees. Your committee, could take no action upon this matter as it has been passed and ratified by the Sovereign Grand Lodge and that the thanks of this Grand Lodge should be tendered to the Grand Secretary for making a report of the same so that each member of the Grand Lodge would be informed as to the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge on this subject.

Signed by the Committee.

Report adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 28.

Third report, by Bro. D. C. Stocking, of No. 829.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows: Camp Grant Soldiers' Headquarters:

We heartily concur in the resolution offered by representatives of Rockford Lodges. The Grand Lodge accepts and fully appreciates the expression of gratitude from our Soldiers at Camp Grant, in thanking the Rebekah Assembly and Grand Lodge for the comfortable home-like rest rooms and headquarters which they have enjoyed to the fullest extent; and for the untiring labor of Bro. Theo. Van De Mark, in visiting the sick and aiding in every way possible our Soldier Brothers and their relatives, particularly during the recent epidemic when he served them night and day—rendering a service that cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Your Committee would recommend that the headquarters be maintained as heretofore until such a time as the Grand Lodge War Camp Committee deems best to close same.

Report adopted. SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

DOCUMENT NO. 29.

Fourth report, by Bro. J. A. Giberson, of No. 421.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows: On Document No. 21:

That we recognize and commend the patriotic motive which prompted the resolution but we do not believe that the great question of patriotic expression which is involved should be made a part of our anniversary celebration, but that a specific day be set aside by our Order for the proper annual celebration of our Liberty and the recent success of our armed forces. Undoubtedly a "Victory Day" will be designated by our President and if not then this celebration be held in each Subordinate Lodge on the meeting night nearest the 11th day of November of each year.

This report if approved be subject to a proper proclamation by the Grand Master.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Report adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 30.

Fifth report, by Bro. R. B. Doan, of No. 152.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows:

We approve the report of the Deputy Grand Master, Grand Marshall and Grand Chaplain, also the report of the Grand Instructor and Assistant Grand Instructor.

We wish especially to commend the portion of the Grand Chaplain's Report relating to the preparation of a ritual for the marking of the death of our soldiers and sailors. We also wish to express our concurrence in the Grand Chaplain's suggestion that our lodges have not rightly comprehended the opportunities of "the Good of the Order" part of the meetings. We also concur in his suggestion that lodges should have a broad and active interest in all the uplift work of the community regardless of any special connection which the order may have with such work.

We also wish heartily to approve and commend that portion of the Grand Instructor's Report relating to "Our Country's Flag" and we will recommend that the Grand Lodge impress upon the Subordinate Lodges the use of the flag ceremony arranged by the Grand Instructor.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Report adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 31.

Sixth report.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows:

ON DOCUMENT No. 10.

Your committee to whom the subject matter in said document was referred, would respectfully submit the following report:

We concur in the suggestions that the War, Peace and Victory will bring to the present and future generations many important questions to solve, and that we concur that the developments in the arts and sciences will be greatly increased during the coming year, and we further concur that the problems of reconstruction which must bring new principles and new ideas into our modes of life and government. We also heartily concur that our boys at the age of 18 can fight and have fought with great valor, intelligence and good judgment, and that we can never repay them for the part which they took in giving us such a glorious Victory.

The committee believes that that portion of the document in reference to Suffrage in the United States is a matter that must be left to the law-makers of this government, and the committee believe that they have no right to pledge or to have pledged the individual members of this Grand Lodge to be compelled to act upon a question which legally belongs to the Legislative Department of our government, and therefore, do no concur upon the question of Suffrage introduced in said document, neither do they concur in attempting to pledge the individual to any act concerning the same. But upon that portion of the document where it states that the Illinois representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge be instructed to use their every honorable effort to have the age limit for admission into this Order reduced from 21 to 18 years, be concurred in and this Grand Lodge instruct their representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge to use all honorable means whereby the law shall be amended so as to admit the young men of 18 years to all the privileges and benefits of this Order.

Signed by theCommittee.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 32.

Report by Bro. E. R. Sayler, of No. 6.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Rebekah Degree would respectfully report as follows:

We have carefully considered the subject matter in the Grand Master's report headed, "New Rebekah Lodges," "Rebekah Lodges Closed," "Loss by Fire," "Changes of Name of Rebekah Lodges" and recommend the adoption of the same.

Third report Committee on Legislation.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows concerning document No. 12 which is a resolution to amend the by-laws of the Grand Lodge by adding to be known as Section 11 a.

We have carefully considered the resolution as offered and do not concur therein and we recommend that said resolution be amended by striking out the word "one" in the first line and inserting in lieu thereof the word "ten" and by striking out the word "majority" in the second line and inserting in lieu thereof "75%" so that said resolution when so amended shall read as follows:

Sec. 11 a. In cities and towns having more than ten Subordinate Lodges, the Lodges may by a 75% vote thereof, organize a General Relief Committee, composed of one or more members from each Lodge, such General Relief Committee to have charge of all sick and distressed visiting or sojourning members within the jurisdiction of such Lodges, with the same authority as to paying benefits. providing watchers or nurses, and otherwise caring for such visiting or sojourning members as is given to relief committees of Lodges, where no such General Relief Committee exists, and such General Relief Committee shall adopt rules and regulations to goven it, subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge. The expense of such General Relief Committee shall be borne equally by all the Lodges within its jurisdiction on a per capita basis, and provided that Lodges in adjoining cities or towns in the same county, may become affiliated with such General Relief Committee, and sharing in the expense thereof. And provided further, that the General Relief Committee may admit representatives from Rebekah Lodgs Encampments and Cantons.

The majority of your Committee further recommend that said resolution as amended be adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

DOCUMENT NO. 62.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Of the Committee on Legislation on Document No. 12 by a proposition to amend the Grand Lodge By-Laws by inserting a new section to be known as Section 11a.

The following members of the Committee on Legislation respectfully dissent from the conclusion reached by a majority of the Committee, and recommend that said proposed amendment to the By-Laws be not adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED B. MERRILLS,

DOCUMENT NO. 34.

Whereas, In the jurisdiction of Illinois, we have many Lodges whose financial and numerical strength have been impaired and by reason of their weakened condition they are unable to pay sick benefits;

And whereas, If they were permitted to suspend benefits until such time as they would be in a position to render the necessary and proper aid to their members, they would be of material benefit to the Order;

And whereas, This Grand Lodge has not the power to authorize its subordinates to suspend the payment of benefits;

And whereas, such legislation is desired;

Therefore, be it resolved, That the representatives of this Grand Lodge, through the Sovereign Grand Lodge, be instructed to present such legislation as may be necessary, at the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge as will permit Grand Bodies to authorize subordinate lodges to suspend the payment of benefits whenever these lodges may deem it necessary and for the best interests of the Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. LUDWIG, No. 105.

Approved and referred to Grand Representatives.

DOCUMENT NO. 35.

Whereas, For many years our Order has sustained tremendous losses by reason of our members being dropped for failure to pay dues and for various other reasons, and,

Whereas, We have many lodges in good territory which are dormant and are gradually becoming weaker in numerical and financial strength, and,

Whereas, The great World War has taken from all our lodges many members, from the weak as well as the strong, and,

Whereas, It will be necessary for our Order to aid especially these weak lodges whose members have been called to the service of our country, and,

Whereas, It is our duty as Odd Fellows to aid and assist all of our members and their families who have suffered by reason of injuries or death, and,

Whereas, The duties of the Grand Master are so great and so varied that it is impossible for him to visit all the lodges throughout the state, and,

Whereas, An earnest effort should be made to strengthen the weak and struggling lodges and to retain upon our membership books the names of all good Brothers, and,

Whereas, Much good could be accomplished by placing in the field a man, who on account of his experience and adaptability is especially qualified for work of this character, who would devote all or a portion of his time,

Therefore be it resolved, By this Grand Lodge that the Grand Master be empowered to take such steps as may seem to him to be advisable and adequate and to employ a competent Brother who will devote his talents and energy to work among the Lodges of the state, to give instructions to the officers and members, suggest ways and means, co-operate with the deputies, officers and members, systematize and organize the work throughout the state and do such other work as will inure to the benefit of our Order all under the direction and approval of the Grand Master, and that a sum not to exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) shall be appropriated, which amount shall cover all compensation and expenses connected therewith; and

Be it further resolved, That the Finance Committee in preparing and submitting its budget shall take into consideration the expense heretofore incurred by Special Deputies, traveling expenses and the expenses necessary, for holding schools of instruction, which shall make up a part of the appropriation aforesaid, and,

Be it further resolved, That this appropriation and the object and purposes of this resolution be for the purpose of the coming year only and shall not be considered permanent.

A. OTIS ARNOLD.

Resolution adopted.

MEMORIAL TO BROTHER ROBERT YARMO OF GOLDEN HARMONY, No. 917.

Brother Robert Yarmo, an active member of the Golden Harmony Lodge No. 917 enlisted as a private in the service of the Second Illinois National Guard. In 1916 he was called to the service of the United States government in the Mexican outbreak and served under General Pershing. He returned later and when the United States entered the war against Germany he again enlisted in his own regiment, which was later known as the Rainbow Division under General John J. Pershing. He was 37 years old and was a member of Golden Harmony Lodge for 12 years.

He was one of the first to leave for France and was mentioned for his heroism in several instances. He has been through several of the important battles and had specially trained himself for sniping. He was promoted to Top Sergeant. As well as being a good soldier he also was a good and active Odd Fellow. His memory will always be cherished by the Brothers and friends that knew him. He was killed in action on August 19, 1918.

Having closed his life in such fitting manner, let this memorial be inscribed in the records of this Grand Lodge as a perpetual respect and esteem for the valor and sacrifice which the Brother has so nobly given for the benefit of humanity and for the common good of all peoples of the world.

EMANUEL M. SOLOMON,
No. 917 Golden Harmony Lodge.

On motion of Bro. McKinley, of No. 41, the above was unanimously adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 37.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Early in the year, the Grand Master received a communication from the Illinois Centennial Commission asking that the Odd Fellows co-operate with that Commission in celebrating the hundredth anniversary of the admission of Illinois into the Union.

In response to that request, the Grand Master appointed the undersigned as a committee to represent the Order.

Owing to war conditions, the program outlined by the Centennial Commission could not be carried out in detail, and no action was taken by your Committee. Other fraternities were governed by the same conditions.

Later in the year the Grand Master reappointed the undersigned to outline a plan for the celebration, in Illinois, of the hundredth anniversary of our order. Acting for this Committee Past Grand Master, Owen Scott, prepared a brief history, entitled "Story of One Hundred Years" which has been published by the Grand Secretary in the form of a sixteen page folder. This contains essential facts of our history and "suggested program" for the use of Subordinate Lodges in observing the centennial of our order. Copies of this pamphlet and program may be obtained from the Grand Secretary. Your committee are of the opinion that this centennial furnishes an excellent opportunity to extend a knowledge of our work, both in our own ranks and among those who are not members of the order. We recommend that this anniversary be celebrated by all Lodges, and that the incoming Grand Master be requested to take such steps as he may deem desirable to aid in that work.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN J. CROWDER,
OWEN SCOTT,
JOHN H. SIKES,

ONE HUNDRED YEARS—A CENTURY OF ODD FELLOWSHIP.

American Odd Fellowship will be one hundred years old on April 19,1919. A century will then have passed since the seed was planted in the soil of the new world, the growth of which shows today the wide spreading tree of fraternity, the leaves of which are for the healing of the nations.

Material Progress of the World.

The last one hundred years have shown a greater advance in human achievement that the thousand preceding. The world has been transformed. The trinity of powers—steam, electricity, gasoline—has wrought modern miracles in the realm of material things. The railroad and the steamship, the life-blood of commerce; the telegraph, annihilating distance and making far away peoples nearest neighbors; the telephone, with its wireless mastery of the seas; the phonograph, recording, reproducing and preserving the words of orators and the music of singers, of bands and of orchestras; the flying machine, outstripping in speed and daring the fleetest denizens of the air, transforming the azure vault of the sky into an aerial ocean—these are but a few of the wonders wrought in the material domain by man's genius since the birth of American Odd Fellowship. It is a source of gratification to us that these mighty steps in human progress come largely from the hand and brain of citizens of our own country. Robert Fulton, Professor Morse, Alexander Graham Bell, Thomas Edison, Marconi, Wright—these are but a few of the names that stand as synonyms for the world's greatest material achievements.

Equal Progress in Social Uplift.

Great as these are, they scarcely outshine those men who have been benefactors of the human race in the domain of spiritual, social and fraternal developments. None in this galaxy of immortals stands out more brilliantly than that of Thomas Wildey. Modestly, without ostentation, wholly unconscious of the magnitude of his enterprise, he called together four kindred spirits and with their aid dropped into the friendly soil of human wants and worries the acorn of fraternity. This germinated and sent up its tender shoot which, nurtured by the warmth of friendly care and moistened by the grateful tears of its beneficiaries, stands today as the mighty oak of human brotherhood as represented by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Its Growth Marvelous.

The magnitude of the growth of the Order is shown by the statement of a recent Grand Sire who said, "Wonderful has been the development of this fraternity. In 1819 one lodge and five members; in 1917, over 200 Grand Bodies (Grand Lodges, Grand Encampments and Rebekah Assemblies) and considerably more than 30,000 Subordinate bodies, with a membership of 2, 225,707" being 1,694,090 Odd Fellows and 531,617 Rebekahs. In little less than one hundred years this amazing record is made. Figures cannot alone tell the great blessings

Odd Fellowship has brought to the world. The lessons of Friendship, Love and Truth have been taught to many millions of men, women and children. Many of these rest from their labors and their names remain on the rolls of the army of our honored dead.

Firmly Through the Ages.

Shaken lightly by the hand of time the sands of the glass have run until the century mark has almost been reached. The reason that, through all the storms and stress of the past 100 years, our great Fraternity has stood the test of time is that it is built upon a sure foundation. Its fundamentals are Friendship, Love and Truth. On this platform its laws of service have been built. Its aim and mission are "to visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead, comfort the widow and educate the orphan." In proportion to its faithfulness to this platform and motto its achievements may be justly measured. The multi-millions spent in weekly benefits, when the bread-winner has been brought low by the heavy hand of disease, testify that the distressed have been relieved. Other vast sums, paid as funeral benefits, with fraternal attention during the home's Gethsemane, show that the injunction "to bury the dead" has not been ignored. That the sick have been visited is the weekly record of every lodge in existence.

The Homes Demonstrate.

The relief of the distressed needs no other demonstration than our well-equipped Odd Fellows' Home at Mattoon. The only rival this superb provision for the aged and infirm has encountered is the Home for Children at Lincoln. Here for almost thirty years the orphans of Odd Fellows have had the tenderest and most loving care and the best educational equipment money can provide. The hundreds of young men and women sent out into active and vigorous life, prove that in this branch of useful service the Order of Odd Fellows has not been derelict. Among those who have graduated from the Home, many are in the service of their country in its great battle for the universal freedom of the human race.

Our Centenary Coming.

April 26, 1919, will complete the first 100 years of Odd Fellowship in America. Twenty-five years ago, in celebrating the 75th anniversary some one said "our prosperity during the last quarter of a century has no parallel in history." This may be looked upon as a strong statement, but it is doubtful if any one can successfully gainsay it. When all phases are considered not alone in increase in wealth and membership, but in its multitude of good works in the lives of men, women and children, the claim of unparalleled achievement is not an extravagant one.

A Look Backward.

As the centenary mile-post is approached, it is natural to take a survey of the past. A brief historical sketch of American Odd Fellowship will, therefore, be of interest and value. The Order was born beyond the seas. It is stated upon good authority that "the Order of Odd Fellows originated in England in the 18th century. In the early part of the century beginning with 1700 the celebrated Daniel DeFoe mentions the Society of Odd Fellows and in the Gentlemen's Magazine for 1745, the Odd Fellows' Lodge is mentioned as 'a place where very pleasant and recreative evenings are spent.' The poet James Montgomery, in 1788, wrote a song for a body of Odd Fellows."

The early English lodges were supported and the members relieved by each one, whether member or visitor, paying a penny to the secretary on entering the lodge. These lodges were formed originally by workingmen for social purposes to assist each other in obtaining employment.

No Ritual Then.

In these early bodies there was little or no ritual. Business was conducted in a very informal manner. At first there was no unity of organization. Each lodge was a law unto itself. At length, however, they learned the forceful lesson of our Memento, the bundle of sticks. Consequently in 1809 came the formation of the Manchester Unity, the greatest beneficial society in the world. The presiding officer in the lodges was called the Noble Grand as in our work today. From the foregoing it will be seen that Odd Fellowship has its roots in the past and that, in its conception, it is not a young and modern institution.

Transplanted to America.

From the highly respectable parentage of English Odd Fellowship was born the American branch on April 26, 1819. Many vain attempts were made prior to this to transplant the Order to the New World. It was left for Thomas Wildey and his four associates to plant the seed that germinated into American Odd Fellowship. Thomas Wildey was born in London, January 15, 1782. It is said of him that "on reaching manhood he was initiated into an Odd Fellows' Lodge in which he distinguished himself by his zeal and integrity." This was prior to the organization of the Manchester Unity. As there was no general governing body any one could organize a lodge at his pleasure. In his enthusiasm for the Order he gathered others together and they organized a new lodge in London, known as Morning Star Lodge No. 38. He continued to be actively interested and more than once passed through the chairs. Lured by favorable reports from America, in 1817 he embarked for the new land, the symbol of opportunity.

Got Busy at Once.

He came to the City of Baltimore, a stranger in a strange country. Among Englishmen he early met John Welch, an Odd Fellow. At once he began to take preliminary steps to form a lodge. Three others must be found as the required number was five. Through an advertisement in a Baltimore paper the needed three were soon secured. There were Richard Rushworth, John Duncan and John Cheatham, all members of the Order in England. On the 26th of April, this charmed number met at the Seven Stars Inn in Baltimore and organized themselves into "Washington Lodge of Odd Fellows." This was in accordance with the ancient custom of automatic organization. Thus was the frail bark launched upon a wide, unknown and, as it proved to be, a stormy sea. Thomas Wildey was the Noble Grand and John Welch the Vice Grand of the first lodge of Odd Fellows in America. Later Henry M. Jackson came from England for the prime purpose of introducing the Order in this country. He found that his mission had been ante-dated by Wildey and his associates. Thereupon, he instructed them in the changed regulations of the English branch.

An English Charter Secured.

Subsequently P. G. Crowder of Preston, England, visited Baltimore. On his return he secured the issue of a charter for this new lodge. This was dated February 1, 1820, but it did not reach Baltimore until October 23. From that time the embryo body of this great fraternity in America was considered legally organized at the first lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

The struggle for growth or even existence of this pioneer of fraternity was great and often the outcome was in grave doubt. Discord and dissensions arose and threatened the very life of the lodge. At length the disturbing elements withdrew and the lodge was saved. The disgruntled sought to organize a new lodge to be called Franklin under the Manchester Unity. They were refused a charter and the effort failed. Washington Lodge thus had supreme authority in America.

When the Grand Lodge of Maryland and the United States was formed it granted to Franklin Lodge a charter under date of August 22, 1821. This lodge is still in active operation. In September, 1819, the number in the original body had grown from five to nineteen members. In the early days there was a great prejudice against "secret societies." This even went so far as to result in the nomination of a candidate for the Presidency of the United States pledged to destroy these alleged enemies of the government.

A Paradox in Organization.

Washington Lodge stands unique in the history of the Order. It was at one and the same time a Subordinate and a Grand Body. This anomalous condition did not long continue. After full consideration, it was unanimously decided that a Grand Lodge of legislative capacity, separate from working lodges, should be established. Accordingly Washington Lodge willingly surrendered to the Grand Lodge, when formed, the charter received from the Duke of York's Lodge in England. The Grand Lodge of Maryland and the United States was then formed and became the supreme governing body for Odd Fellowship for the world. Naturally, Thomas Wildey was made Grand Master and John Welch, Grand Secretary. On February 9, 1822, this new Grand Lodge granted another charter to the original body as Washington Lodge No. 1. The second Grand Lodge to be organized was that of Massachusetts. A lodge was formed at Boston, March 26, 1820, under the impression that it was the only lodge in this country. Being advised that the Grand Lodge of Maryland and the United States was in existence with full authority from England, they immediately recognized this body as possessed of supreme authority and asked for a charter for Massachusetts Lodge No. 1. This was granted and a dispensation also issued for a Grand Lodge with authority over lodges in that state. On the 9th day of June, 1823, Grand Master Wildey instituted the lodge and on the 11th the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts. Other Grand Lodges were speedily organized in the various states.

Another Complication.

The situation became more complicated than ever when Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania had Grand Lodges and the Maryland Grand Lodge was still in partnership with the Grand Lodge of the United States. To avoid this anomalous condition, it was proposed to divorce the Grand Lodge of Maryland from the Grand Lodge of the United States, leaving the State Grand Body on a par with those of other states. This was done and the Grand Lodge of the United States organized on January 15, 1825. Thomas Wildey was made the first Grand Master and John Welch Deputy Grand Master. These were two of the original five constituting the first lodge at Baltimore.

Father Wildey.

It will thus be seen that Thomas Wildey has been successively Noble Grand of Washington Lodge, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maryland and the United States and of the Sovereign body, the Grand Lodge of the United States. Most appropriately he may be referred to by Odd Fellows as "Father Wildey." At the annual meeting April 25, 1826, the titles of the two principal officers were changed, by common consent, to Grand Sire and Deputy Grand Sire. During 1826 Grand Sire Wildey visited England, to gain information from the Manchaster Unity for the benefit of the Order in the United States. He was received most cordially by the English Brethren.

Illinois Organized.

The Grand Lodge of Illinois was instituted at Alton, August 22, 1838, with the following officers: S. C. Pierce, Grand Master; A. Botkin, Deputy Grand Master; D. B. Berry, Grand Warden; S. L. Miller, Grand Secretary and I. R. Wood Grand Chaplain. The first lodge in Illinois was Western Star No. 1, at Alton, instituted June 11, 1836. Wildey Encampment No. 1 was also instituted at Alton. This was two years later, July 11, 1838. The Grand Encampment was organized at Peoria, July 24, 1850. The headquarters of the Grand Lodge were located at Springfield, April 25, 1842, remaining there to this day and now in the Grand Lodge's own permanent building.

What Illinois Has Done.

In the 72 years since the first lodge was organized at Alton the wonderful growth in number of lodges and in membership shows the persistently faithful spirit of those who have gone before us. There are approximately 1,000 lodges, or to be exact, 991. There were at the last report 108,916 members in Subordinate; 62,800 Rebekah, and 14,117 in Encampments. Such a vast army as this can work miracles in any good cause undertaken.

A few figures will show that the work of Odd Fellows is not one of mere show but of substantial help to those in need. During the last year the sum spent for relief aggregates $389,850.51, as shown by the records. These figures tell their own story of sick rooms, death chambers and other needful ministrations. To show that there need be no fear of lack of ability to continue to do this great work, it is only necessary to say that the resources of all lodges in the state make the gigantic sum of $4,097,316.44, as shown in the latest reports.

Our War Work.

During the strenuous days since our country has been involved in the world war for the liberation of mankind, our great fraternity has shown its patriotism in the most intense form. Thousands of our members at the first opportunity sprang to arms and are wearing the uniforms of military service across the seas. To see that these are properly cared for and their lodge membership secure, the Grand Lodge at its last session appropriated $40,000.00 for their relief. In addition to this it was enacted that each lodge should pay the dues of all soldier or sailor members, while in the service. In every great war movement among Odd Fellows there have been no slackers. Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps have been bought by our members with generous hands. The Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army and other organizations recognized by military authorities have found greatest interest and activity in their behalf among Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Orphans and Dependents.

In no place can be found in such tangible and concrete form the real heart of our fraternity as in the Homes at Lincoln and Mattoon. Here our children, bereft of their natural supporters and protectors and the aged, infirm and indigent Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are given every comfort and attention that fraternal hearts and hands can conceive or prepare. Each Odd Fellow in Illinois gladly pays $1.00 per year into a special fund, sacredly set apart for the Homes. If necessary no one would object to the payment of a much greater sum. Our children of youth and age are carefully and tenderly guarded and supported.

The Rebekah Branch.

No sketch of the Order of Odd Fellows would approach completion without some reference to the Rebekah branch. The opportunity for women to supplement the work of man in practicing the noble deeds of fraternity was early recognized as essential to the fullest measure of efficiency. The relation of the two branches is fitly described in these lines:

"The vigorous oak, with branches long,
The clinging ivy twines,
Till both, so firmly knit and strong,
Their beauteous grace combines."

Many futile efforts were made to organize a ladies' branch of the Order long before it was permanently established. Year after year this was considered by the Grand Lodge but no definite action was taken until 1851. A special committee of three was appointed in 1849, consisting of Representative Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, Past Grand Sire Kennedy of New York and Judge Larue of New Orleans. The two latter made a report unfavorable to the establishment of a degree for women. Schuyler Colfax, afterward Vice President of the United States, was not easily turned from his purpose. As a minority of the committee, he presented his views strongly urging the creation of the branch for the activities of the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of Odd Fellows. After an able discussion the minority view prevailed. Brother Colfax was made chairman of a committee to prepare the ritual. This he wrote and it was reported and adopted at the session in September 1851.

What Gave It the Name.

The name was no doubt selected because of the incident which took place at the well of Nahor, where Eliezer, the faithful servant of Abraham appeared, weary from travel, stopped to drink and water his camels. Rebekah, as was the custom of that day, had gone to carry water to her home. Eliezer said to the beautiful maiden, "Let me drink, I pray thee." She drew the water and replied, "Drink and I will give thy camels drink also."

She urged the weary stranger to accompany her to her father's home and tarry for the night. This beautiful, Biblical incident enabled the servant of Abraham to fulfill his mission. Rebekah returned with Eliezer and became the bride of Isaac, the son of Abraham. As she was ready to respond to the needs of a weary traveler her name was chosen as suitable to designate the great work of woman in Odd Fellowship. At first the title of this degree was "Daughters of Rebekah," but, as men were admitted, it seemed inappropriate that they should be called "daughters." Hence, after a time, the name was changed to the "Degree of Rebekah."

The Great Work of Rebekahs.

The wonderful work done in relief of children and others in distress by the Rebekahs proves conclusively the wisdom of the action creating the degree for women. In Illinois they took the lead in establishing the Orphans' Home at Lincoln and tendered it as a gift to the Grand Lodge. They have since been ever on the alert to render invaluable assistance in maintaining and extending its scope and usefulness. The Rebekahs were seriously considering the problem of an Old Folks' Home when the Grand Lodge took it up and solved it by building the Home at Mattoon. The Rebekahs have contributed freely here again as they did for the children at Lincoln.

The Encampment Branch.

Patriarchal Odd Fellowship began with the organization of "Encampment Lodge No. 1," chartered by the Grand Lodge of Maryland, May 15, 1827, John L. Ridgely, the historian, said of the meeting: "A novel and startling feature was proposed. This was that a lodge should be chartered for the sole purpose of conferring the Patriarchal, Golden Rule and Royal Purple degrees and that the Grand Lodge should resign the right to confer them into the hands of the members of the proposed body." Owing to defects in the original charter a new one was issued in 1829 and the name changed to "Encampment of Patriarchs." Power was given it "to grant dispensations for opening an encampment to all faithful Odd Fellows throughout the globe."

This original body later adopted as its name "Jerusalem Encampment No. 1." Since then, beginning with Pennsylvania, Grand Encampments have been established in the various states and provinces under the obedience of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The membership is large and the work done of great value to the Order. Equal representation with Grand Lodges is accorded Grand Encampments in the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The Uniformed Branch.

The name adopted for the Uniformed Degree Camp is Patriarchs Militant. This has grown into a regularly organized military department with a distinct and separate organization. The uniforms make a marked impression wherever a body of Patriarchs Militant appears. This has added materially to the growth of Odd Fellowship in attracting those who love the spectacular and enjoy the display in the military features.

SUGGESTED PROGRAM

For Lodges in Observance of the Centennial of Odd Fellowship in America.

1. The Flag Ceremony and singing of "America."
2. Prayer by a minister of the gospel.
3. Appropriate music—vocal and instrumental.
4. Brief history of lodge, with names of those in Army and Navy service.
5. Historical address on Odd Fellowship—Subordinate, Rebekah and Patriarchal. In the absence of a speaker read this historical sketch.

6. Sing "First Odd Fellows' Song." (See last page.)
7. Brief address on the work of our Homes.
8. A social hour.

First Odd Fellows' Song.

In 1788 the poet, James Montgomery, wrote the first Odd Fellows' Song ever known to have been printed. The society called the Ancient and Honorable Loyal Odd Fellows had a demonstration and social entertainment. For this he composed the song printed herewith. It can be sung to the tune, "Shining Shore," or "Auld Lang Syne."

I.

When Friendship, Love and Truth abound,
Among a band of brothers,
The cup of joy goes daily round,
Each shares the bliss of others.
Sweet roses grace the thorny way
Along the vale of sorrow,
The flowers that held their leaves today
Shall bloom again tomorrow.

II.

On halcyon wings our moments pass,
Life's cruel cares beguiling.
Old Time lays down his scythe and glass,
In gay good humor smiling.
With ermine beard and forelock gray
His reverend front adorning,
He looks like Winter turned to May,
Night softened into morning.

III.

From these delightful fountains flow
Ambrosial rills of pleasure.
Can man desire, can heaven bestow,
A more resplendent treasure.
Adorned with gems so richly bright
We'd form a constellation,
Where every star with modest light
Shall gild his proper station.

There were two additional lines repeated at the end of each stanza. They are:

"How grand in age, how fair in youth,
Are holy Friendship, Love and Truth."

These are omitted as they do not fit in with the tune suggested.

DOCUMENT NO. 38.

Be it resolved, By the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Illinois, that from and after January 1st, 1919, it shall be illegal for any Subordinate Lodge under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, having less than 150 members in good standing to pay for the services of Secretaries more than $35.00 per calendar year whether the work be done by one Secretary or two.

Respectfully submitted,

DOCUMENT NO. 39.

Concerning the war welfare work being done at Great Lakes Naval Training Station by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Waukegan, and reported on by the Grand Master,

And whereas, The $100.00 per month given by the War Relief Committee has been far from sufficient—the Waukegan members, supplying the deficit,

And whereas, The growing needs of the Odd Fellows' work among the Jackies, requires at the very lowest, $300.00 per month,

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge authorize the supplying of that amount to the Waukegan Odd Fellows' work among Odd Fellows of Great Lakes.

Ninth report, by Bro. J. Ewing Davis, P.G.M., of No. 990.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

In regard to Document No. 7 found on page 20 of Tuesday's Journal offered by Brother J. Belanger of No. 238 and others.

Your committee offered Document No. 5, found on page 15 of Tuesday's Journal. This resolution was adopted providing that an amount equal to three (3c) cents mileage be appropriated in addition to the regular mileage of five (5c) cents.

Your committee were of the opinion that this action at yesterday's session by the Grand Lodge was satisfactory to its members as it was unanimously passed, and we would respectfully ask to be excused from any further consideration of this resolution.

Fraternally submitted,
SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

DOCUMENT NO. 42.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Whereas, That inasmuch as the present time for holding the sessions of the Grand Lodge makes it inconvenient or impossible for many of the members to attend, either as representatives or Past Grands, on account of the usually inclement weather during the month of November; therefore, be it

Resolved, That Section 1 of Article 7 of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge which reads as follows: "The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the third Tuesday in November. This meeting shall be styled the annual session. Special meetings shall be held on the call of the Grand Master. When in annual or special session fifty representative members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the Grand Lodge may adjourn from time to time until the business of the session shall have been disposed of. The annual session shall be held in the City of Springfield, except when otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote of the Grand Lodge convened in annual session. A special session shall be held at the time and place designated by the Grand Master in the call," shall be amended to read as follows:

"The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the First Tuesday in October. This meeting shall be styled the annual session. Special meetings shall be held on the call of the Grand Master. When in annual or special session fifty representative members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the Grand Lodge may adjourn from time to time until the business of the

DOCUMENT NO. 43.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals to whom was referred that part of the Grand Master's Report entitled "Decisions" covering Question. Are the children of a deceased Brother, half orphans, eligible for admission to the Home when the Brother at the time of his death was not a beneficiary member of his Lodge, not having been a member for the required time?

Answer. Yes. We cannot assume that, because the Brother was not entitled to sick benefits while living, the same rule would apply to his orphan children. The responsibility for denying such children the care of the home might be irreparable, and for that reason the decision must be that, the Brother being in good standing though not beneficiary his orphan children are entitled to admission to the home if otherwise eligible.

Respectfully report that we find nothing in the laws of the order or the rules adopted by the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home to prevent the said Board of Directors from admitting into the home the children of a deceased Brother, half orphans, eligible for admission to the home provided the Brother, at the time of his death be in good standing, but not a beneficiary member, having not been a member for the required time, and provided further that in the judgment of the board such admission is advisable.

It must be understood that such admission would in all respects be subject to the rules adopted by the Board of Directors and particularly rule No. 11 regarding the payment to the Board of Directors, by the surviving parent of such sum in advance as the board deems proper.

We, therefore, recommend that the decision of the Grand Master be approved.

JOHN W. FLING, Jr.,
For the Committee.

Eighth report, by Bro. George F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report on the matters in the Grand Officers' reports referred to them as follows:

On that part of the Grand Master's letter dated April 15, 1918, entitled Investment of Lodge Funds, and that part of his letter dated September 28, 1918, entitled U. S. Bonds and Liberty Bond Investments, we heartily concur in same and commend the spirit of patriotism that prompted the letter. That part of the report entitled Finances of Subordinate Lodges, we heartily approve of same, which means added protection and care for those of our members who might have been disabled in the war. We do not feel, however, at this time, that any additional legislation should be had—as the resolution passed at the last session of the Grand Lodge under its terms is in force for one year after the war.

Regarding that part of the Prager case which mentions the expense of $75.00 to cover legal services and expense account of Bro. Fred B. Merrills, we recommend that same be approved.

Eleventh report, by Bro. J. Ewing Davis, P.G.M., of No. 990.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your committee beg leave to report that the subject matter contained in Document No. 9, offered by Minonk Lodge, No. 377, has been fully covered in the report of the Finance Committee made at the 1917 session, Document No. 84, page 404 of the 1917 Grand Lodge Journal, and we would respectfully refer the Brothers to said report and the action taken by the Grand Lodge.

We do not consider that it is necessary to go into further details and reiterate what was said at that time, and we would respectfully ask to be excused from further consideration of this resolution.

Introduced by Owen Scott.

Amend Art. 4, Sec. 2, Constitution of the Grand Lodge by striking out the word "Lodge" in 22nd line of said section and inserting the word "district" in said line.

Amend Art. 6, Sec. 1, Subordinate Constitution, by striking out the word "Lodge" in the 8th line and inserting the word "district" in its stead.

Laid over for one year.

DOCUMENT NO. 48.

Introduced by Owen Scott.

Amend the Grand Lodge Constitution by striking out Article 5 and inserting the following:

ARTICLE 5.

134½ Districts—Section 1. The State of Illinois shall be divided into districts, having regard to population, geographical location and convenience. The Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretary shall form the districts. The officers named shall make such changes in the districts as conditions require.

Section 2. One District Deputy Grand Master shall be appointed and commissioned by the Grand Master in each district, the term of his service to be one year from the December 1st succeeding his appointment. He shall be a resident of his district and a member of a lodge therein. He shall be responsible alone to the Grand Master, obey his instructions and perform such duties as are required by the Grand Master or the laws of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master in his discretion shall have the power at any time to remove any District Deputy. The District Deputy shall be subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of his lodge the same as any other member.

Section 3. Every District Deputy Grand Master shall visit each lodge in his district at least once each year. He shall thoroughly examine its records and accounts and ascertain the condition of the lodge and report the same to the Grand Master with such recommendations as conditions may warrant.

Section 4. On the 15th of October of each year every District Deputy Grand Master shall make a report to the Grand Master of his official acts during the year. He shall set forth the condition of the lodges in his district and suggest such measures as he may deem to be for the general good of the Order. The Grand Secretary shall furnish a blank on which this report shall be made. A summary of the reports of the District Deputy Grand Master shall be published in the Journal.

Section 5. Officers of Subordinate Lodges shall be instaled at the times fixed in the Subordinate Constitution. The District Deputy Grand Master shall be the installing officer when present. When the District Deputy Grand Master is unable, for any reason, personally to install the officers, he may authorize, in writing, some qualified Past Grand to act for him at such installation. It shall be the duty of the Grand Secretary to transmit the semi-annual password and his instructions thereon to the Secretary of each lodge. The Secretary shall give the same to the installing officer, whose duty it shall be to communicate the password to the Noble Grand immediately after his installation.

Twelfth report, by Bro. Cicero J. Lindley, of No. 3.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows: Relative to document No. 11 page 23 of Tuesday's Journal offered by Brother William Nathan and others:

Your Committee is of the opinion that a splendid work is being done by the Odd Fellows League and Relief Board in the City of Chicago but this work in its character is largely local. It is true that this organization is called upon to extend relief to many members of the Order without the jurisdiction of Illinois and also without the City of Chicago, but work of this character is being done by all the cities of the State of Illinois and while your Committee would be glad to recommend that financial aid be extended by this Grand Lodge yet we are of the opinion that it would be a bad precedent and that in case this Grand Lodge should extend aid to this organization, then it would be the duty of this Grand Lodge to extend aid to all other cities within the jurisdiction of Illinois, and we deem that this is not advisable but would refer this to the incoming Grand Master for his consideration.

Bro. George Harland, Grand Master of the Jurisdiction of Michigan, was then introduced and addressed the Grand Lodge on the subject of the fraternal mission of Odd Fellowship.

Bro. Fred A. Rogers, Grand Secretary of the same Jurisdiction, followed Bro. Harland in the same strain, both brothers being applauded with great and prolonged cheers.

On behalf of the Grand Lodge the Grand Master presented to Bro. James N. Brown, of No. 57, at Chester, a 50-year jewel, having been initiated March 26th, 1866. Bro. Brown responded feelingly.

On motion of Bro. Owen Scott the appeal of Price Johnson vs. Russellville Lodge, No. 911, was dismissed and the judgment of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee affirmed.

The Grand Master appointed the following brothers to fill vacancies on the Committee on the State of the Order—James Jeffries, of No. 639; J. Johansen, of No. 412.

There being no further business, the Closing Ode was sung, the Chaplain offered prayer and the Grand Master declared the Grand Lodge closed until 8:30 Thursday morning.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1918

Representatives' Hall, State House,
Thursday, Nov. 21, 1918, 8:30 O'Clock A. M.

The Grand Lodge met pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Blood in the chair.

Present: All Grand Officers and a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Marshal, with his assistants, having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Daily Journal of yesterday was received and distributed.

Also a copy of the "Illinois Blue Book," by courtesy of the Secretary of State Hon. Louis L. Emerson.

On motion a rising vote of thanks was extended to the Secretary of State for his courtesy and thoughtfulness.

On motion of Bro. Owen Scott, P.G.M., the rules were suspended and all reports and resolutions were acted upon on presentation.

A call was made as to the number of sons, grandsons, brothers or other relations of members in the service of our country willing to pay the supreme sacrifice that liberty may prevail. It was found that nearly all present responded.

Bro. A. B. Chadwick, of No. 214, presented to the Grand Master some historical documents handed to him just prior to his death, by the late Samuel Willard, author of Willard's Code of the laws of Odd Fellowship in Illinois. These were accepted on behalf of the Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master announced appointment to fill vacancy on Committee on Legislation—George Omer, of No. 215.

DOCUMENT NO. 57.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

DEAR BROTHERS: The following legislation has been adopted by the Rebekah State Assembly now in session and the approval of the Grand Lodge is respectfully asked.

CHANGE IN ASSEMBLY BY-LAWS.

Article 1, Section 1 of the By-Laws of the Assembly shall be amended to read:

Article I—Salaries of Officers.

Section 1. The salary of the President shall be six hundred dollars ($600) per annum, and expenses not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars ($250); that the salary of the Secretary shall be nine hundred dollars ($900) per annum, and necessary expenses; that of the Treasurer, one hundred dollars ($100) per year and necessary office expenses; that of the Chief of Examiners, two hundred dollars ($200) per annum and necessary office expenses. The Vice-President shall be allowed an amount not to exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) and the warden an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per annum to be used as traveling expenses in the interests of the Order.

ADDITION TO REBEKAH LODGE CONSTITUTION.

The following shall be added to Article XI, Section 4, to read:

Section 4. (a). HOME DUES. In addition to the dues provided by the By-Laws of the Lodge, each member shall pay an additional sum of twenty cents per annum, payable semi-annually, which sum shall be used for the maintenance, repairs or other such things as may be deemed advisable to purchase for the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, as recommended by the State President and Auxiliary and Advisory Boards of these Homes, subject to the approval of the Trustees of said Homes. It shall be the duty of the Financial Secretary to collect these payments in the same manner and order as other payments or dues and remit the same to the Assembly Secretary with the per capita tax.

Fraternally submitted,

MAE E. CROWELL, . . .

The foregoing is approved. E. R. SAYLER,

For the Committee on Rebekah Degree.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 58.

To the Rebekah State Assembly of Illinois:

WHEREAS, We are of the opinion that a change every six (6) months in the office of Noble Grand (which is the most essential office in the Lodge) as much of the welfare and prosperity depends upon her judgment and discretion;

THEREFORE, We believe that a term of six (6) months as presiding officer, neither does that officer justice, or gives the Lodge a capable officer except for a very short duration, as a Noble Grand upon assuming her duties is usually very nervous and timid in her station for the first few meetings, and with Lodges meeting twice a month, the term is therefore nearly half expired when the Noble Grand begins to do her best work in the office and to change the presiding officer at that time is not, in our opinion, for the best interests of the Lodge. In so short a time as six months, many Lodges find it very hard to elect an officer as Vice Grand who will be able and competent in every respect to fulfill the duties as Noble Grand in six months time, as nothing adds to a Lodge or a meeting of any kind, or makes it as interesting and dignified as much as to have it conducted in a good business like manner by a capable and efficient officer presiding.

Also the office of Recording Secretary is a very important one as this officer should be very accurate in recording the minutes and the affairs and business of the Lodge and transacting the various other duties incumbent on such an officer, and we deem it as important to retain this officer in office for one year instead of the short term of six months.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That Section 2, Article VI, of the Constitution for Rebekah Lodges of Illinois which reads as follows:

ELECTIONS WHEN HELD.

The elective officers (except the Treasurer, and Financial Secretary) shall be nominated and elected on the first regular meeting in June and December and shall hold their respective offices for six months and until their successors shall have been installed. They shall be installed at the first meeting in January and July. The Treasurer and Financial Secretary (if there be one) shall be elected in December and shall be installed at the first meeting in January. If a public installation of officers be held it may be at any other time than that specified above but not prior to the first meeting in January and July.

That the same be changed to read as follows:

ELECTIONS WHEN HELD.

Article VI, Section 2. The elective officers, that of Noble Grand, Vice Grand, Recording Secretary, Treasurer and Financial Secretary (if there be one) shall be nominated and elected on the first regular meeting in December and shall hold their respective offices for a term of twelve months and until their successors shall have been installed. They shall be installed at the first meeting in January. If a public installation of officers be held, it may be at any other time than that specified above but not prior to the first meeting in January.

If the same be approved we recommend that it be effective for the next term of office, beginning January first.

Not approved.

E. R. SAYLER,
Chairman for Rebekah Committee.

Report was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 59.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

DEAR BROTHERS: The following recommendation of the President, Sister Irene W. Cooper, has been unanimously approved by the Rebekah State Assembly now in session.

"I recommend that we ask the Grand Lodge to restore the Chapel Organ fund, of the Old Folks' Home, now in their treasury, to the Rebekah Assembly treasury, to be used as needed for the benefit of the Old Folks' Home."

The history of the Chapel Organ Fund is hereto attached.

Fraternally submitted,

MAE E. CROWELL,
Secretary.

Approved by the committee.

E. R. SAYLER,
Chairman for the Committee.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 60.

HISTORY OF CHAPEL ORGAN FUND.

During the term of Mrs. Ella Watson Reeve, as President of the Rebekah State Assembly (1908-1909) a "silver offering" was asked from the Rebekahs of Illinois for the benefit of the Homes.

That given to the Old Folks' Home to be used for a pipe organ for the chapel and known as the "Chapel Organ Fund."

October 31, 1910 the proceeds of this fund, to the amount of $793.45 was sent to J. R. Watson, Supt. Old Folks' Home, on voucher drawn and signed by Mae E. Crowell, President, and Mary P. Miller, Secretary.

The sum of $53.00 had been received at the Home for this fund, making a total of $846.45 contributed by the Rebekahs for Chapel Organ Fund.

The records of this transaction are found in Rebekah Journal of 1909, pages 3623-3624 and Journal of 1910, page 3984.

Grand Lodge Journal of 1910, pages 191-205, Journal 1911, page 232. In each Grand Lodge Journal down to the present date this amount of $846.45 is carried in the summary of the funds of the Old Folks' Home and the keeping of the Grand Treasurer.

It has been decided by the Trustees and Advisory Board of the Old Folks' Home that it is not advisable to have a pipe organ in the chapel.

Therefore the Rebekah Assembly respectfully request that this money be restored to the Assembly treasury and be used for the benefit of the old Folks' Home.

DOCUMENT NO. 61.

At the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1917 the following was adopted. (See p. 328, 1917, Illinois Grand Lodge Journal.)

MINIMUM BENEFIT LAW.

The Minimum Benefit Law was amended by striking out the requirement that, after one year, not less than one dollar per week shall be paid during the continuance of said sickness. In other words the compulsory part is eliminated.

The bennfits paid by Subordinate Lodges shall not be less than two dollars per week until the Brother shall have received fifty-two weeks' benefits, and shall be paid weekly.

Grand Bodies shall have power and authority to enact By-Laws abolishing weekly benefits, after the payment of fifty-two weeks' benefits, and authorizing Subordinate Lodges to do the same.

Resolved, That we amend the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, Section 9, Article X, by striking out the second proviso and inserting in lieu thereof, "that this Lodge may provide in its By-Laws that the payment of sick benefits may be discontinued to Brothers who may have been sick and received sick benefits continuously for the period of one year. Said article to read as follows when amended.

Weekly Benefits Section 9, Article X. Every beneficiary member of this Lodge, in case of sickness or disability not caused by vice or immorality on his part, shall be entitled to and receive from the funds of the Lodge such weekly benefits as may be fixed by the By-Laws, not less than $2.00 a week; but no sick benefits shall be allowed for less than a week's sickness or for the fractional part of a week: Provided, that this Lodge may provide in its By Laws for a sick benefit to be paid to third degree members only, entitled to benefits; but if benefits are allowed at all to members of the initiatory, first and second degrees, it must not be at a less rate than $2.00 per week: Provided further, that this Lodge may provide in its By-Laws that the payment of sick benefits may be discontinued to Brothers who may have been sick and received sick benefits continuously for the period of one year: Provided, further, that when a third degree member has received the maximum rate of benefits for one year and then is declared off the sick list, he shall not again be entitled to the maximum rate of benefits until one year after he has been declared off the sick list: Provided further, that this lodge may provide by By-Law that no benefit shall be paid for the first one or two weeks of such sickness, or disability: Provided further, that a Brother who is ill outside of the jurisdiction of this Lodge, in order to receive benefits, shall furnish the Lodge a certificate of a regular practicing physician in the following form:

To the Officers and Members of Lodge No....., I. O. O. F.:

I, ...a practicing physician, residing at.....hereby certify that I have professionally attended .....at..... that he is suffering from.....; that such..... was caused by..... and well acquainted wih Dr.....who that my first visit was on the.....day of....., 19... and my last on the.....day of....., 19....; that in my opinion, he has been unable to follow his avocation of .....or any other work from the .....day of....., 19...., to the .....day of....., 19....; and that such.....was not caused on account of intemperance or any other immoral conduct.

DOCUMENT NO. 63.

Thirteenth report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

In regard to Document No. 39 offered by R. H. T. Nesbitt of No. 793 that the subject matter of his resolution pertains to a request for a monthly allowance for work done for the benefit of Odd Fellow Sailors of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station at Waukegan, Ill., and therefore should be referred to the War Relief Commission for consideration.

Fraternally submitted,

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 64.

Fourteenth report by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 990.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

Relative to document No. 35 offered by Past Grand Master A. Otis Arnold proposing to secure a field man to devote his talent and energy to work among the lodges of this state. This committee has realized the weak conditions of many lodges throughout the state for several years and have endeavored to co-operate in every way possible in endeavoring to strengthen these lodges, but are of the opinion that it is impossible for the Grand Master during his term of office to make but very little progress in overcoming conditions set forth in this resolution. We believe that this Grand Lodge should make earnest effort to strengthen the weak and struggling lodges of this state and we further believe that the trial should be made as to the methods proposed in this resolution.

We therefore recommend that the Grand Master be empowered to employ a competent Brother who will devote his talent and energy to work among the lodges of the state, to give instructions to the officers and members, suggest ways and means, co-operate with the Deputies, Officers and members, systemitize and organize the work throughout the state under the direction of the Grand Master. At the last session of the Grand Lodge there was appropriated the sum of $500.00 for the purpose of assisting weak lodges. We believe that this amount should be increased by adding thereto the additional sum of $1500.00 making the total sum $2000.00, which should be appropriated to cover the compensation and expenses connected with the employment of a competent man by the Grand Master.

We further recommend that this appropriation should be for the coming year only, and not to be considered permanent.

The Grand Master is willing that $600.00 of the $1200.00 usually allowed for the Grand Master's stenographer be applied towards bearing a portion of this expense.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 67.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Second Resolution by Finance Committee whereas we have at present a balance in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Fund which may not be sufficient to meet all obligations incurred by this Grand Lodge by legislation for the benefit of our Odd Fellows in the army and navy of the United States and,

Whereas, We are desirous of being at all time in a financial condition to meet any and all contingencies that may arise, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Grand Master by and with the consent and approval of the War Relief Commission may at any time after June 1, 1919, if in their judgment thought expedient, levy an additional capitation tax, not exceeding sixty (60) cents per member, for the purpose of meeting all such contingencies. Such additional capitation tax when collected shall be placed to the credit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Fund.

JOHN H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

THE FLAG CEREMONY.

The following was adopted by the Grand Lodge at its recent session and should be used by every Lodge prior to opening:

In order that there may be uniformity in the various lodges of the State a Flag Ceremony has been provided.

The Noble Grand calls the lodge to order and satisfies himself that all present are qualified to remain. Immediately following and before the lodge is opened he says:

"The Warden and the committee (previously designated by the Noble Grand, the Conductor may be one of the committee) will retire and present the flag of our country."

They retire, without ceremony, in single file, the Warden in the center. On reaching the ante-room the Warden takes the flag, which should be mounted on a staff, and with the committee returns to the inner door. He gives an alarm to attract the attention of the inside guardian. The inside guardian says:

"Noble Grand, the Warden and committee bearing the flag are ready to enter."

N. G.: "You will admit them."

As they enter, without signal, the lodge rises and sings the first verse of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

They enter, single file, the Warden, bearing the flag, in the center. They proceed to the center of the room, facing the Noble Grand. As soon as they have reached the center and the singing is completed, the one on the right openes the Bible on the altar before them.

(The Bible should be kept on the altar in the center of the room at all times, except when degrees are being conferred.)

The Noble Grand says:

"Brothers, salute the flag."

This is the regular military salute, bringing the open right hand to the right side of the forehead, then dropping it to the side.

The Warden and committee proceed in single file to the station of the Noble Grand and the flag is presented to the Noble Grand, who places it in a socket at his right hand.

The Warden and the committee then proceed to their places and the lodge is seated.

§Until 1845 inclusive, proxy representation in the Grand Lodge of the United States was permitted. In 1839 Past Grand Master Samuel Pryor, of Pennsylvania, was elected proxy Representative by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, but did not serve. At the adjourned session in April, 1840, Past Grand Master Augustus Mathiot, of Maryland, presented credentials as proxy Representative of Illinois, which were accepted, and he was also recognized in that capacity at the annual session in October following; but there is no record of his election or appointment. In 1842 and 1843, James Earnest, of New York, was elected and served as proxy Representative of Illinois. In 1844 Past Grand Master William S. Stewart, of Missouri, D.D.G.S., was requested to appoint a proxy Representative for the Grand Lodge of Illinois; but no such proxy was present at the session of that year, unless Stewart himself acted in that capacity. In 1845 no election for Representative was held.

NOTICES.

The next Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., will be held in the City of Springfield, on the third Tuesday of November, 1919, viz., the 18th day of the month, at 3 o'clock.

The special attention of Secretaries and others is directed to the following law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge:

Resolved, That Grand Scribes and Grand Secretaries are hereby prohibited from delivering or transmitting visiting or withdrawal cards to any person whatever, or to any Encampment or Lodge, excepting upon the order in writing of an Encampment or Lodge, signed by its Scribe (in the case of an Encampment) or by its Secretary (in the case of a Lodge), and authenticated by the official seal of the Encampment or the Lodge.

Also to this law of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be directed not to fill any orders for supplies, for Lodges or individuals, unless the cash accompany such order.

In ordering such supplies as are sent by express, give full instructions; state to what office or station, and in whose care they may be forwarded.

All communications intended for the Grand Lodge, or the Grand Secretary, must be addressed to the undersigned at Springfield. The Grand Secretary's office is in the Grand Lodge Building, 115 W. Monroe street.

JOHN H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.
